TEXAS VOLUNTEER BETTER BUSINEES BODY IS FORMED

By Associated Press

HOUSTON, Oct. 9.—Announcement has been made from the State Headquarters of the Associated Advertising Clubs of Texas that a Texas Volunteer Better Business Bureau Commission has been formed and that its work will be one of the active features of the Houston Convention to be held November 12, 13 and 14.

The work of the Texas Volunteer Better Business Bureau Commission will be to bring cooperation between all advertising Clubs in their efforts to keep down fraudulent and unprofitable advertising. The Commission will begin work immediately through its members in every large city in Texas and at the Houston Convention will recommend a program of activity for the Clubs of Texas to undertake in this direction.

The Better Business Bureau work in Texas has been uniformly successful, so far as it has gone. In a period of about two years, Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Waco and other business centers have through their Better Business Bureau work kept away from the public many fraudulent schemes have prevented misleading statements being presented for public consumption. The individual efforts of these Clubs led to the plan to coordinate their work and to provide for an exchange of information which would aid each other.

General plans for the Houston Convention are advancing rapidly. An announcement has come from headquarters of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World that the National President, Leo E. Holland of Kansas City, will visit the Houston Convention and make one of the principal addresses. It will be Mr. Holland's first appearance at a sectional meeting and this is regarded by Texas as a distinct compliment to its state organization.

MISS BOWER PLEASED WITH POTTER EXHIBIT

Miss Anna Bower, home demonstrator, has returned from Dallas where she Panhandle's ample represented at the the Potter County exhibit has won some favorable comments. That the Panhandle is ample represented at the fair is evident by the fact that 17 out of the 27 exhibits are from this section. She said that the county exhibits department would have been a failure were not it for the cooperation from the Panhandle, according to reports at the fair.

Miss Bower said that Potter County wheat, oats and barley would receive fine rating at the fair. Although he did not know how the booth would compare in standing with the others. Judging hadn't finished when she left Saturday night.

Miss Bower was accompanied to Amarillo by her mother, Mrs. J. J. Bower of Waco, who will visit the home demonstrator and her sister, Miss Helen Bower.
