NOTES FROM THE SOUTH SIDE—DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.

Alleged Railroad Thieves—The Charges Against Captain Trusheim—Governor Lee at the Colored Fair.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 14, 1887.

Mr. Grandison F. Marks, whose illness was mentioned several days ago, died last night at his residence, on Guarantee street, aged seventy-eight years. Mr. Marks was a native of Prince George county, but came to this city when quite young, and had been a resident of Petersburg for upwards of sixty years. By trade he was a builder, and his business in that line was very large.

Three negro men—William Robinson, Lewis Winters and Fred. Gee—employed by the Petersburg Railroad Company, were arrested this morning on the charge of robbing the cars of that company. It seems that last night while the freight train was passing up Washington street one of the cars was broken open and a quantity of meat thrown out. This meat was traced to the house of one of the above parties and the other two were found to be implicated in the theft. Their cases will be heard before the mayor to-morrow.

At a meeting of the Petersburg Artillery held last night resolutions were unanimously adopted approving the course of Captain John Trusheim in the matter of the recent charges of irregularity preferred against him by two of the members, and requesting the two men who had made the charges to send in their resignations and uniforms, declaring their further membership as distasteful and injurious to the command. This request will doubtless be promptly complied with.

Rev. R. R. Acree, the newly-elected pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, arrived here to-day to assume charge of his pastoral duties, and on Sunday next will preach in that church. His family will follow him in a few days.

The attendance at the fair of the Colored Agricultural Association to-day was quite large, drawn thither by the announcement that his Excellency Governor Lee would be on the grounds and deliver an address.

The Governor with Colonel C. O'B. Cowardin of his staff arrived at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. He was met by Lawyer Mellwaine and a representative of the Colored Fair Association. He was driven at once to the grounds. After witnessing the trotting race the Governor was very gracefully introduced to the crowd by President Harris, of the Fair Association, and delivered a very practical and appropriate address. He was listened to with marked attention and was loudly applauded. In his introduction Harris said that he had done all in his power to defeat Governor Lee for the position of executive of the State, yet could but acknowledge that since he had occupied the Governor's chair there was nothing in his official acts that he (Harris) could condemn.

The Governor left for Richmond at 5 o'clock on the fast mail to meet a business engagement.

It was announced once or twice that addresses would be delivered on the grounds by Senator Mahone, ex-Senator Bruce, and John M. Langston, but none of them made their appearance.

GENERAL NOTES.

"Wright," whose brief letter referring to the cotton crop of Virginia the Dispatch lately published, asks your correspondent to say by way of apology to "Farmer," of Ivor, that his omission of old Southampton as the leading cotton-raising county was purely inadvertent, and he adds to that county Nansemond and Isle of Wight as going to swell the crop.

The trial of the negro girl Mollie Jones, charged with intentionally causing the death of a child of Mr. William R. Williams, of Prince George county, recently, and who was yesterday indicted for the crime in the County Court, was continued until the next term.

Not less than fifty-two wagons, mostly four-horse teams, were seen on the streets yesterday delivering their loads of tobacco and cotton—mostly cotton. But this is an almost daily scene now.

The Petersburg newsboys are all, or nearly all, negroes. Two of the most energetic of the number are totally blind, yet they manage to navigate the streets rapidly without apparent difficulty—serving their customers promptly and faithfully.

The Republicans of Prince George had a meeting at the Courthouse yesterday at which there were several addresses.

The steamboat River Belle, so long expected, will probably arrive here to-morrow, when the "Petersburg and James-River Line" will formally commence operations.

Building operations have been so brisk here for some time past that it has been a difficult matter to procure skilled carpenters, and still continues so.

It is said that the pressure on our tobacco manufacturers is so great that several of the leading factories are running night and day. ROBIN ADAIR.

ASHLAND AND HANOVER.

The Hanover Troop—German Class—Temperance.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ASHLAND, October 14, 1887.

