Justice's Court—Stoutenburgh, J.

Thos. Mitchell was brought up yesterday morning, having been arrested and lodged in jail the previous night on a charge of disturbing the peace. He pleaded not guilty, and his case was set for jury trial to-day at 10 o'clock a. m., and not being able to procure $200 bail he was committed to the County Jail.

The five Chinese who had been arrested on a charge of nuisance in keeping a hog-pen within the city limits, were tried yesterday, and three of them were acquitted, it having been proved that they had nothing to do with the hog-pen. The two others, Ah Chung and another known as Dick Mick, or Dick Mack, were fined $1 apiece and costs, amounting in all to $43.75 each, and allowed till Saturday night to remove the nuisance.

Josephine Labresche complained against her husband, C. B. Labresche, for brutally striking, kicking, beating and bruising her, whereupon a warrant for assault and battery was issued, and the man arrested. When he came into the Court-room he had the appearance of having been both assaulted and battered, for he wore deep mourning around and beneath his left eye. He pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set for 10 a. m. Saturday. He was committed in default of $250 bail.

Another complaint of nuisance was made. This time it is against a white man living near the Grove House.

JUMPING AND TEARING.—Some time ago A. J. Colwell jumped a vacant lot on the west side of McCannon street, back of the Court-house, and built a small house there. On the evening of the day before yesterday we saw a crowd gathered about the place, and when we reached it we learned that a woman had come to claim the lot. Yesterday evening the woman, who keeps a boarding-house on Lacour street, we are told, came again, with a crowd of men at her heels, and demanded that Colwell should vacate the lot and "take his house along with him." This he refused to do unless the claimant should show him proofs that she owned the lot. And now the tearing comes in. She seized him by the vest, which garment she tore completely in two. It was expected that she would tear him in two next. She did not, however, but walked off, leaving the jumper in possession of the lot.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Joseph M. Maguire takes the Hamilton stage this morning, bound for San Francisco. He came here some days since to inspect mines in Highland District in which he is largely interested. Having become satisfied that he has invested his means to good advantage, he goes to San Francisco to perfect arrangements for working his mine energetically. Mr. M we are sure will speak a good work for Pioche and its surrounding camps.

OFF FOR COLLEGE.—By this morning's stage for Hamilton, William Henry Harrison and Henry Freudenthal, two intelligent lads of Pioche, take their departure for California, intending to pursue a course of studies at the Santa Clara College. From many months acquaintance with Masters Harrison and Freudenthal we are satisfied they will acquit themselves creditably.

PERSONAL.—Dr. A. C. Bishop left on yesterday's stage for Patterson Station, 60 miles distant, having been called thither to attend upon Mr. Evans, father-in-law of Joe Travis, a brother of our Sheriff.

MONTANA MINE.—A meeting of the owners of the above mine will be held at the RECORD business office, Upper Main street, this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock.

FOR RENT.—Building adjoining the Dexter stables, now used as a barber shop. Apply to W. S. Travis.

PIONEER NEWS DEPOT, Main street—C. Wiederhold.

No passengers to-day from Hamilton.

DOMESTIC INFELICITY.—Near the upper end of Meadow Valley street, late on the evening of the 22d, a man and woman engaged in a scuffle which, with the loud words and cries, disturbed the slumbers and attracted the attention of their neighbors. Such expression of conjugal affection as "You're drunk, you beast!" and other phrases too numerous (and profane) to mention, more freely interchanged and the sentences punctuated with kicks and blows. If people will fight why don't they do it in the daytime, and not awaken their neighbors from the "sweet sleep of peace" by the sound of wars alarms. Yesterday afternoon the cry of "murder" was heard coming from the same house. On going to the place shortly after it was found apparently deserted. A pile of woman's clothing, etc. was lying on the porch in front of the house, and we learned that the woman had just come out of a combat triumphant, having inflicted a wound beneath her husband's eye with a coffee-pot.

"ME CHE-ILD."—Yesterday morning whilst passing down Lacour street, piercing shrieks came to our ears, and we heard the voice of a female, apparently drunk, who called in intensely melo-dramatic tones for her offspring, whom we supposed from her remarks to be in the possession of some other party. As no arrest was made we finally concluded that she must be rehearsing some tragedy for the stage. She should certainly be engaged by some enterprising manager.

SOLD.—Yesterday morning at about 9 o'clock several loud reports like those of a pistol were heard in Chinatown. Our first informant told us there had been a fight, and that he had "hopes that three or four Celestials were shot." Our next informant said that he had heard a pistol shot. Finally we came to a man who had seen the cause of alarm, and he told us that—a Chinaman had been setting off fire-crackers. "Three black crows."

ANOTHER GIFT CONCERT.—H. M. Jameson is the agent for the sale of tickets in Pioche. Full particulars of this grand gift concert will be found among the new advertisements this morning.

ASHIM never utters a word about hard times, but keeps on hand a full supply of everything in the clothing, dry goods and grocery line. He manages a Pioneer Store, Main street, opposite Lacour.

THE ice question is not so exciting a topic since the article can be obtained at the ice cream saloon, Lacour street.
