THE BELMONT CHRONICLE.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

REMOVAL.

The Chronicle office has been removed to the new

MASONIC HALL BUILDING,

A few doors east of the Court House, and a few doors West of the Norton House.

THE FIRST OF APRIL

Being the usual time for moving we hope those persons who change their residences in town will inform us, that our carrier boy may make no mistakes. Persons at a distance will please send us word where to direct their papers to in case of removal.

MEDICAL.

THE BELMONT MEDICAL SOCIETY will hold its annual meeting at the Norton House in St. Clairsville on Thursday the 19th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

HENRY WEST, Sec

April 5th, 1855.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

We were unable to attend the examinations of the pupils of the public schools in town, last week, but hear them well spoken of, as being well conducted and very interesting.

MOVED.—We are now snugly fixed in our new office where we will pleased to see our friends, and accommodate them with any thing in our line. We will yield the palm to no one in all this section of the country for the neatness and beauty of our Job Work. Call and see for yourselves!

☞"A penny saved is a penny earned"—said Dr. Franklin, and how applicable is the proverb to every avocation in life. The mechanic, the speculator, the professional man realize its truth every day of their lives. We know of no place where it is more forcibly illustrated than in the single item of daguerreotype likenesses taken at Faris's Gallery in Wheeling. They are almost as cheap as dirt. Read his advertisements then give him a call.

☞The inscription on the mysterious box mentioned in our last paper has been deciphered. The individual we mentioned as handing us the account of it succeeded in deciphering it on the 1st inst. It is thus; The inscription was

RIL
PAF
LOO

Commencing in the centre at the letter A and proceeding first to the left, the letter P, then upward to the right, it read—"April Fool."

☞Young on the Understanding—This is the title of work that may at all times be found in the basement of the Masonic Hall. Mr. Young although no doctor, is a capital hand on fits.

Norton House.

Our friend Norton of the Norton House in this place introduces himself to the readers of the Chronicle this week, in our advertising columns. Mr. Norton has been a caterer to the public tastes for years, and during his sojourn in our village has proved himself a first rate landlord. His house is well supplied with everything that makes for the comfort of the traveller, and the accommodating landlord may at all times be found to wait upon his customers. He is deserving of patronage, and we hope he may receive it.

☞Jacob Heyman has just returned from the east, and brought with him a large and splendid stock of Dry Goods, which he informs us he is determined to sell cheap. For particulars see his Advertisement which will appear next week.

Town Election.

The Corporation election on Monday last resulted as follows.—Mayor,—Wm. Faris; Recorder—M. J. W. Glover, Esq; Council—E. G. Morgan, Esq., C. G. Hubbard, Joseph Butler, Amos Albin, B. R. Cowen. The majority for the above ticket was about 17.

Township Elections.

At the election for township officers on Monday the following officers were elected: Justice of the Peace—Henry B. Smith; Trustees—Edward Shallcross, D. G. Naiswanger, Henry Neff; Clerk—Jas. W. Collins; Treasurer—N. Hillis; Constables—Wm. Rice, Wm. Evans. The above were all run by the K. N's except the last named. The majorities varied from 30 to 55.

WHEELING TP.—Elects an Anti-Know Nothing Justice by 30 majority.

COLERAIN—Elects a Know Nothing Justice.

GOSHEN—Elects a Know Nothing Justice.

SMITH—Elects one K. N. and one Anti-Know Nothing Justice.

POMERSET—Elects two K. N. Justices, by large majorities.

YORK—Elects K. N. ticket.

MEAD—Elects three K. N. Justices.

UNION—Elects the whole K. N. ticket.

PEASE—Elects the whole K. N. ticket.

☞We hear that some person or persons have been committing depredations on the hen roosts of some of our citizens during the past week. We believe a love for a good fat fowl has been implanted in the breasts of all men, but these violators of the "peace and dignity of the State of Ohio" seem to have received more than their share of that love.

☞The days and nights are once more assuming the "etherial mildness" of Spring, admirably suiting them for just such serenades as we received from a company of excellent performers on Saturday evening.

SAG NICHTS.—We have it from good authority that a Lodge of Sagh Nichts (Say Nothings) was organized in town during the past week, and by persons who profess to look upon a secret political organization as a heresy to be expiated only by political death. We presume Miamas and Sawbucks have met together, and that the two wings of the late Democratic party have kissed each other. All we have to say is let them grow and become exceedingly strong, if "the people" are the leaders, but if corrupt politicians, and loafing government officials manage the ropes, then confusion to them and theirs. We could tell where the society met and who were the Bishops, and priests, but we wait for further developments.

☞At the April session of the Probate Court one man was sent to jail for a violation of the liquor law. Several cases were continued until the May session.

K. N. VICTORY.

BALTIMORE, April 2.

New Orleans mails of Tuesday have been received.

The Know Nothing victory is complete, there being but 2 Democrats elected. Good order was preserved.

THE SLAVE ROSETTA.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—Commissioner Pendry decided Rosetta free, and she was immediately delivered to her guardian. The commissioner decided, that having been brought here by her owner she came under the operation of Ohio law and was therefore, not a fugitive from labor.

ELECTION IN OHIO.

CLEVELAND, April 2—Castile, the Know-Nothing candidate for Mayor was elected today by about 500 over Ex-Governor Wood, democrat. The Know Nothings are victorious in Columbus, and the Anti Know Nothings in Toledo.

Anti K. N. ticket probably elected in Cincinnati. Much fraudulent voting was detected.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Later returns from Connecticut indicate that the State has gone anti-Administration. Although there is no election of Governor by the people, Ingraham apparently leeds, hard pressed by Minor.

HARTFORD, April 3.—Returns not all in yet. The result will be nearly as follows:—Ingraham 27,000, Minor 25,000, Dalton 9,000.

Of the Senators 10 or 20 are K. N. whigs

Of the Representatives the K. N.'s have probably 130 out of 234. They have also carried all four of the Congressmen.

KANSAS ELECTION.

Independence, Mo., March 31st.—The returns from Kansas show the election of the pro-slavery ticket. Bull Creek, Lawrence, Douglass, Doniphan, Tecumseh, Shawnee Mission, Leavenworth, and at Hookey Point the majority es varied from 2 to 800. The election was conducted with tolerable order.

The editor of the Kansas Freeman was docked in the Kew river by a mob, in consequence of his speech.

There are no anti-slavery men elected to the Legislature.

MARRIAGES.

On the 1st ult., by Rev. D. Trueman, Mr. CHARLES BARNES and Miss JOANNA MORELAND all of Belmont County.

By the same on the 29th ult Mr. WM. J. WILLY and Miss MARY ANN RICHNER, all of Belmont co.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, March 29th, at the residence of his son, H. W. Scovern, Esq, in this place, Mr. WM. SCOVERN, aged 80 years.

The deceased was a native of England, but for a few years past has resided with his children in this country. His remains were taken to Zanesville for interment.