Forty-five members of the Hanover Troop have been encamped at Hanover Courthouse for two days, where they were inspected by Major Allen. The company was highly complimented by the Major, and presented a handsome appearance in their new uniform. They attend the corner-stone laying of Lee monument, and will probably camp in the Fair-Grounds.

Dr. Richard M. Smith, of the department of German at Randolph-Macon, has organized a German club, which meets once a week in his study. An interesting and instructive programme of German declamations, poems, recitations, and reading of Schiller, Goethe, etc., makes the club exceedingly valuable to the student.

Rev. J. R. Tillery, State lecturer, delivered a strong address to an attentive audience last night in the College chapel upon the evil of intemperance. Considerable "elbowing" was noticed as the speaker told of many interesting cases that had come under his notice. Quite a number were induced to join the lodge after the lecture.

Mrs. Professor W. W. Smith and Miss Nannie Howison have returned home after a visit of about five weeks in the mountains of Virginia.

Mr. William M. Jones, of the James-River Improvement Company, has moved here and is occupying the Carrol House.

DANVILLE.

An Officer Assaulted—A Fortunate Discovery.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., October 14.—This morning between 3 and 4 o'clock Officer Dave Brown caught a negro stealing wood from the premises of E. R. Hughes. The officer arrested the negro and was taking him to jail when another negro slipped up behind and dealt him a blow on the side of his face with a stick of wood, felling him to the ground. Both negroes then ran off. The officer recovered from the first shock of the blow in time to shoot at them, but the shot failed to take effect, and the negroes escaped.

Mr. Brown went to his room and has been confined to his bed all day. It is thought his injuries are not serious. No arrests have yet been made.

A telegram was received here to-day from Fort Lewis, Colorado, announcing the death of Dr. Thomas A. Cunningham, surgeon in the United States army. Dr. Cunningham was a native of Pittsylvania county and a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, as also of the School of Medicine at the university. He was about thirty-five years old.

About 1 o'clock to-day, while the officials at the City Hall were absent, a gentleman accidentally dropped into the hall and saw smoke issuing from the council chamber. He broke the door open, and found that the grate had fallen and set fire to the floor. The fire was easily extinguished, but in a short time the whole building would have been enveloped in flames.

The will of the late T. J. Lee will be admitted to record to-morrow. The estate is valued at nearly $200,000, but the property is encumbered.

Rockbridge County Fair.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, VA., October 14.—The Rockbridge County Fair commenced on the 11th and closed to-day. The exhibition was a splendid success. Stock from Ohio, West Virginia, and Southwest Virginia was exhibited. The racing was good.

Miss Carrie McCluer, of Augusta county, Virginia, took the premium, a $100 horse, for the best rider. The second premium, a fine lady's saddle, was awarded to Miss Rose Cochran, of Augusta county, Virginia. The successful knight at the tournament practice, Mr. William Miller, received a solid gold watch. To-day the ragamuffins had their parade. Company B, of the Cadet corps, took the prize, a silver cup, as the best-drilled company.

The weather was all that could be desired, clear and cool. Over 6,000 people were in attendance. The managers of the fair are more than pleased with the result of their exhibition.

Arm Sawed Off.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

MARTINSVILLE, VA., October 14.—To-day a painful and serious accident befel Mr. Burse, the engineer in the spoke- and handle-factory here. He was passing the machinery while it was in motion, and stumbling fell against one of the saws. In a twinkling his left arm was sawed almost entirely off. The saw ran through the elbow, and when he recovered his position his arm was hanging by a small piece of skin. Drs. J. M. and C. P. Smith were called in and rendered surgical aid.

A Remarkable Invention.

A Washington special to the Baltimore Sun says: There is considerable talk in the Patent Office just now concerning an invention patented recently, which, in the opinion of some, will be a formidable rival of the telephone, Mr. Bell's monopoly. The invention is an electric type-writer. The instrument in appearance somewhat resembles an ordinary mechanical typewriter. It has a key-board and the types are placed on steel bars, which play upon a common centre, as is the case with the type-writer. The motive power used is electricity, by means of which evenness of action is assured. No matter how heavily or how lightly the keys are struck, the impression on the paper is the same. A remarkable feature of the invention used as a type-writer is that the carriage moves automatically both forward and backward. When the end of the line is reached the carriage returns to the starting point without the aid of the operator, and the paper bar moves one notch, so that all that is required of the operator is to depress the keys. The most important field for the new invention is said to be in connection with the telegraph. It is said at the Patent Office that the instrument can be used both as a transmitter and receiver of intelligence over a single wire, no matter how great the distance may be. The receiving instrument does not require the attendance of an operator, but prints the dispatch automatically. The instruments at both ends of the line print the dispatch sent, and so a safeguard against mistakes is provided. It is claimed that the electric type-writer will be valuable as a local aid to business, and offers many advantages over the telephone. One advantage claimed for it is that no matter whether a person called up is at his place of business or not, the message can be printed through the medium of his type-writer, and will be there for his perusal on his return. The dispatches printed are in letter form, and not an endless tape. The instrument which has been christened the dynamograph, is considered by Patent-Office officials to be one of the greatest inventions upon which patents have been issued.

Ex-Secretary Belknap.

Ex-Secretary-of-War Belknap requests the Dispatch to state that he is not "living at Powhatan Courthouse, Va., quietly cultivating flowers and vegetables, reading books, and presenting a dilapidated appearance, &c., &c." He says he was never in Powhatan county in his life, and that the letter to the Dispatch purporting to describe his life there was evidently based on mistaken identity. The statement of our correspondent had already been corrected, but the ex-Secretary is nevertheless given the benefit of his own denial.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

A natural flow of bile from the liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in which if neglected soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons Liver Regulator exerts a most felicitous influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile, and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

"I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from fifteen to twenty grains of calomel, which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to business."—J. HUGG, Middleport, Ohio.

ASSAULTING A MINISTER.

Captain William Waller, of Camden, Attacks Rev. Dr. Tidball.

[Philadelphia News.]

Captain William H. H. Waller, of 507 Linden street, Camden, made a most outrageous and unprovoked assault upon Rev. Dr. Tidball, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church, last Monday morning, which has brought upon the former the wrath of all the vestrymen of the church.

Dr. and Mrs. Tidball lately returned from a European trip, whither they were accompanied by Captain Waller's wife. Mrs. Waller, on her return a few days ago, complained to her husband that Dr. Tidball had neglected her during the tour, and on Monday Mr. Waller called on the rector to demand an explanation. Dr. Tidball denied any intentional neglect. He stated he had been ill, though, and could not get about as much as he had desired. Mr. Waller was not satisfied and demanded an apology for his wife. Dr. Tidball declined making the apology, and added that under the circumstances it would have been pleasanter for him if Mrs. Waller had had another escort.

At this Mr. Waller became very angry, and, walking over to Dr. Tidball, struck him a stunning blow over the face. After an instant Dr. Tidball arose, and, addressing Waller, said:

"My calling prevents my inflicting upon you such chastisement as you deserve. There is the door. Leave this house instantly, or I will assist you!"

Captain Waller has only lived on Linden street a few years. While the European trip was being planned he offered to furnish Dr. Tidball and his wife passes to Europe, as he was employed in the National Steamship Line's offices in this city and could get them very easily. Dr. Tidball felt annoyed at the offer, but could not decline. He felt much relieved subsequently when Mr. Waller told him he had been able to procure but two tickets, which he gave his own wife and her maid.

Dr. Tidball is rector of St. Paul's church, the most influential in the diocese of New Jersey.

This is what killed your poor father. Shun it. Avoid anything containing it throughout your future useful (?) careers. We older heads object to its special 'Rough'ness.'
