DR. E. CONWAY'S
LINIMENTUM
For the speedy and effectual cure of RHEUMATISM.
IN presenting the "Linimentum" to the public as one of the best and most curative medicines of the day, I do not wish to be understood as claiming for it the power of performing unheard of cures, but I do claim that for all the purposes of a FAMILY LINIMENT, it has no equal. The "Linimentum" has Never been Known to Fail.
In any case of Rheumatism, no matter of how long standing, where the directions were carefully followed, nor, indeed, in the case of any disease for which it is recommended.
In cases of neuralgia, pains in the back, side, and chest, cramps in the stomach, spasms, spinal weakness and weakness, chronic sores, burns, scalds, frosted feet and hands, toothache, headache, &c., it acts like a charm.
The "Linimentum" is the result of many years persevering experiment, and combines among its rare qualities the paramount virtues of
AN EXTRAORDINARY PENETRATIVE POWER,
Which no other Liniment possesses, and which is the secret of the unparalleled success which meets the "Linimentum" wherever it is used.
TRY IT ONCE, AND YOU WILL NEVER BE WITHOUT IT.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Gold market closed to-day at $1 52 3-4.

Wood retails in Covington, Ky., at $10 per cord.

A gentleman in Indianapolis, last week, while transacting business in a bank, laid his pocket-book containing three hundred dollars on the counter. It was stolen, and the thief made good his escape.

It is said that Bob Lincoln—son of honest Abraham—a lad of twenty summers, has made half a million of dollars by Government contracts.

Arrests continue to be made every day for thieving in the Treasury Department, and the word is that more are to be made. Thus we go.

There is now talk of raising the price of exemption to $500.

W. H. Van Wagner, the well-known temperance lecturer, died a few days ago at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Longstreet has been driving our forces back, with considerable loss, from Bean Station. There is apprehension that he has been reinforced by Ewell, and that he may take Knoxville.

There is a rumor that Meade has resigned, and will be succeeded by General Hitchcock.

It is now believed that the late stampede of horses in the Federal camp at Gieseboro was the work of parties heretofore implicitly trusted. "Corruption boils and bubbles and o'erruns the stew" in every department.

The rebels are preparing to attempt the recovery of lost ground in Texas.

The threatened raid of Gen. Early, in the East, turns out to be a failure.

The Democratic and Conservative members of Congress insist, that, as Foreign ministers, Consul, &c., are paid in gold or its equivalent, our soldiers should be paid in the same manner. "The friends of our brave boys" will defeat the proposition. Mark the prediction. The Republicans always go against the soldier.

It is said that Chase is resolved not to issue any more legal tender, in any emergency.

Sacred Concert.—Preparations are being made by the Choir of Trinity Church to give a Sacred Concert on Easter Monday night.—Further notice will be given in due time.

☞ The fact that Emancipation leads to a commingling of races and a mixture of blood, is no objection to it among Republicans.—They love blood "any way you can mix it."

A Sensible Gal.—The McGregor Times says that a young lady of that town, who lately fell on one of their slippery side walks, passionately exclaimed: "Before this winter is over, I'll have a MAN to hang on to, see if I don't."

☞ Three deaths have occurred from the recent accident on the Dayton, Hamilton & Cincinnati Railroad, to-wit: Mr. Davis, baggage master, Mrs. Chppinger, of Lima, Ohio, and Mrs. Mitchell, of Hamilton, Ohio. It is thought that the rest of the injured will recover.

"Poor Old Horse, let him Die."—A pair of horses ran away the other night with a sleighing party, on the Miamisburg pike, and were brought to a "dead halt," by the dashing out of the brains of one of them by a collision with a tree. No blame is attached to the tree, as it was impossible for it to get out of the way. This should operate as warning to wild horses, and cause them to be careful how they run away after night.

To Firemen:—Dayton, December 28.—Whereas, the Good Being has taken away from me my brother, and you one of your worthy members, Sergeant John H. Topky, of the Nineteenth Regulars, who was wounded at the battle of Chicamauga, and since died at Chattanooga. His remains will be brought here in about twelve or fifteen days I do earnestly request you to turn out as a body and attend his funeral. In one of my brother's last letters, he said if he fell on the field, he would love to be buried with the honors of the firemen. I would be glad to have all other companies attend. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

Your brother, H. J. TOPKY.

Presentation — Thanks.—Nothing is more pleasant in life, than a recognition that our services and labors, however humble, are appreciated. That this appreciation is shown in a substantial manner, renders the pleasurable emotions of the recipient of the testimonial none the less delightful. Such, at least, was our experience, on receiving, thro' the hands of his Honor, Mayor Gillespie, on behalf of a number of our Democratic friends of the city, a handsome present. And we adopt this medium of returning to each and every one concerned, our warmest, heartfelt thanks, and assure them we fully appreciate and shall ever remember the kind feeling toward us which prompted the testimonial.

W. T. LOGAN.

Dialogue.—Cuff. "Well, Sambo, does you git de Journal?"

Sambo. "Oh coase I gits de Journal.—What ob dat Cuff?"

Cuff. D'ye see do good news? Ebery niggah's family is to get two mills. Guess we'll have plenty flouah, den won't we?"

Sambo. "Why, Cuff, you hain't got no sense. De sort of mills we's gwine to git, ain't grist mills; it's dem kind what it takes ten of 'em to make a cent."

Cuff. "Oh, dat's it, is it? Well, Sambo I'll tell you what my sentiments is of dem sort of mills—dey ain't worf a dam. Dat's so.—But I don't b'love Massah Linkum is gwine to take dat sort of a disadvantage of de cuffed siety—it ain't like him, Sambo, it ain't like him. If he's gwine to give us any mills at all, he'll give us whichever kind what we want; you can bet on dat, Sambo, I knows de man."

A Failure.—The meeting in the Fifth Ward, for the purpose of raising volunteers, was a perfect failure. Not a man was enlisted. When the draft is to come, has not definitely transpired, but it looks now, as if it would find our city badly in arrears. The failure to effect the repeal of the $300 clause will cause numbers of influential men in every quarter of the country to relax their exertions in procuring recruits, as they will now see their way clear to exemption.

Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral.
Diseases of the throat, chest and pulmonary organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of bronchitis, influenza, whooping cough, diphteria or putrid sore throat, asthma, croup, coughs, colds, nervous irritability, &c.
The Rev. J. J. Potter certifies that, "I have used Dr. Wynkoops Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. Potter, Brooklyn N. Y.
Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.
It is composed of pure Iceland Moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian Balsam, Elecampane, Comfrey, Burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.
Sold in Dayton by W. W. Stewart and all principal druggists.
