COUNTY CULLINGS,

EDITOR HERALD:—Again we come, not our own bidding, but at the request of others, do we contribute the recent news of our neighborhood for the HERALD of this week. And right here, what's the matter with the HERALDS that were due this point last Friday eve? They've failed to come in, and here it is Monday night and no HERALD received yet. We are growing impatient. But nevertheless we change our tone to give news.

Last Tuesday our community was called upon to mourn and pay the last tribute of respect to the remains of sister Thomas Barton, an aged lady of 73 years, who departed this life last Monday night at the residence of Mr. Carrol Sellers, where she had been boarding for a short while. Her son Mr. Croft Irvine, of Birmingham, was telegraphed for and came and attended her during her brief illness. But now, she is sleeping in the silent keeping of the Irvine Cemetery, awaiting, "The glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ." Last Thursday the bier passed out en route to the vicinity of Santa Fe to attend the remains of another aged lady, Mrs. Carthson, who has quit the walks of earth and is numbered with the dead.

Services at Phillippi on last Sunday were conducted by Bro. Newt Derryberry of Lasea.

Mr. J. Amis Timmons and his niece of this place went calling on the West side of the river last Sunday.

Mr. Dee Cooper, of Mt. Pleasant, chaperoned one of our fair girls from Nebo to this point last Sunday afternoon, and stopped over night in our midst.

Miss Lucy Sedberry, accompanied by Mrs. L. Sedberry of this place, returned to her home near Carter's Creek last Wednesday.

Mrs. Woody (nee Church,) of West Tennessee after a visit to kindred at Santa Fe, here and at Columbia, returned home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Allen, and Mrs. Will Edsell of Timmons were in the village on a shopping tour last Friday.

Miss Mamie Osborne, a pupil of the Columbia Institute, very pleasantly graced the village on last Saturday afternoon.

The Public School building in this district is completed and school will commence soon. We do hope that the former system of conducting schools in this vacinity has had its day.

We regret to note that it is rumored that Mr. Mit Coggins will move to the city soon, in order to educate his children. The distance from this point to the school on Knob Creek is too far for small children to have to foot it, the distance being little over three miles.

Beware young men how you protract your calls during Sunday evening. Ghosts might capture you. E. M. F., just did save himself one night recently; but on his return home, his horse was attacked by a creature of the canine species, causing his animal to leap forward furiously. But all the same he says, he would rather encounter dogs than ghosts. VIVIAN.

We predict for Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic an unprecedented success. The well known reputation of its manufacturers is, of itself, an ample guarantee of its superior merits. For sale by all druggists. feb9-1m.

Campell's Station.

Dr. Frank White has had a terrible mental strain upon him for the last ten days or more. His father has a very aggravated case of the "La Grippe;" his little niece, Mamie Lee Kincaid, is down with the typhoid fever, and Mary Redus, colored, the cook, is down with a bad case of pneumonia. In addition to his patients, he has had to look after his father's business at the store, the R. R. Express and Post Offices. The three sick ones are thought to be better at this writing.

The "La Grippe" seems to be spreading all over the country. It is a good worse in some families than others. J. R. Perkinson's family in this place are nearly all in bed with it. Measles has boken out in the neighborhood. B. F. Hoobs' family and Sam Well's family have them. The measles were introduced here by parties going to Nashville and getting them on returning. John H. Martin, a young man from this place, who recently went on the road as a breaksman, is now down with measles at his boarding house in Nashville.

The R. R. has made a change in their section foreman at this place. Mr. Shannon, who was here ten years ago, is now the foreman. John Shields has moved back to Prospect.

Our farmers are rather inclined to plant largely this year of Irish Potatoes. They have one trouble confronting them—seed. They are very scarce and high. A great many who anticipate planting a big crop will necessarily cut down their acreage on account of the high price of seed.

John K. Gracy, his mother and his daughter Annie, left last week for Florida. He will be back in about two weeks, but will leave his mother and daughter to spend the balance of the winter. MAURY COUNTY.

Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic is now on the market. Try it and be convinced that it is the only real pleasant and effective medicine known that will in every case cure the chills and fever, it contains no quinine or poisons and is sold under the familiar motto, "no cure no pay." For sale by all druggists. jan9-1m.

Leftwich.

EDITOR HERALD:—The young people have been enjoying themselves at several entertainments given them lately. A singing was given at the residence of Mr. J. A. Little one night last week, which was an enjoyable affair, and another entertainment of the same kind was given at the residence of Rev. J. N. Martans last Thursday. On Tuesday night of last week a play party was given at Mr. Wm. Kelterner's, and was very much enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Tankersley is on the sick list.—Miss Tallie Hardison was visiting in the Lick Skillet neighborhood last week.—Mr. Blake Lenham left last Monday for Texas, where he expects to remain several months.—Mr. Bob Jackson, who has been visiting in our vicinity for several weeks, has returned to his home in Ellis county, Texas.—Mr. Munro Freeland, who has been visiting his parents, has returned to his home in the Lone Star State. SNOW BALL.

Let's reason together. Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown, step by step, through the years to greatness—and it sells patent medicines!—ugh!

"That's enough!"—

Wait a little—

This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising!) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not indefinite and relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicine doesn't help, your money is "on call."

Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless, who would be the loser, you or they?

The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his "Favorite Prescription," for woman's peculiar ills. If they help toward health, they cost $1. a bottle each!. If they don't they cost nothing!

Mt. Pleasant.

Quarterly Meeting convened at the M. E. church, last Saturday and Sunday; Rev. R. R. Jones, the presiding Elder, delivered sermons both days in his usual impressive style. He was accompanied this trip by Mrs. Jones.

La gripe has again made its appearence in our midst, much to the displeasure of its subjects. Miss Camilla Bond has been confined to her bed for several days with it. Mrs. Johnnie Irvine also has an attack.

Mr. P. Brownlow, of Lynville, arrived here last week and immediately began building the vault of the Bank, which will soon be ready for the reception of all "surplus finance." Just here we wish to say it can no longer be suffered an illusion of the mind to say Mt. Pleasant is "booming," for sooner or later all must awake to the realization of the fact.

Last Saturday Messrs. John Wesley King, Mumford Smith, Webb Ridley, Jr., and Alex Orr, purchased the Dickson property, on Main and Depot Streets and expect to "renovate" it generally, in the near future. We can also boast of a butcher and barber shop.

Mr. L. L. Frierson is able to be in Nashville, attending to business.

On the night of the 6th inst: Miss Alice Bond gave a delightful "Apron party" in honor of Miss Maud Church, of Santa Fe. The boys' "manuvres" in hemming the girls aprons presented a very comic scene; Mr. Eugene Barrow won a handsome, plush card case for being the most "adept."

Mr. Robert W. Stewart having spent some time with his mother, returned to Florence, his place of business last Thursday.

Mr. Ed Brooks, of Waxahachie, Texas, has been circulating among friends and relatives in this community recently.

Mr. Jim Giddens, Sr., has gone South to sell mules.

Miss Gertie Robinette, of Hampshire has opened school at Rockdale.

Mrs. Lee Hughes, of Dallas, Texas, made a flying visit to relatives here last week.

Capt W. S. Jennings is "chilling"

We are sorry to report the ill health of Mrs. Ed Orr.

Rockdale Furnace being out of fuel and owing to the reduced prices of iron and the large quantity already on hand has "banked up" and suspended operation for a short time.

Mr. Editor we beg the opportunity of extending our thanks to Mr. J. Clinton Ozment, Editor of the "Clifton Times" for a copy of his bright and spicy journal, last week. We mean no offence whatever, Mr. Ozmont, but you will have to "double quick" to keep pace with our HERALD. ATHENE.

Beware of Oitments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. ☞Sold by druggists, price 75 cents per bottle. jan17-1m.

Culleoka.

Services were conducted at the M. E. Church Sunday, both morning and evening, by our pastor, Bro. Paty, although it was a very disagreeable day.

Our farmers are busy at work getting their ground ready for another crop.

It seems as if the influenza is visiting the community—Our teacher, Miss P E Mason is suffering from a severe attack. Mr. T. N. Stephens is able to be out again.

Little Frank Patterson fell with a knife last week, sticking it through his hand.

We are glad to state that Miss Rebecca Williamson is improving.

Will Blanton, a handsome young gentleman of Bell Buckle, is visiting the family of Clabe Taylor.

Mrs. Joe Moore has been quite sick for sometime and is not improving as fast as desired.

Mrs. Jessie Tomlinson received a severe burn on the arm last week, but it is healing rapidly.

Miss Nannie Hubbard has been quite sick for the past week.—Little Jim Patterson is also on the sick list.

We are sorry to chronicle the extreme illness of Miss Irene Summerford, and wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Sam Withers is suffering with a severe cold.

Mrs. John Ballanfant and her son, Mr. Will Ballanfant, are visiting friends and relatives in North Carolina.

Miss Brownie Tomlinson spent a few days of last week at Hillsdale, as the guest of Miss Clabie Taylor.

