COUNTY NEWS.

Localwise and Otherwise.

Dr. J. E. Heard and son, of Baltimore, are guests of Hotel St. Mary's Leonardtown.

Mrs. T. Jackson Moore and sons, of Washington, D. C. are guests of Hotel Lawrence.

The Republican speaking campaign in the West is not to open until September 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Combs are visiting the family of Wm. Meverell Loker, Esq., Leonardtown.

Note advertisement of Festival for the benefit of All Saints' Parish at Oakley on Thursday, the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards, of Mobile, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Edwards, near Chaptico.

Mrs. Ida Ford and Mrs. Giles Dyer, of Washington, are visiting Mrs. Wm. M. Loker, Leonardtown.

John T. Herbert and wife, of Clements, have returned from a visit to Atlantic City and other points north.

A good deal of tobacco is now going into market from the county. We hope the shippers will get top-notch prices.

Don't forget to attend the St. John's Festival. You will enjoy yourself thoroughly and contribute to a good cause.

Mrs. Charles R. Kinsey, of New York, is spending the month of August with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Edwards.

The State Shellfish Commission expects to complete the survey of the Calvert county bay shore by the middle of September.

Charles Vernon, infant son of Stephen G. and Belle King, died at the residence of his parents, Newark, N. J., August 13, 1908.

The recent intensely hot spell was due to the Sun shining for Taft. But the Sun will cool for November 3, proximo, and stay cool for awhile thereafter.

Monday night at the blacksmith and wheelwright shop of B. I. Aud, near Poplar Hill church, caught fire and was burned. The loss is about $250.

Derby A. Lynch, Esq., and wife, of Baltimore, are visiting their old St. Mary's home. Derby's many friends in Leonardtown are delighted to see him.

Mr. John Kelly and Miss Mary Kelly, of Philadelphia, brother and sister of Rev. Lawrence Kelly, S. J., are visiting the family of John W. Rehman at "Bushwood."

Rockefeller, Carnegies and the numerous multimillionaires are for Taft, because they know Taft is for them. The great Trusts are for him for the same reason. Who are you for?

The engineer corps of the State Road Commission has completed the survey of the St. Mary's county road from Mechanicsville almost to Morgantown. The survey is being painstakingly and carefully done.

Arthur Campbell, colored, was the first prisoner given a job on the street under the recent Act of Assembly. Campbell was sentenced to the county jail for 60 days for disturbing the peace.

The State of Maryland will build a new State Tobacco Warehouse on Light Street, Baltimore, on the site of the old one which has been partially removed in making the new thoroughfare fronting Light Street wharf.

This year the first sitting of the officers of registration will be held on Tuesday, September 29, second sitting on October 6, and Tuesday, October 13 will be revision day. On revision day no new names are added to the books.

General Secretary J. O. Stutsman, of the Prisoners' Aid Association of Maryland, was in Leonardtown last week and made an examination of our county jail. We understand that Mr. Stutsman thinks the county needs a new jail.

Governor Crothers has appointed W. P. Powell, of St. Jerome's, a Notary Public for St. Mary's county, and Charles Adams, a Justice of the Peace for the Fifth Election district of this county, to succeed his father, Henry C. Adams, deceased.

"Mayeroff", the beautiful home of Mr. Milford Fishman, on St. Clement's Bay, Milestown district, is without exception the finest and best equipped residence in Southern Maryland. It is an ideal spot and Mr. and Mrs. Fishman are ideal hosts.

If there is a deaf or dumb white child in the county whose parents desire it educated without cost, write to Dr. Charles W. Ely, Maryland School for the Deaf, Frederick, Md. The school for deaf and dumb, colored children is in Baltimore and is also free.

Home-Coming Week.

Home-coming week of 1908 attracted one of the largest crowds ever in Leonardtown for years.

In anticipation of their coming the Town was decorated with flags and the State colors and everything put in holiday shape. Some of the buildings were beautifully decorated, particularly the two hotels—Hotel Lawrence and Hotel St. Mary's.

The crowd was very much too large for the two hotels to handle, and rooms in private houses had to be pre-empted for the accommodation of guests who came with the expectation of securing lodgings at the hotels. Then too, almost every family in the town had relatives and friends visiting it. In fine, there was nothing wanting to make the reunion most pleasant save the thought that there were still many absent ones who could not return to "meet their friends once more."

The dances, the concert, the baseball game and the races were all enjoyed and little trips down the bay for oyster scalds and fish fries added to the pleasures of the occasion. The attendants at the dances were too numerous to mention. The concert was a delightful entertainment and the singing was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

The program was as follows:
Overture—Poe's Poem.
Selection—The Red Mill.
Steinwald's Band.
Opening Chorus—Home Again.
Leonardtown Glee Club.
Trio—Mermaids' Evening Song.
Annie Turner, Katherine Morgan, Annie Morgan.
Cornet Solo—Addat Polka.
W. J. Hooper and Band.
Chorus—Auld Lang Syne. Club.
Solo—Last Rose of Summer, with violin obligato by Prof. O. P. Steinwald.

Mr. J. S. Rogers, of Hyattsville, Quartet—Come When My Love Lies Dreaming.
Soprano, Mrs. George P. Loker, alto Miss Mollie Foxwell, bass, Samuel Hayden; tenor, Charles W. Foxwell. Solo—Bonnie, Sweet Bonnie.
J. S. Rogers, of Hyattsville.
Duet—Adieu.
Mrs. George P. Loker, Charles W. Foxwell.
Chorus—Home, Sweet Home. Club.
The Glee Club is composed as follows:

Charles W. Foxwell, Samuel Hayden, Albert Morgan, Stephen M. Jones, Mrs. George P. Loker, Misses Katherine Morgan, Annie Morgan, Agnes Ching, Ellen Combs, Mollie Foxwell, Margarite Abell, Bessie Abell, Annie Turner, Lillian Turner, Madeline Camaller and Adelaide Lynch.

The baseball game gave promise of a close and exciting contest until E. Dent, the pitcher for the locals, was overcome by the heat, and the Virginians ran away with the game scoring 6 of their runs in the 9th inning and winning the game by 9 to 4.

The races were unusually well attended and the large crowd seemed to enjoy the sport. We append a summary of the results:
