REVIVAL AT SPOTSYLVANIA

Rev. J. H. Light Assisted Dr. Ray.

I began a meeting at Zion church of this place last Sunday. Congregations have been large and attentive.

Rev. J. H. Light, of Baltimore Conference, in Fredericksburg, came to my help on Monday and has preached to the people with great power.

His utterance and articulation are distinct, so he may be easily heard in the large auditorium. His discussions are clear, strong and vivid. I know him as a college mate of my sons.

There is great capacity for usefulness in this young and accurate preacher.

He will get the best appointments.

This meeting is growing in interest, and we hope for large results. Already the society here has been greatly blest. In all my meetings this far I have received about 50 into church fellowship, and others will join. George H. Ray.

MR. J. P. H. CRISMOND

Denies That He Is Leader Of Faction.

We have a note from Mr. J. P. H. Crismond of Spotsylvania, disclaiming that he is the leader of a faction of the Republican party in Spotsylvania county, as was charged in a recent report of a political gathering at the county seat. Mr. Crismond says such a statement is misleading and that he is not a leader of a faction of a party. We take pleasure in publishing his denial and assure him that no offense was intended by us in making the statement, which was based on rumors heard by our reporters.

DEATH OF MRS. W. D. MILLS

The Remains Will Be Taken To Stafford For Interment.

Mrs. W. D. Mills died at her home in Washington Monday morning of typhoid fever, aged 32 years. The deceased was Miss Bessie Franklin, daughter of Mr. Wallace Franklin, of Stafford. She is survived by her husband and one daughter. The remains will be brought here Tuesday morning and interred at her former home in Stafford.

CARD FROM MR. MONCURE

Falmouth, Va., Sept. 14, 1907.

To The Free Lance:

The report has been freely circulated by my political opponents that I favored the appointment of all county officers, and was opposed to their election by the people. I wish to deny the truth of this report and to say that I favor the election by the people of all county officers from constable up, and only voted for the bill passed by the last legislature requiring Commissioners of the Revenue to be appointed by the Circuit Judges, because the necessity of the case seemed to require it.

The new Virginia Constitution provided, 1910, "that there shall be elected or appointed, for four years, as the General Assembly may provide, Commissioners of the Revenue, &c., but should such Commissioners of Revenue be chosen by election by the people then they shall be ineligible for re-election to the office for the next succeeding term."

Election of Commissioners of the Revenue by the people therefore meant a change to new and inexperienced men after every term, and this change to new and inexperienced men would take place all over the state at the same time. The Auditor of Public Accounts informed the legislature that this change to inexperienced men at one and the same time throughout the state every four years would result in untold and continual confusion. Mr. Early's bill to provide for appointment by Circuit Judges of Commissioners of the Revenue was passed to meet this emergency until an amendment of the Constitution could be had allowing a person elected by the people to this office to succeed himself, and I voted for the bill with the distinct understanding that a bill would be introduced at the coming session of the legislature providing for such an amendment of the constitution. If elected, I propose to introduce such a bill myself.

Respectfully,
R. C. L. Moncure.

MR. SWIFT IN RICHMOND

Hon. Granville R. Swift, Commonwealth's attorney of Fredericksburg and a former member of the House of Delegates from the district composed of that city and the county of Spotsylvania, spent yesterday in Richmond on private business.

When in the Legislature Mr. Swift was a member of Major Moses M. Green's kindergarten class. He says, however, that nothing will be lost on this score by his retirement from the House, as his successor, Mr. C. O'Conor Goolrick, is younger than he is, therefore, plainly eligible for membership in the class. Mr. Swift says Fredericksburg is booming along at a pretty good gait, and is by no means a "finished city."—Rich. Times-Dispatch.

COLLEGE MUSICAL NOTES

The Musical Department of Fredericksburg College opened Thursday with ever prospect for a successful session.

Prof. Franklin's class is almost full, and contains many talented and earnest students, a number of whom are studying for graduation, with a view of entering professional work. Miss Hutcheson, the assistant in instrumental music, is a successful teacher, and is making many friends. Her class is rapidly filling up.

Several of Prof. Franklin's former pupils are now successful teachers, holding responsible positions.

The Orchestra will be reorganized Monday night, September 16th, and will be heard in public soon.

The first pupils' recital will be given in a few weeks.

MR. LEWIS' FINE JERSEYS

Two Sent By Express to Big Fairs.

Imported Stockwell, the $12,000 Jersey bull owned by Mr. A. B. Lewis, Lewisanna Farm, near Moss Neck, and his handsome cow, Golden Fern's Tulip, were brought here Saturday and shipped by express to Coopersburg, Pa. From there they will be taken to Louisville, to be exhibited at the fair there, and will also be exhibited at the Illinois State Fair.

The cattle while here were at Bedford's livery stable, and many persons called there to see them.

SUFFERING WITH APPENDICITIS

Miss Eva Lewis, of this city, daughter of Mr. G. W. Lewis, of Spotsylvania, left Monday for the University Hospital, Baltimore, where she will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

IN HONOR OF MISS ROBERTS

A number of young gentlemen gave a dance in the dining-room of the Exchange Hotel Friday night from 9 to 12, in honor of Miss Norma Roberts, of Baltimore, who left on Monday to attend college. The music was furnished by home talent, and all present had a delightful evening.

FINED FOR CRUELTY TO HORSE

Justices S. C. Blaydes, B. F. Eastburn and John L. Waller, of Spotsylvania, held court here Saturday at the office of Attorney Frederick W. Coleman and imposed a fine of $2 50 and costs on Jerry Kain for cruelty to his horse. The warrants charging Kain with using profane language and assaulting his wife were dismissed. Attorney Frederick W. Coleman represented Kain.

HANDSOME HORSE CUT BY BARBED WIRE

Mr. Hansford Wallace had his handsome horse he recently purchased cut by a barbed wire fence while out at the old Wallace home in Stafford county this week. Mr. Wallace is unlucky with his horses as he lost a splendid one by death last year.

JUDGE MULLEN TO PRESIDE IN ESSEX

Gov. Swanson has designated Judge J. M. Mullen, of Petersburg, to hold a special term of the Circuit Court of Essex county, begining Oct 21st, when the trial of M. B. Wright for alleged murder will come up. Wright is a relative of Judge T. R. B. Wright, and therefore the latter is disqualified to sit in the case.

"IMMEDIATE IATTENTION"

I will send to printer September 25th data for new catalogue. Any of my customers desiring to make any changes in description of their properties will please send same in at once. Send picture of buildings. John W. Allison, Jr.,

CANNING FACTORY BURNS

Fire destroyed the canning factory of V. B. Hardwick, at Acorn, Westmoreland County, entailing a loss on building, machinery and canned goods to the amount of $8,000, 45 per cent of which was covered by insurance in the Northern Neck Mutual Fire Insurance Company. The fire had its origin in the bursting of a gasoline pipe.

DEATH OF A RESPECTED COLORED WOMAN

Spoent Underwood died September 13 at the home of her daughter, Emey Payne, near Hartwood, Stafford county, of paralysis, aged 80 years. She leaves two children, Emey Payne and Wm. Underwood. She was one of the slaves of the late H. C. Alexander.

ORANGE

Exposition Visitors—Stock And Crop Notes—Personals.

Lahore, Va., Sept. 14th, 1907.

Ho to Jamestown! Daily egress and ingress of our people to the big show is the order of the day. Among this week's pleasure seekers are Munford Johnson, wife and Miss Carrie Brockman, Evan Ellis, Lyn Baker, Miss Lula Baker, Miss Clara Burrus, who sojourns a while with her friend, Miss Estelle Royster, at her home in Washington. Miss Royster spends a portion of every summer with Miss B. at her home near Pine Top.

Mr. Blaydes, of C. & O. R. R., is visiting friends here.

Miss Fannie Graves, of Madison, and her sister, Mrs. Florence Wilhoit, of Somerset, with a trio of interesting children, visited relatives here this week. While en route the buggy upset and Mrs. Wilhoit narrowly escaped serious injury.

Mrs. Fannie Cave and her daughter, Mrs. Julia Rule, are visiting in Orange.

Morton Daniel, a prominent railroader, is visiting here.

Dr. Tate Mason, of Seattle, Wash., is visiting his mother here. We regret to hear that Mrs. Mason will return with him to his far away home.

John Douglas, the mogul of Pine Beach, is visiting friends in Orange.

Protracted meeting begins at Macedonia church next fourth Sunday, with Pastor Hannah preaching.

Watermelons are quite plentiful now and chickens out of trouble. Most Sambos, you know, will let chicken alone for the melon.

Louis Booton, Geo. Frazer and John Daniel are making cattle and hogs hard to buy. The cattle kings are paying good prices.

We are much exercised just now about saving the heavy corn crop. Labor is scarce and high and becomes more worthless as the price advances. Three hay presses are at work here, charging $2 per ton for baling.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Board of Fisheries will meet in Hampton September 18, 10 a. m.

Rev. A. T. King has resigned the pastorate of Hebron and Beulah Baptist churches, King William County, to take up the study of medicine at the University of Virginia.

C. H. Wine has sold his two farms near Brandy, comprising 460 acres, to Joseph J. Whispell, of Florida, with the personalty, for $25,000.

James R. Tapp has sold 164 acres of his farm, including buildings, in Culpeper county, to Mr. Gary, of Augusta county, for $5500.

Hon. C. C. Carlin, Democratic nominee for Congress, will speak at Richardsville, October 19th, and at Culpeper, October 21st.

Harry C. Coles, of Pittsylvania county, chief of the rural carrier division of the U. S. civil service commission, has been appointed chairman, chief examiner and secretary of the Porto Rican civil service commission, to be organized under act of the legislature of that island.

E. N. Wildbore, driver of an express wagon in Richmond, will, on Nov. 8, come into possession of an English fortune of $5,000,000.

Frank P. Burke, in charge of station B branch postoffice, Richmond, was arrested on Saturday, on a charge of rifling the mails. A decoy letter was placed in the mails by an inspector and when Burke was arrested the letter is said to have been found in his possession. He was bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance before the United States court. He has been in the postoffice for fifteen years.

HUNTING FOXES

The boys have commenced hunting foxes. The W. E Brooks boys, in Falmouth, have killed two and Mr. Calvin Jones, of Spotsylvania, has killed three so far this season. It is a little early, as a fox does not get his speed until the frost falls.

LIDA WOODLANDS WON

At Prospect fair races, Baltimore, Friday, C. H. Hurkamp's Lida Woodlands won the steeplechase, and May Woodhouse was second in the three-fourth heat race, running.

MULES AT AUCTION

I will sell at public auction in front of the store of Eddie Jacobs on Commerce street, Fredericksburg, on Saturday, Sept. 21st, at 1 o'clock, a pair of good work mules. Wilson Waller, Auctioneer.

AN ADVERTISING HINT

Dead Men Never Advertise And All Are "Very Conservative."

A duck that had faithfully stuck to business during the summer and laid several dozen large fawn-colored eggs complained that she was not appreciated.

"The trouble with you is," said a wise buff Leghorn cock, who was standing near, "that you do not tell the public what you have done like the hens do. You lay an egg and waddle off without letting anybody in the neighborhood know it."

MARRIAGES

James Barrack, of Bluff Point, and Mrs. Sarah Valentine, of Irvington, were married Sept. 11th, at the Baptist parsonage, Kilmarnock, by Rev. F. W. Claybrook.

A beautiful wedding took place at Rehoboth M. E. church, Northumberland county, Sept. 7th, when Miss Daisy Mitchell Hall, daughter of the late Snowden Hall, became the bride of Wm. Carroll Hurst, both of that county. Rev. Porter Hardy officiated. Miss Ina Hall was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were: Misses Grace Hurst, Leta, Una and Enid Kelly, Gertrude Hall, Helen Hudnall and Margaret Henderson; Messrs. Mitchell, Richard, Harry, Catesby and Eugene Hall, David, Kelly and Benjamin Hurst were the ushers. Prof. James Hurst was best man. Miss Bettie Ball presided at the organ.
