TRUSTS FAVOR TAFT

"Interests" Are Strongly Represented on the Republican Committee.

SHELDON OFFICIAL FA- CULTY

List of Those from Whom He Got Contributions

Republican Treasurer is Director in 21 Corporations--Raised Big Fund in 1906--Recommended by Standard Oil Attorney.

Chicago, October 1.—(Special)—In connection with the controversy which the President has raised as to whether the trusts are a special concern are most important in the election of Mr.
Taft or Mr. Bryan, the Democratic National Committee calls attention to a few of the controlling spirits in the Republican Committee who are actively interested in trusts and monopolies.

At the head of the list stands George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National Committee. Mr. Sheldon's selection for this important post of official "fat frier" was made upon recommendation of Wm. Nelson Cromwell, the great corporation lawyer of Wall Street, attorney for the Panama Canal Company, E. H. Hartman, the Standard Oil Company, the Sugar Trust, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers and brokers, and other favored interests.
Almost immediately after his appointment, Mr. Sheldon is reported to have received a contribution from Mr. Cromwell amounting to $50,000.

Mr. Sheldon is a multi-millionaire, the active head of the banking firm of W. C. Sheldon & Co., 2 Wall Street.
According to the "Directory of Directors" for the present year, Mr. Sheldon's name appears as a director in the following 21 corporations: American Locomotive Company, American Locomotive Automobile Company,
Bethlehem Steel Corporation, Cincinnati Northern Railroad Company,
Detroit Edison Company, Electrical Securities Corporation, Laclede Gaslight Company, Locomotive and Machine Company of Montreal (limited), Locomotive Security Company, Metropolitan Trust Company, Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light
Co.,
Milwaukee, Light, Heat and Traction
Co.,
National Copper Bank,
New Jersey Terminal Dock and Improvement Co. and Union League Club of St. Paul and Union League Club of which Rockefeller, Morgan, Carnegie and other powers in Wall street are also members. He is also said to be a member of 20 other clubs whose membership includes practically all of the operators in Wall street.

In 1904 Mr. Sheldon was treasurer of the New York State Republican committee, and succeeded so well in frying the fat from the interests that Mr. Cromwell recommended him for a similar job with the National committee. According to the sworn statement of Mr. Sheldon, published after the campaign, he raised $333,923.60 chiefly from these interests.

The following is a partial list of the contributors as shown in Mr. Sheldon's statement:
J. Pierpont Morgan, Wall street banker and promoter $20,000 Levi P. Morgan, banker, Wall street 20,000
John D. Rockefeller of Standard Oil 5,000
Andrew Carnegie 5,000 Chauncey M. Depew, railroad and Standard Oil senator 5,000 H. R. Hollins, financier 5,000 Jacob H. Schiff, favored banker and broker 2,500 Harvey Fish & Sons, bankers and brokers 2,500
Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers
and brokers 2,500
J. & W. Seligman & Co., bankers and stock agents 2,500 Chas. W. Schwab, steel trust and other trust corps 2,000 C. R. Mackay, Postal Telegraph
Co 2,000
John W. Gates, stock gambler and trust operator 2,000 W. E. Corey, Pres. U. S. Steel Corp 2,000
W. C. Sheldon & Co., bankers and local agents 2,000 John Jacob Astor, tenement house owner 1,000
Wm. Nelson Cromwell, trust lawyer 1,000

Cornelius Vanderbilt, railroad interests 1,000
W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., railroad interests 1,000
Edwin Gould, railroad interests 800 E. F. Havemeyer, sugar trust 800 E. N. Duke, tobacco trust 500
D. O. Mills 500
H. M. Flagler, Standard Oil 500 Arbuckle Bros. Coffee Trust 500 Henry Clews, Wall street banker 250

This is only a partial list of the trust magnates and financiers who contributed to Mr. Sheldon's fund. An index as to how much more Mr. Sheldon may be able to raise from these interests for the national campaign, the fact may be cited that Mr. Cromwell gave $1,000 to the state fund, and increased the amount to $50,000 for the national campaign.

