THE COUNTY COURT SQUABBLE.

Interesting Session—Where's the Money?—Big Time—Almost a Fight.

At its session yesterday, the County Court appointed Commissioners to erect a bridge on the old Brownsville road, at a cost of $600. An account for jail guard employed by the Sheriff, amounting to $3223 33, was allowed. After a discussion in regard to allowing certain bills for fitting up the Criminal Court room, Esquires Blakely, Miller and Creighton were appointed a committee to investigate the leasing of the court room, all bills being referred to them.

Mr. Williford, one of the alms-house commissioners, made a verbal report of their action, stating that six rooms had been fitted up on a piece of land of 130 or 140 acres belonging to the county, near Raleigh, but as no funds had been placed in their hands, only two paupers had been admitted. No part of the ten thousand dollars appropriated for the alms-house had been received. Judge Leonard said he had no knowledge of any commissioners having been appointed or sworn. Mr. Williford stated that he had been appointed himself, and that he had been sworn into office with two others, by Judge Leonard in open court at Raleigh; and, further, that one of the commissioners had been made trustee. They had applied to Judge Leonard repeatedly for the money, but had been persistently refused. They had never received one cent from Judge Leonard of that ten thousand dollars. One thousand dollars were due to me, also, for money expended, and ordered to be paid to me, but when referred to Judge Leonard for the money by Mr. League, failed to get even that. Judge Leonard said he knew nothing officially, or privately, of the matter mentioned. All that he knew was that the ten thousand dollars had been faithfully distributed among the poor of the county. Mr. League read the original appropriation of $10,000, and said he had given Judge Leonard a certificate for the amount. Judge Leonard said the money had been distributed and he would report on Monday. Esquire Walker arose excitedly and moved to adjourn forever and leave matters in the hands of the Chairman. He said: "Let him levy taxes, disburse money, and run the whole machine. He does it any how, and we are nothing but blocks of wood. Three Commissioners were appointed in last January; they have been qualified, and have desired to act, but were not allowed to do so. There were but three men authorized to disburse that money; they have not done it; if disbursed at all, and I have no doubt that it has been, it has been done illegally." Esq. Miller spoke on the importance of looking into these matters. Messrs. Williford, Mercer and Creighton were elected Commissioners for Almshouse, and $50 each was allowed to the Commissioners for 1865 and 1866.

An order was read in regard to the payment of $4670 to the Bulletin, after the account had been rejected by the court, and counsel authorized to bring suit for the recovery of the amount. Judge Leonard said he had paid the money on a writ of mandamus, seventeen Justices signing a memorial in favor of its payment. One of the Justices said they only memorialized for the payment of $2500. A running fire of compliments was here passed between several of the magistrates and Judge Leonard, touching law, inefficiency, the right to fine, etc. Esquire Miller was fined several times by the Judge, and left court. The Sheriff brought him back, when he stated he went out to issue a warrant for the arrest of the Judge. He was fined another ten dollars.

Esquire Walker then arose and said: "Are we a set of wild beasts to be talked to in this manner? The Chairman cannot preserve the dignity of this Court. If we are not Justices of the Peace, I wish to adjourn, and go home. The Chairman of this Court has violated the law of the State by issuing warrants without authority. The Bulletin bill was rejected by this Court, and yet its Chairman paid it. Are we blocks of wood, to be moved by the nod of the Judge? If the mandamus had been answered, the county would have saved $4670." After which a motion to adjourn until Monday morning was made and carried. An interesting time may be expected on Monday, when the Court will probably break up in a row.

A GLORIOUS opportunity—see Elson's advertisement. 113

CHANCERY COURT.—For the present there will be but one motion day in this Court—Friday. The following cases were disposed of yesterday: Peter McCullough vs. Wm. A. Eades. This bill is ordered to be dismissed, each party paying one half of the costs. D. H. Evans vs. J. E. Richardson et al. The defendant in this cause having been ordered to appear and show cause why an attachment for contempt should not issue against him under the deed of trust, appeared and showed sufficient cause why no attachment should be issued, he was therefore discharged. J. W. Beasley vs. Mary A. Jackson et al. Upon petition of Mary A. Jackson, and it appearing to the Court that said petitioner is entitled to dower in the real estate of T. S. Jackson, deceased, it is ordered by the Court that H. Dow and G. W. Acrie, together with the county surveyor, be appointed commissioners to pay off the said dower in the real estate aforesaid. Philip T. Jones vs Harriet Tate, et al. Upon bill, answer, proof, etc., in this case filed herein, upon motion, it is ordered that all the right, title, etc., of the defendants in the land described in the bill be divested out of them, and vested in complainant and his heirs forever—complainant and sureties to pay the cost in this behalf expended. J. S. Stanton vs R. G. Tucker. In this case it is ordered and decreed by the court that the defendant pay $250, with interest thereon from the rendition of this decree. David H. Todd vs Isabel Bradford. In this case a final decree was rendered, ordering that the deed executed by Sarah W. Fowlks, executrix of Jeptha Fowlks, and also the agreement entered into between Daniel B. Turner and Simon B. Bradford, deceased, and wife, be forever null and void to all purposes whatever.

