Tall Pine Items.

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) Honest, conscientious and capable men are the stamp that are needed for office in these days when the foolish cry which punctuates the speech of every demagogue: "The rich are growing richer and the poor poorer." All men are not born equal; and it seems to me that for the poor live only in their emotions. So far as I know there is no outspoken socialist down here. If there is a man who entertains the idea of the equal distribution and allotment plan, I will say that his dream will never be realized even on a small scale. I emphasize definition.

The merchants of the village seemingly are doing a fairly good business. They are aware that honesty is man's most valuable asset. This is not an iridescent dream.

Max Shuman has sold his property near Ridge post office to H. Norman Milburn for $1,600. Mr. Shuman is selling off his large stock of goods at cost preparatory to moving to Baltimore.

Hot There are no prize-fighters down here. Do not men fall victims to their facility? The brain of the prize-fighter does not convolve. I opine that he relies more on his "jabs" than on thoughts that burn.

Children may be counted by the score. How particular should be the actions of men. It should be borne in mind that a child's eye will take in the perfect reflection and counterpart of a mountain though a giant cannot scale it.

Dr. Cook, D. D. S., does good work. Does not conscientious work receive its just reward? Do not hear of much sickness. I do hope that the diphtheria will not make its appearance, and then no sufferer will have to take certain cubic centimeters of the poisonous compound familiarly known as anti-toxin.

No crimes to chronicle. No type of the primitive man, who is incapable of comprehending the rights of others. My "fellow" is not selfish. Goodness is deeply rooted in his heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaffney D. Evans, of Lansdale, Pa., after spending a week very pleasantly with parents as Wynne, left 9th, instant, for Jamestown via Baltimore and Washington. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ridington, of Pa., accompanied them. Mr. Evans is auditor in the large department store of Strawbridge and Clothier of Philadelphia. He is a fair sample of the young men who received their primary education in the public school of the village. A hundred-point man in every respect—true to every trust, and loyal to the firm that employs him. St. Mary's is proud of sons of his type.

Chaplines Items.

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) Well, well the fall is with us once again—how times flies? Farmers are now at work in earnest and seem very well pleased with the prospect of a full crop this year. Mrs. J. L. Lucas and daughter, who has been visiting Mrs. Z. F. Mattingly have returned to their home in Virginia.

Mrs. E. H. Raley and children, Madeline and Carroll, have returned to Washington, after an enjoyable visit to Zach P. Mattingly.

A number of our teachers returned home Saturday after spending a pleasant week at the Institute at Annapolis.

The winter time is approaching. With cold snows and rain And we all will be happy, When summer comes again.

Lost.

Lost a S. E. Ledger, somewhere in Leonardtown. Finder please return to W. C. MATTINGLY.

Poplar Grove Items.

Poplar Grove is geographically situated between River Spring and Bluestone, on the avenue of the latter name. This Bluestone, however, is in the Milestown District, not in St. Inigo's District.

The Grove has partly disappeared, but in its place stands a pretty Chapel of which the hundred of that District are justly proud.

It is given out that a grand Lawn Fete, alias a Festival, will be held at the Chapel very shortly; in other words, on Wednesday, Sept. 23. Also that this event will surpass any of the kind ever given there.

Tents have been engaged for serving dinner and supper in the open; and on account of the afternoon program, dinner will be ready for any number of guests at 12 o'clock noon. Supper will be served till 8 p. m., when Carter's Band will be given the right of way.

There will be ice cream and all the other refreshments in plenty, besides many more. They say some surprises are in store for the occasion.

At 2.30 p. m. the best shots in St. Mary's and Charles Counties will engage in a sharp-shooting match in the large level field that stretches from Poplar Grove to the Wicomico. This promises to be one of the most exciting matches seen in the County for a long time; for the gunners along the Wicomico, in both Counties, are among the best in Maryland. Money prizes will help to sharpen the competition.

The news has gone abroad, the crowds are coming and Poplar Grove will be ready to welcome all.

Graham-Hammett. Miss Fannie L. Hammett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Hammett, of St. Mary's County, was quietly married, Wednesday afternoon, August 29th, at 1.30 p. m., at the home of her parents' 1627 W. Lanvale Street, Baltimore, Md., to James D. Graham, of Richmond, Va., by the Rev. Oscar Eyster. The bridesmaid was Miss Corlean Hammett; sister of the bride. The groom was attended by Dr. Walter M. Hammett. The bride was attractively attired in a gray, traveling suit with hat and gloves to match. The happy couple immediately left for the Jamestown Exposition. They will make their future home in Richmond, Pa.

W. E. Light Killed. Martinsburg, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Mr. William E. Light, a prominent citizen of this county, formerly farmer and for years justice of the peace in Hedgesville, but who moved to this city about two years ago, was struck by Baltimore and Ohio passenger train No. 5, west bound, near Hennis Distillery, in this city, this evening, and died shortly afterward. He stepped out of the way of an eastbound freight and stepped in front of the passenger train. Mr. Light was 62 years old, two daughters and a son survive him. His wife, formerly Miss Duval, of this county, died a few months ago.—The Star.

Mrs. Light was a sister of Mrs. Jos. S. Mathews of Park Hall Md.

The Judge Speaks Forcefully.

Judge W. B. Simmons, of Pinecastle, Va., told the reporter that L. & M. Paint was used on his residence in 1882, and held its color well for 21 years. He further said that 3 years ago, he was induced to use another paint and is sorry he did, because the other paint did not make good. The Judge will now always use the L. & M., because he knows if any defect exists in L. & M. Paint the house will be repainted for nothing.

The L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead, and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years.

Actual cost of L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon. Donations of L. & M. made to the churches. Sold by C. Palmer, Palmers; Johnson & Co., Solomons.

Hotel St. Mary's will be open for guests during September Court.