Fred W. Upham of Chicago is assistant treasurer of the Republican National committee. He is a millionaire several times over, and a member of the County Board of Review of Illinois, which passes upon the amount of taxes which corporations and large estates shall pay in that state. He is a director in several corporations and is in charge of the collection of campaign funds in the west.

On August 21, 1908, after his appointment as Assistant Treasurer of the Republican committee, Mr. Upham sent out thousands of letters to corporation officials whose taxes he passes upon as a member of the Board of Review, urging them to contribute to the Republican fund as "individuals," and requesting them "to bring this matter to the attention of your business associates." The suggestion implied is regarded as significant.

Five of the nine members of the Republican committee are:
Charles F. Brooker, Connecticut millionaire, member of N. Y. Chamber of Commerce, and vice-president New York New Haven Railroad Co., against which a great movement is now pending, and one of the leading spirits in the brass trust.
Frank O. Lowden, multi-millionaire, vice-president Pullman Palace Car Co., which is a monopoly.
E. C. Duncan, director Atlantic & North Carolina railway, and other corporations, receiver Seaboard Air Line, and official dispenser of patronage in North Carolina.
T. Coleman DuPont, controlling factor in Powder Trust, against which the government has a suit now pending for dissolution.
Boies Penrose, political boss of Pennsylvania, head of the corrupt Republican organization in Philadelphia, and conspicuous in many corporations.
Roy O. West, chairman of the Republican State Committee of Ill., is also chairman of the County Board of Equalization, which passes upon corporation taxes.

Fred A. Stuns, acting chairman of the Republican State committee of Indiana, is also chairman of the State Tax board, which passes upon the taxes levied against corporations.
Mr. DuPont has been forced to resign from the executive committee because of his trust connections, but Mr.
Brooker, against whose company the government has a suit is still a member of the committee.

PROTECTING DEPOSITS IN BANKS.

An Ohio Example of Taft's Position and Oklahoma's Proof of Bryan's Position.

One of the planks of the Denver platform favors guaranteed bank deposits. Mr. Bryan addressed the Ohio legislature in February favoring guaranteed deposits. Former Governor Herrick subsequently addressed the legislature in reply to Mr. Bryan opposing any such protection for banks and bank depositors.

Mr. Taft, in his speech of acceptance, denounced the plank of the Denver platform, which declares for a national law for banks similar to the Oklahoma law for state banks, thereby coinciding in the view of Mr.
Herrick and opposing the views of Mr.
Bryan.

Below are two dispatches showing what Mr. Bryan stands for and what Mr. Taft stands for.

THE OHIO WAY.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 17.—The creditor's committee, charged with an investigation of the affairs of the defunct Farmers and Merchants bank, the cashier of which, Henry W. Gesell, is under arrest charged with embezzlement, tonight reported that depositors will be forced to shoulder a loss of $415,000.

The report, made in a meeting of 2,800 depositors, charged the deficit to Gezell, alleging his speculations proved disastrous to the institution.

TAFT STANDS FOR THIS.

THE OKLAHOMA WAY.

Guthrie, Okla., May 21.—Within one hour from the time H. H. Snook, Oklahoma banking commissioner, had taken charge of the International Bank of Colgate he had authority to pay the depositors in full, though the bank's cash and available funds in other banks fell $22,000 short of the total amount of deposits. The commissioner was able to do this under the operation of the new banking law, and this is the first time it has been called into use.

BYRAN STANDS FOR THIS.

The Republican National committee says it gets no money from the Standard Oil company. Does that concern them, give its money direct to Republican candidates?

TWO "PRACTICAL MEN"

The Whiteness of the Pot and the Blackness of the Kettle.

From Theodore Roosevelt's letter of Oct. 4, 1904, to Edward H. Harriman.

Now, my dear sir, you and I are practical men, and you are on the ground and know the conditions better than I do. If you think there is any danger of your visit to me causing trouble or if you think there is nothing special I should be informed about, or no matter in which I could give you aid, give, of course, give up the visit for the time being, and then a few weeks hence before I write my message, I shall get you to come down to discuss certain government matters not connected with the campaign.