Mr. Seth Martin of Mt. Pleasant, was in our in our midst Sunday. Wonder what the attraction is?

To certain young gentlemen of this community, we will say, when you are crossing the railroad be very careful how you "Wave" at a certain young lady, for fear you will mistake someone else for her and thus "Wave" at a stranger. Boys beware!! BETSY.

Fits, spasms, St. Vitus dance, nervousness and hysteria are soon cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine. Free samples at drug stores.

Frierson.

EDITOR HERALD:—Coming too late to describe with a tender gush of enthusiasm the Death of the Old, or Birth of the New Year, will instead confine myself to commonplace topics.

Our neighborhood is a quiet one at present, the roads not being in the best condition but a little too muddy for convenience.

Mrs. L. R. Amis and little daughter Agnes, of Tracy City, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Jennie Watkins has returned home after a pleasant visit of several months in Nashville.

Mrs. S. T. Brown, who has been quite sick, is better.

Dr. Theo. Frierson was called to Nashville last Saturday by the serious illness of John T. Hendricks of that place.

We received cards some days ago from Mrs. Lula Armstrong, of Memphis, announcing the marriage of her daughter Mary, to Mr. Wm. Rice, also of that city, Jan. 15th, 1891. The young lady has many relatives and numerous friends here who unite in wishing the young couple a bright future.

Mr. Gordon Armstrong and family have moved to the T. N. Jones farm.

"They say" we will have a wedding in our community soon. As this is a novelty for us, much excitement prevails.

Your readers are earnestly and tenderly appreciative of the HERALD's merits, and trust the year 1891 may be a prosperous one for your paper.

When afflicted with any of the miserable skin diseases which make life a burden, try Hunt's Cure. It is guaranteed. If it does you no good it will cost you nothing. For sale by all druggists. jan9-1m.

Willimsport.

On Wednesday January 14th inst., Miss Hettie Sheddan was married to Mr. J. P. Choate, Rev. G. D. Byrne officiating. The bride is one of our most popular young ladies, and the groom is an energetic business man. They left immediately after the ceremony for a short tour. We extend to them our best wishes, and may theirs be a life of unclouded happiness.

Miss Ida Eakin, of Fayetteville, attended the Sheddan—Choate nuptials.

Misses Media Wilburn and Kittie Fleming, of Bigbyville, are visiting friends here.

Miss Fannie Burnett, of Mt. Pleasant, is the guest of Mr. Byrne and family.

Miss Lena Tate has returned to her home in Lynnville. She was accompanied by Miss Ada Dansbee.

Mr. M. R. Porter, of your city, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents. He leaves Tuesday, for the Carolinas and Virginia on business.

Mr. — Phelan, of the firm of Baldwin & Co., was here last week, and left an organ at the parsonage.

Mr. John Houser, of Shady Grove, was in the "Port" Monday.

Miss Maggie Jones has returned home after a protracted visit to relatives in and near the village.

Mr. J. V. Delk has returned from a visit to friends in Bedford County.

Misses Lucy Tomlinson and Beulah Porter visited relatives and friends at Lipscomb recently.

Through the columns of last weeks "Democrat," the question, was asked "Eunice," "How does a person feel when he gets left?" Now "Grandpa Snider," if I had ever, in all of my life, been left as often as you have during the past three weeks, I could easily answer the query without furth r information.

Some changes have been made in regard to the abode of different families. Mr. L. E. Collier has moved to Lewis county. Mr. F. T. Jones has purchased and now occupies the Collier house. Mrs. King the Hotel. Mr. J. W. Harlan has moved to Cathey's creek, and Mr. E. C. Mangrem will occupy the Dean house. EUNICE.

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of Patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of invention. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentess, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents. tf.

Washington News.

From our regular correspondent:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Mr. Harrison has succeeded by persuaion, bull-dozing and promise of patronage in getting the repblican Senators to make a last desperate effort to perpetuate the power of the republican party by passing the Force bill, and the fight is now on, which is to result either in striking a deadly blow at the liberty of the American citizen, by the passage of a measure without a parallel in American annals, or in the final defeat of the bill.

Finding it impossible to unite the republican Senators in support of the revolutionary gag rule proposed by Senator Aldrich the republicans have adopted the tiring out process, and hope by a continuous night and day session of the Senate to succeed in compelling the democrats to accede to a vote on the bill. This, it is not believed, they can do. The session which began last Friday morning has been in continuous session ever since, except on Sunday, and is to continue until the republicans tire of it or succeed. The democrats are making a grand fight in talking against time and express confidence of being able to win.

