There was a slight rain in the Leonardtown section last Sunday evening, the first for four weeks. Vegetation was greatly benefited thereby.

We regret to hear of the sickness of Thomas H. Fowler, of Mechanicsville, and wish him a speedy restoration to health. Mr. Fowler is one of our county's best citizens.

Saturday last, there were three Washington automobiles in Leonardtown. Mr. Robert Callahan's car made the record run from Mechanicsville in 40 minutes and to Great Mills in 27 minutes.

Mr. L. E. Mumford, of Cape Charles, Va., was in Leonardtown last Friday and went from here to Colonial Beach by launch and returned Saturday evening. On Monday he returned home by way of Mechanicsville. His many friends here were delighted to see him.

On the way home from the Denver convention, J. Frank Smith, of this county, was overcome by heat and fainted in the barber shop of the Hotel Metropole, St. Joseph, Mo. Cold Water was thrown in his face and he speedily recovered. We trust that he will sustain no ill effects from his trip.

The appointment of Mr. B. Harris Camaller, of Leonardtown, as the successor of Judge J. Parrott Crane on the bench of this Circuit meets with unqualified approval all over the Circuit. The Hyattsville Independent, in a recent issue heartily endorses the selection of Mr. Camaller and compliments him highly.

The Mabel & Ruth, probably the largest sailing vessel to come to Leonardtown landing since the war, brought a cargo of lumber to Mr. Jos. F. Neal last Thursday. The vessel was a three mast schooner and had on board 214,000 feet of lumber. Captain Conway, her master, was a pleasant gentleman and deservedly proud of his ship.

Bishop Alfred A. Curtis died in Baltimore last Saturday, July 11, in the 76th year of his age. He led a saintly life, doing good to all his fellow men and the world is better because he lived. He was a preacher of great force and a scholar of unusual acquirements. His memory will be affectionately revered by all who knew him. May he rest in peace!

There is considerable feeling in the county over the selection of the State road. Many are contending that a mistake has been made in selecting the Mechanicsville route and are advocating the route by Clements Choptico and Budd's Creek. Delegations left the county Tuesday for Baltimore to meet the State Road Commissioners and argue the point.

The orphans and Commissioners' Courts and the Election Supervisors were in session last Tuesday.

Joel Chandler Harris, affectionately known as "Uncle Remus", died at his home in Atlanta, Ga., July 6, 1908. Mr. Harris was born in Georgia Dec. 9, 1846, and in 1876 became connected with the Atlanta Constitution. It was while employed on that paper that he wrote his "Stories by Uncle Remus" which made his name famous in all English speaking countries. He was a charming man in all the walks of life—gentle, kindly, considerate and his death is a real loss not only to his State but to the world.

Prices Radically Marked Down.

Here's an opportunity for the thrifty and prudent. We have organized a Clothing Sale on bigger and broader lines than ever before. The goods involved represent all our unsold balances, supplemented by odd lots recently purchased from the manufacturers who wished to effect quick sales on all broken lines and left-overs.

The clothing is first-class and reliable in every respect—choice, new models—smart patterns and popular color combinations in weights that are all right for present wear.

If you are economical you can't do a better thing than to come to see us and supply your wardrobe now. The money we will save you on every item will yield you a handsome dividend on the investment.

Just before real Spring weather arrives, we want to clear out every garment in the house that won't be seasonable between May and October. We'll powder prices in order to carry out our plans.

Don't you let this chance slip without profiting by it. Bargains—splendid values—fairly abundant and you can't afford not to take advantage of them. It's a distinctive, characteristic, unparalleled sale and the matchless offerings should attract multitudes to the store.