From Edward H. Harriman's confidential statement to Stanley Webster.
About a week before the election in the autumn of 1904, when it looked certain that the state ticket would go Democratic and was doubtful as to Roosevelt himself, he, the president, sent me a request to go to Washington to confer upon the political conditions in New York state. I complied, and he told me he understood the campaign could not be successfully carried out without sufficient money and asked if I could help him in raising the necessary funds as the national committee, under control of Chairman Cortelyou, had utterly failed of obtaining them, and there was a large amount due from them to the New York state committee. We talked over what could be done for DeWey, and finally he agreed that if found necessary he would appoint him as ambassador to Paris.

With full belief that he, the president, would keep his agreement, I came back to New York, sent for Treasurer Bliss, who told me that I was his last hope, and if he would be exhausted every other resource. In his presence I called upon an intimate friend of Senator Dewey, told him that it was necessary in order to carry New York state that $200,000 should be raised at once, and if he would help I would subscribe $50,000. After a few words over the telephone the gentleman said he would let me know, which he did promptly in three or four days, with the result that the whole amount, including my subscription, had been raised.

The checks were given to Treasurer Bliss, who took them to Chairman Cortelyou. If there were any among them of like insurance companies, or any other like organizations, of course Cortelyou must have informed the president. I do not know who the subscribers were, other than the friend of Dewey, and was an individual. This amount enabled the New York state committee to continue its work, with the result that at least 50, 000 votes were turned in the city of New York alone, making a difference of 100,000 votes in the general result.

DAWES FOR GUARANTEE

Comptroller of Currency Under Mc-Kinley Favored Insurance of Bank Deposits.

Charles G. Dawes was comptroller of the currency under Mr. McKinley.
Since 1902 he has been president of the Central Trust company at Chicago. Writing in The Public, Louis F. Post calls attention to the fact that several years ago Mr. Dawes wrote a book entitled "The Banking System of the United States." The following is taken from Mr. Post's article:

In describing in that book the "present need of our national banking system," Mr. Dawes distinctly argues for the insurance idea that Bryan advocated in congress, and was such a campaign is now advancing in the west. Referring to a proposed law, which would have levied a tax upon national banks for the purpose of creating a fund for the insurance of deposits, Mr. Dawes wrote:

"National banking statistics show that a fund of the necessary amount would soon be created by a comparatively small tax upon each national bank."

It must certainly be admitted that the establishment of such a fund would have a tendency to prevent the kind of panic which has large depositors during times of panic for money which they heard away in safety deposit boxes or other hiding places.

If the effect of such a law would be to render bank deposits more stable under all conditions, as in our judgment would be the case, no law could be of more value and importance to the debtor, or to the creditor, or to the community at large.

Besides the great importance of the law, as related to the general prosperity of the country, it is meritorious as preventing the keen suffering in those localities where bank failures occur, and where the hard earned savings of the community, under our present laws, are often swept away.

By such a law, losses are distributed as by insurance. The beneficial effects of which need no argument. To the passage of such a law in proper form we trust the efforts of congress will be directed."

A Change Needed in Order to Get Down to an Economical Administration.

The federal administration last year spent $24,000,000 more than it spent in the 1898 year. At the recent bankers' convention Lawrence S. Gleason, president of the Equitable Trust Company of New York, discussing the administration, said:

"As in our private life so in our national finances, the year 1907 seems to have been one of exceeding cost and expenditure. The government statement at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1908, shows a deficit of $20,656,261 and the increased deficit in July and August amounting to $28,728,000 brings the total deficit for the preceding fourteen months up to $88,424,261, with deducted revenues of $6,000,000. The year preceding we had a surplus of $57,000,000."

The government disbursement was $22,522,224, being in excess of the revenues in any year except 1906 and 1907 and $51,000,000 more than was spent in the year when we conducted the war against Spain and paid the expense of landing armies in Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippine Islands.
