Cotton Has Slight Easter Break and Close Is Easier

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 1.—After making high records during today's early trading, the cotton market turned easier under realizing for most the Easter holidays. May contracts which had advanced to 30.00 hence to 29.60 and closed at that level and the general list closed barely steady, 3 a yd. decline at 29 points on April with other months net 15 points lower to 4 points higher. The new crop being relatively firm.

The market opened steadily at an advance on overnight buying orders. Reports of further rains in eastern cotton sections stimulated the demand for early crop delivery while there was further trade buying and covering by early week sellers. The short interest however, appeared to have been very considerable, followed on the advance from the low levels of last week and the market himself in the during the [illegible] of the day under realizing.

A [illegible] trading was held on account of the Easter holidays. Cotton futures opened steady with [illegible] prices at the level of Monday's close. Later [illegible] and there was quite a good deal of buying. The close was at about the top level of the day. The market was in sympathy with Liverpool [illegible] Monday.

Special to The Caller

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 1.—Receipts were reduced to feeder and stocker consignments again Thursday and another rather slow market was the result. Cut as far as feeder were concerned there was no need to find fault on the market. Which feeds were made they were sold in line with Wednesday's trade.

South Texas had a representation of about fifty cars of above to the yards selling at 10.00 and 10.75. Indifferent stuff remained slow. The stocker trade was quiet and prices again sold at a week ago. Heavy steers are offering at 8.00 cents and up, cows and heifers.