THE DUKE'S MOTTO.—One of the most brilliant audiences ever congregated within the walls of the New Memphis Theatre assembled there last evening on occasion of a benefit to Vestvali. The Fashion and the beauty of Memphis were well represented, for whichever way the eye was turned it was greeted with handsome ladies and their attendant gallants. With this impetus it was no wonder that the genius of Vestvali shone forth with extraordinary brilliance, and that her magnificent acting was greeted with round after round of applause and several calls before the curtain. The great sensational drama, The Duke's Motto, was presented, Vestvali sustaining the part of "Henri de Lagadere" in a style that was highly appreciated by those who had the pleasure of witnessing it. She received good support from Mr. Wheelock, who appeared as "Carrickfergus." Mrs. Lanagan, who personated "Blanche," and Mrs. and Mr. Marston. The piece was well put upon the stage, and appeared to give satisfaction to the large and discriminating audience present. To-night The Duke's Motto will be repeated, when those who were unable to gain admission to the theatre last night will have an opportunity of witnessing the splendid acting and fine singing of Vestvali in her great character of "Henri de Lagadere."

CELESTIAL photography at Hanbury's gallery.

CIRCUS.—It may not be generally known that there was a grand circus exhibition in the city yesterday. Such was the case, however, as those who were present in the room where the County Court was in session will testify. There was ground and lofty tumbling to the delight of the many spectators. No performance takes place to-day, but an exhibition, with an entire change of programme, introducing many new and startling feats will be given on Monday morning, commencing at ten o'clock.

MISCEGENATION.—A warrant was issued by Esquire Creighton this morning for the arrest of a white man named John Smith and a colored lady named Sallie Freeman for adultery. It appears that the parties have been living as man and wife for some time, to the annoyance of the good people living in the neighborhood of the Fair Grounds, who have adopted this method of punishing the perverted tastes of their miscegenating neighbors.

PERSONAL.—General W. B. Pearce, President, and Dr. G. H. Lenoir, General Agent of the Cumberland Valley Insurance Company of Nashville, are in the city. General Pearce goes to Arkansas to open up agencies in that State for this most popular Southern institution. Dr. Lenoir, the General Agent, will remain several days in the city to arrange matters here, after which time he visits other States to open up new agencies.

A CHANCE to make and save money—see Elson's advertisement. 113

DISCHARGED.—John Walker, the colored individual arrested for stealing a gold watch and buckle from an inmate of a house of ill-fame, has been discharged, in consequence of no one appearing to prosecute. John Hubbard, who stabbed a colored brother at the levee a few days since, has been released on the same grounds.

DIVORCED.—In the Chancery Court yesterday, in the case of Martha E. Edwards vs. James G. Edwards—complainant having proven the allegations in her bill—it was ordered by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be and they are hereby forever dissolved.

REV. J. W. ROGERS being invited by the Bishop to preach in St. Lazarus, Sunday, 13th inst., will take for his subject the sinfulness of ordinary lotteries and gambling, as distinguished from those lotteries for pious uses so often commanded in Scripture, conducted by prophets and always allowed in the church.

A LUCKY MAN.—One of our old citizens of South Memphis yesterday drew a prize of ten thousand dollars in greenbacks on a five dollar ticket in the Missouri State Lottery, of which Geo. W. Van Voast, of 20 Jefferson street, is the Southern Agent. It is better to be born lucky than rich.

SENT UP.—A negro named John White was fined $25 in Esquire Creighton's court yesterday for stealing two dollars from an old darkey. White had no money and was sent to jail.

A FEW DAYS.—But a few days remain for the ladies to obtain bargains at Mack Bro.'s & Bohm's closing out sale.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.—The residence of Mrs. Dickinson, 177 Linden street, was entered yesterday evening, and a number of dresses and other wearing apparel stolen.

Mrs. Dr. Harvey.—The world-renowned Clairvoyant and Magnetic Physician, whose instaneous cures of disease and clairvoyant perception have been the wonder of the world, has arrived in Memphis, and taken rooms for the season at the Overton Hotel (office, room No. 26), where she can be consulted upon all matters pretaining to life and health. She treats all the so-called incurable diseases as specialties, to-wit: cancer, consumption, asthma, rheumatism, dyspepsia, epilepsy, heart disease and female diseases, and all other chronic complaints, with speedy and happy results. For particulars, call or send for a circular. Prof. Harvey, the discoverer of a certain and painless cure for cancers and tumors, assists in her practice and compounds all her medicines. Address all letters to PROF. HARVEY,

A Card to Invalids.—A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge.
Please inclose a post-paid envelope, addressed to yourself. Address

The Great Need Supplied!—Pills have been swallowed in millions. Salves have been rubbed in by the pound. Dr. MAGGIEL's two grand specifics are putting an end to this wholesale system of medication. One of his famous pills is a dose. A box of his healing salve is of more value, as a remedy for ulcerous and scrutive diseases, than a ship's cargo of the ointments advertised to cure everything, but are all, in fact, either useless or deleterious.
Dr. MAGGIEL's motto is CONSERVATICS. He has placed in the smallest compass the active principle of the most potent vegetable specifics. There is no mineral in his Pills—they do not gripe—they do not enfeeble. They create a vigorous appetite, and correspondingly strengthen the digestion. They tone the liver, clear the head and steady the nerves.
No form of scrofulous disease can resist the disinfectent operation of the Salve. Tumor Abscesses, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, etc., are thoroughly eradicated by this unrivaled medicine. In fact, MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. Maggiel, 43 Fulton street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cents per box. 4-149

The money market continues to rule close. The street rates are from 2½ to 3 per cent. per month. Receipts of cotton yesterday were 1760 bales; exports, 1941 bales.