How the democrotic Senators feel in this matter may be judged from the following extract from a speech of Senator Reagan, which reflects the sentiments of his democratic colleagues, and shows that they will never willingly surrender: "As dear as my life is to me, as God is my Judge, if I could save the American people from the pending measure by giving up my life, I would surrender it as freely as I ever performed any act in my life." It was an imposing sight to see Senator Reagan as he stood, every feature showing his earnestness and sincerity, and spoke these words, and it was not surprising that they were greeted by an outburst of deafening applause from the galleries, which Mr. Morton was quick to remove by threatening to have the galleries cleared.

Senator Stewart on Saturday gave notice of a motion to recommit the election bill with instructions to the committee to report it back with a provision for the election of members of Congress on days when no other elections are held in the several states; and this motion may be made the excuse for getting rid of the bill quietly when the republicans discover their inability to pass it, for if it is recommitted to the committee it will never get before the Senate again.

Notwithstanding their having made speeches against the Force bill Senators Teller, Wolcott and Stewart are now acting with and voting with their republican colleagues in their efforts to pass the bill. This is significant, in as much as it shows that the democrats need expect no help from republicans in defeating the bill.

Mr. Harrison's henchmen are now trying to prevent the passage of Senator Vest's free coinage bill, which was adopted last week by the Senate as a substitute for that hodge-podge of absurdities known as the republican caucus financial bill, by the House by talking vote. The bill, which is now before the House committee on Coinage, is in far more danger from Speaker Reed's opposition than it is from a Presidential vote. Reed has the audacity and the nerve to resort to any methods to defeat it, and if he doesn't attempt to do so, it will only be because he prefers seeing Mr. Harrison, whom he dislikes very much, weaken and sign it, as I believe he will, if it passes the House. Mr. Harrison has made threats before, but his spinal column has always wilted when the time came to carry them out.

Another erstwhile prominent republican is in the toils of the law, W. P. Canaday; who for many years, because of his ability to control the North Carolina delegation to republican national conventions, held the position of Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, has been arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses. And ye gods, how cheap he sold his character. The amount he obtained on a worthless check was just $35.

Some startling exposures will shortly be made by the House Committee which is investigating the silver pool charges, unless the witnesses among whom are Senator Stewart and Journal Clerk Smith of the House, shall refuse to tell the committee what they are alleged to have told to private parties.

The democratic leaders of the House are carefully watching the proceedings in the Senate and should the Force Bill pass that body, they are prepared to make a desperate fight on it in the House when it goes there for concurrence in the Senate amendments.

George Bancroft, the historian, who was Secretary of the Navy during the Polk administration, when he established the Naval Academy at Annapolis, died here Saturday afternoon in his ninety-first year.

Senator Quay has taken the trouble to deny the rumor that he intended resigning his seat in the Senate. It was entirely unnecessary. Everybody knows that he isn't one of the resigning kind.

The House Committee on the World's Fair think the officials connected with that concern are drawing too much money and recommends a cut in salaries.

To live or not to live is a question which annually confronts the residents of our low grounds and swampy districts. Take Cheatham's Tasteless Chill Tonic and live to die a nobler death than by a commonplace chill. For sale by all druggists. jan9-1m.

Manor Texas.

Since my last piece appeared in the columns of your paper, I have changed my place of residence, and will now write to you from my present home. We bade farewell to home and friends in Campbellsville on the seventh morning of January, 91; had a very pleasant drive to Pu'aski, where we spent the night. The next morning we started on our journey to the "far west." We saw, on our trip, many sights, new and beautiful to me, the tall pine trees, with their wealth of moss floating gracefully in the wind, and palms were plentiful in the low, flat fields through which we passed. Orange trees, laden with beautiful yellow oranges were in profusion. We spent nearly a whole day in New Orleans, but the weather was so disagreeable we could'nt see much of the city. It was a great novelty to us to watch the boats cross the river,—the waves were rolling high and the great Mississipi seemed to be in a perfect tumult. We reached the city of Houston, Texas at about eight o'clock next morning, where we spent the hours very pleasantly. We passed through some beautiful country that day, and reached our journey's end at four in the afternoon, where loved ones were waiting to meet us. The wind has been blowing ever since, we came, as if King Æolus had unlocked the door of his cavern and given the winds permission to roam at will. We have had two small rains this week, and the dreaded black mud keeps us in doors. The country here is a little rolling—not so level as some we saw on the road—but it is considered fine farming country. There is a large number of Tennesseans in and around Manor, and several of our Giles county acquaintances have been in to see us since we arrived. As the roads have been so we could not travel, I can not tell you much of Manor, will write more anon. LESHIA.
