HOST, WALTZING, DROPS DEAD AT LEAGUE DANCE

Exertion Fatal to E. R. Prayor, Harlem Leader of Independence Party.

GUESTS NEAR PANIC.

Laughing Dancers Stumble Over Body Before They Know Man Is Dead.

Edward R. Prayor, one of the most prominent members of the Independence League, and one of the league's most active workers, died while dancing with a young woman in the club rooms of the league, at No. 2321 Eighth avenue, at 12.30 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Prayor, who was forty-five years old, and who was looked upon as a confirmed bachelor, lived at No. 229 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, and recently he organized a series of barn dances to be held in the rooms occupied jointly by the leaguers in the Twenty-first and Twenty-third Assembly Districts. He hoped b ygiving these dances to arouse the interest of the young women in the districts, believing that they were powerful vote getters.

The barn dance last night was the largest ever given by Mr. Prayor. There were more than 100 couples on the floor, and about the walls were that many more young men and women. The dance had been scheduled to come to an end at 2 o'clock.

His Last Joke.

Suddenly at 12 o'clock the band, following the instructions of Mr. Prayor, began playng "Home, Sweet Home." There was a wall of disappointment among the dancers. Prayor danced the waltz through, and then stood in the centre of the floor laughing, when suddenly the musicians began playing "Teasing, Teasing, I Was Only Teasing You."

Again he and his dancing partner began to waltz. The Independence Leaguer was then blown and hot, but he danced hard and fast. He had glided to the centre of the hall, which was packed with dancers, when he suddenly toppled. His hold slipped from the young woman's waist and he collapsed in a heap on the floor.

Other men and women came along. They had not noticed Prayor fall, ad many of them tripped and fell over him until a dozen or more men and women lay in a heap on the floor. They all arose laughing when it was discovered that Prayor was unconscious.

He was carried to a dressing-room and a physician summoned.

"This man's dead," the physician said.

Sidney A. Cloman, the military attache, and Craig W. Wadsworth, second secretary of the embassy. Medlock, an American resident of London, and Lieut.-Commander Chester Wells, U. S. N.

"BILLY POSSUMS" IN PARADE.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 23.—Georgia will be represented by the largest delegation of any Southern State at the Taft inaugural. Two companies of the National Guard, 180 cadets from the Georgia Military Academy and the Donald Frazer Military School, and the Atlanta Firemen's Fife and Drum Corps of thirty-five will leave Atlanta on Monday of next week for Washington. In addition, a hundred citizens of Georgia will march in the parade, carrying a lot of "Billy Possums."

CLASH OVER KEIRAN COMPANY ENDED

Receiver Named by State Court Will Have Sole Charge of Concern.

The hearing in the personal ankruptcy petition obf Patrick J. Kieran before United States Commissioner Alexander will go on again to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

To-day Attorney Montagu, representing State Receiver Thomas F. Gilroy jr., moved before Judge Holt that the opinion of Referee Peter B. Olney, appointed to determine whether the Fidelity Funding Company was or was not amenable to the Federal Bankruptcy laws, be made permanent and binding.

Mr. Olney's opinion left no alternative, as he said in his report, that according to the law the Court sad no power to render the concern liable under the federal bankruptcy act, and with that opinion confirmed by the Court the settlement of the Company's affairs will be proceeded with by Thomas F. Gilroy, appointed receiver by the State court.

The personal petition, which is involuntary, will be passed upon by Commissioner Alexander soon. Kieran and his lawyer, Moses Shire, of Buffalo, contend there is now lodged in various trust companies and banks, not only in this city, but in some two score banks throughout the country, securities and notes of a value to far exceed all the liabilities of both the Fidelity Funding Company and Mr. Kieran personally.

TRY THIS FOR COLDS

Mix half ounce of Concentrated pine compound with two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whiskey; shake it well each time and use in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours.

These ingredients can be obtained from any good druggist, who will prepare the mixture, or it can be mixed at home.

This is said to be the quickest cough and cold cure known to science, and at the same time it has a splendid tonic effect which benefits the whole system. The Concentrated pine is a special pine product refined for medical use, and comes only in half-ounce bottles, each inclosed in a tin screw-top case, which is air-tight, to retain all the original strength of the fluid, but be sure it is labelled "Concentrated."

By "FOOTLIGHTS."

Glau and his overweight chorus from the "Aeroplane" company have returned to New York in what may be described as greatly reduced circumstances. Not as to finances, let it be said, nor yet in numbers, glory be, but in avoirdupois—that is to say, gross flesh. The entire galaxy has lost out in this respect, much to its advantage.

It seems the people out West will support slim ballerinos, and no other, and our famous "balloon chorus" carried, so to speak, no weight with them. They treated that prize collection of fat New York beauties with an unprecedented coldness. Consequently, Glau faced the problem of reducing the entire front and rear rows at once, or shipping them back—"excess" baggage. It was a terrific job, as all who saw the "Aeroplane" before it left this tolerant town will admit, but our ingenious townsman tackled it and succeeded—broke all records, in fact. And thereby hangs a tale worthy of any fat lady's attention.

Glau didn't rehearse his flock into shape, nor starve them into line, nor yet worry them, verbally, into shadows. He paid salaries regularly and let them eat and drink as they listed. He simply hung up a new rule in the dressing-rooms to the effect that every lady less than five foot seven who weighed in excess of 150 pounds must take a spoonful after each meal and at bedtime (or about where her bedtime ought to be) of the following: One-half ounce Marmola, ½ ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3½ ounces Peppermint Water.

They did it and in a month averaged a loss of a pound a day apiece. "That's a dandy recipe," says Glau. "Simple, pleasant, harmless and a worker from the word 'go.' Wish I could get a railroad rate reducer half as good."
