CHAMPIONS BEATEN AGAIN.

PITTSBURGS RALLY AND PULL OUT ANOTHER VICTORY.

But the Philadelphias Are Outplayed Too, by the St. Louis Team—The Bostons Have an Easy Time With the Cincinnatis and Gain Materially on the New Yorks.

The Pittsburgs rallied when defeat was staring into their faces yesterday and managed to pull out another closely cut victory from the Brooklyns. The Philadelphias, however, were also beaten by the St. Louis team. While the New Yorks spent the day riding to Pittsburg, the Bostons won handily from the Cincinnatis, and gained enough points on Ewing's men to make last place for the latter a possibility to-day if they lose at Pittsburg while the Beaneaters are taking another ball from the Reds. The Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg teams are now close upon the heels of the Brooklyns, but the Champions will meet the Chicagos to-day for their final series of the present Western trip and are expected to come home next week in second place. The Quakers lead Hanlon's men by 6½ points; the Brooklyns are 22 points ahead of the Chicagos, who hold third place by a margin of 15 points over St. Louis. The latter team has the better of Pittsburg by 4 points, while for the present the remaining clubs are in the ruck, from which it is a hard matter to crawl. The results:

Pittsburg, 5; Brooklyn, 4.
St. Louis, 10; Philadelphia, 5.
Boston, 7; Cincinnati, 2.

PITTSBURG, 5; BROOKLYN, 4.

PITTSBURG, May 24.—Pittsburg won the last game of the Brooklyn series by a sensational batting rally in the ninth and tenth innings. For eight rounds Kennedy pitched almost perfectly, giving only one base on balls and allowing three hits, and as the Champions had a fourin run lead, he seemed certain to add another victory to his list. Williams and Wagner singled in the ninth, and after Cooley fouled out, Ritchey's hit scored Pittsburg's first run and aroused the rooters. Schriver batted for Ely, and his double scored two more runs. After Zimmer had fouled out, Philippi hit for two bases, tying the score. O'Brien scored the winning run in the tenth on his own single and hits by Williams and Wagner. The score:

ST. LOUIS, 10; PHILADELPHIA, 5.

ST. LOUIS, May 24.—The Cardinals took the first game of the series from the Quakers to-day by a score of 10 to 5. Dumb play by Douglass in the second, when he neglected to take a foul tip of Criger's, started the run getting, three men coming in as a result of this play. The Quakers scored five runs in the fifth as a result of Powell giving Maul a base on balls. This ended their run getting. The score:

Baseball Notes.

M. M. L.—Carter was the better pitcher.

C. M., Brooklyn.—The first man in the box is credited with the defeat, but his successor gets the victory if the game is pulled out.

The St. Louis team with McGraw and Robinson appears to be the most attractive Western team just now. The Brooklyns are lucky in having the Browns for a card at Washington Park on Decoration Day.

CINCINNATI, May 24.—Selee released Harvey Bailey to the Indianapolis Club to-night. He will join the team to-morrow.

President Soden of the Boston club has received a letter from Nick Young asking what stand he would take on the double umpire question. Soden answered that he would prefer eight good umpires to four, but would vote with the majority.

TRENTON, May 24.—James J. Jeffries, the pugilist, is not in favor with the Y. M. C. A. of this city. The association grounds were rented by the Cuban Giants and the Princeton Giants, two colored baseball teams, for a game, and Jeffries was hired to act as umpire. Secretary Pierce of the Christian Association to-day notified the clubs that the association would not tolerate the presence of the pugilist on their grounds and the game will be played without him.

President Dreyfuss Protests Against Rowdy Ball.

PITTSBURG, May 24.—President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburg ball club wired President N. E. Young during the fourth inning of yesterday's game protesting against Tim Hurst as umpire. Dreyfuss says that Dahlen of the Brooklyn club called Pitcher Waddell a vile name. Mrs. Dreyfuss heard it, too, from the box in which they sat, and she left the box. Shortstop Ely ran up to Hurst and protested against the language he alleged Dahlen used and Hurst, Dreyfuss and Ely say, ordered Ely back to his place, calling him a vile name. For this action Hurst was protested. President Young wired Dreyfuss that Hurst would have to umpire to-day, but that Umpire Terry would be here to-morrow. Dahlen says he used no bad language and Manager Hanlon, who was as close to him as President Dreyfuss was, corroborated Dahlen and says he will give $1,000 to any one who will prove that Dahlen is guilty as charged. Dreyfuss said to-day: "I want it understood that I was not finding any fault with any of Hurst's decisions, but protested because he failed to preserve order and protect the patrons of the Pittsburg club. Many ladies go to our games and if some of the players do not know how to behave there must be some one on the field to give them a wholesome lesson in deportment, instead of to set a bad example for them as Hurst did when he swore at Ely yesterday."

SPRINTER DUFFY INELIGIBLE.

Committees of the Intercollegiate Association Unanimous on That Point.

The representatives of Georgetown University made an ineffectual effort yesterday afternoon to have their champion sprinter, A. F. Duffy, included in the list of men eligible to start in the intercollegiate championship games to-day. The matter came up in the form of a protest made by Princeton before a combined meeting of the Executive and Advisory Committees of the association, at which the following were present:

A. G. Mason, Harvard, chairman; J. D. Dana, Yale; H. H. Langenberg, Princeton; E. A. Mechling, University of Pennsylvania; W. A. Young, New York University, and W. H. Quinn, Columbia, Executive Committee; G. T. Kirby, Columbia, and H. L. Geyelien, University of Pennsylvania Advisory Committee.

The interests of the sprinter was looked after by J. J. Duffy, manager of the track team, assisted by the following Georgetown alumni: J. P. O'Brien, T. G. McGirr and Frank Smith. As anticipated the main issue was the charge that Duffy had not resided a calendar year at Georgetown, after he won prizes in open meetings, which included his victory in the A. A. U. championship last August. The university delegates presented overwhelming proof that he had matriculated in regular manner and even showed that he had passed the regular examination for a full year's work. They also contended that a calendar year was intended to read academic year, but failed to convince the meeting on this point. Many of the men who sat in judgment were concerned in framing the rule in question, which was inserted in the constitution with the express purpose of debarring men, who had previously won championships, from representing a college until they had proved their bona fide intention to study by residing a year longer at the college than is required of a man who has not demonstrated athletic ability previous to entering college.

There was no attempt made to prove Duffy guilty of professionalism and the Princeton delegate put himself on record as not being in favor of such a charge. The vote declaring Duffy ineligible was unanimous, but the Georgetown representatives immediately exercised the right of appeal to the faculty. They tried to obtain the privilege to make an oral argument to the Faculty Committee, which would insure Duffy running in to-day's meet under protest, but this was denied and half an hour was allowed them to draw up the grounds of appeal. A statement of the case was then wired to the following members of the Faculty Committee, with a request for an immediate decision by telegraph: Prof. Pepper, University of Pennsylvania, Prof. Richards, Yale, Prof. Pyne, Princeton, Prof. Hollis, Harvard, and Prof. Schaffer, Syracuse. Duffy's only chance of competing in the games is a failure of a majority of the committee to send a reply to the telegram before the games begin at 2 o'clock to-day.

Gustavus T. Kirby, the member of the Advisory Committee who framed the rule on which the action was taken, said that he had no doubt that the ruling of the Joint committee would be upheld by the Faculty Committee, and Duffy himself appears to be aware that he will have to be on probation for another year before he receives an opportunity to show his heels to the other intercollegiate crack sprinters. After the meeting, he said:

"I know that I am ineligible to compete this year under the rules, but it was the alleged charge of professionalism that upset me."

While the meeting was in progress there were many interested collegians in the corridors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel discussing the prospects of the teams. Princeton's stock has risen considerably and second place is now generally conceded to the Tigers, while a few good judges of form hold to the prediction that they will lower the colors of Old Penn. A new candidate for sprint honors, who met with favor is H. H. Cloudman of Bowdoin, who wanted to receive credit for a collegiate record of 9 4-5 seconds for 100 yards. The matter was tabled. He is said to be running very fast and may upset Princeton's calculations to win the 100 with Jarvis, though the latter is a more consistent and experienced performer.

Many of the teams that will engage in today's struggle came to New York last night. Princeton, University of California and the University of Pennsylvania were quartered at the Murray Hill and Harvard at the Plaza. The Yale team will arrive to-day and stay at the Savoy. A dinner of the leading members of the association took place at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night. A. G. Mason of Harvard was toastmaster, and during the evening Gustavus T. Kirby of Columbia made a speech and presented a loving cup to W. B. Curtis in recognition of his long services as referee.

De La Salle Institute Games.

The twelfth annual spring games of the De La Salle Institute A. A. were held at Columbia Field yesterday afternoon. H. Connelly was the star performer of the day, carrying off the gold championship medal with a total of 18 points. He lowered the school record in the shot-put by 3 feet and in the hammer by 7 feet. Summaries:

BROOKLYN ROAD HORSES WIN.

Manhattan Speedway Trotters and Pacers Too Slow at the Parkway Wagon Races.

The road riders of Brooklyn and Manhattan turned out in force yesterday afternoon for the opening of the eighth annual season of harness racing at the grounds of the Parkway Driving Club. The clubhouse was handsomely dressed with bunting and there were many women in the crowd which filled the piazza and the balcony. Three of the four races were trotted and paced to wagon, with amateur drivers up, and most of the steppers that started were well-known road horses. Although the Manhattan contingent out numbered the Brooklyn delegation, the horses from this side of the big Bridge were unable to land a single race. Such Speedway flyers as Jack, 2:12¼; Honor Bright, 2:28¼, Swift, 2:16¼, Angelus, 2:12¼; Ada P., 2:09¼; Royalto, Clarence A., 2:26¼; Red Lady, 2:12¼; Sir Eld, 2:14¼, Excellence, 2:18¼, and Island Belle, 2:24¼, were bowled over in most unceremonious style by the Brooklyn cracks Latitude, 2:15, Daphne Dallas, 2:15¼, and McKinley, 2:21¼.

Jack and Ada P., two of the fastest pacers on the Speedway, were the favorites in the race for the Daniel Cup, donated by President Kane of the Road Drivers' Association. Dr. Gill's big horse got off well in the first heat and won it handily, but he became unsteady after this performance and was not afterward a factor in the contest. Ada P. also behaved badly and the race settled down to a contest between the Brooklyn mare Daphne Dallas, driven by F. G. Lemmermann, Vice-President of the Parkway Club, and W. R. Rose's Sir Eld. The New York horse won the fastest heat of the race, turning the track in 1:00, with the first quarter at a 2:10 gait, but the Brooklyn mare proved to be too much for him in the end. She must win another race to entitle her owner to the cup. Mr. Lemmermann scored again in the 2:20 race with his fast brown gelding McKinley, beating, among others, the crack mare Honor Bright. Ex-Sheriff Frank Creamer's new road horse Latitude, 2:15, was an easy winner of the Parkway Cup. Latitude was formerly owned by the late C. F. Bates, who bought him in the West with the expectation of transforming him into a high stepper.

Alexander Newburger officiated as starter. The judges were George A. Coleman, P. W. Logan and Dr. H. H. Kane. Summaries:

Polo.

HEMPSTEAD, May 24.—The second Meadow Brook and Rockaway polo teams played for the Hempstead cups on the grounds of the Meadow Brook club to-day. The Rockaways played in fine form from the start and easily defeated the home team notwithstanding that they allowed them a handicap of five goals. The fine work of Rene La Montagne, the youngest player on the team, was a notable feature of the game. The game was played without a foul or a penalty. The positions played were:

Meadow Brook—		Rockaway—
C. H. Mackey, 3	J. W. Appleton, 4	Robert Stevens, 2
H. B. Bolman, 3	Total, 12	Rockaway—W. A. Hazard, 3; F. D. Savage, 4; Frank T. Conover, Jr., 6; R. La Montagne, 4. Total 17.

Rockaway—Goals earned, 15; Meadow Brook—Goals earned, 4; allowed by handicap, 5. Total score—Rockaway, 19; Meadow Brook, 9.

Commodore Ledvard and August Belmont Will Visit the Herreshoffs.

NEWPORT, May 24.—The steam yacht Scout arrived here this morning from New York, Mr. August Belmont, her owner, coming from Bristol later. To-morrow morning Mr. Belmont will return to Bristol and will be accompanied by Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard of the New York Yacht Club. It is not known why they will visit the Herreshoffs, but it is supposed to be on a matter connected with the coming yachting season. It was learned to-day that work on the Whitney-Duryea 70-footer was practically completed, and that she would be launched at Bristol on Saturday night. She will be rigged at once and be ready for delivery in about two weeks. It is then thought that racing will begin between the three boats of this class, William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s Virginia being the last to go overboard.

Jersey City Club Must Give Up Its Grounds.

The game yesterday between Jersey City and Newark ended Jersey City in the Atlantic League. When the season began a syndicate of Philadelphians, headed by John Jermon, secured a lease of the Johnston avenue grounds in Jersey City at a rental of $500 for the season, and promised to make the necessary improvements thereon preparatory to the opening. This was delayed from week to week, the club in the meantime having its games transferred to the other towns of the circuit. When the team arrived home nothing had been done toward putting the grounds in shape, neither had any payment been made in the rent. After having permitted two games to be played between Newark and Jersey City without any money in sight, the owners of the grounds notified Manager Mills of the Jersey City club yesterday to cancel all further games scheduled, as the league would not be permitted to use the ground any longer. The situation is equally as bad in Newark, and it is said that both clubs will be transferred, Jersey City to Wilmington and Newark to Atlantic City, in an effort to finish out the season.
