TWO MEN BADLY CUT.

A TRIFLING DISPUTE RESULTS VERY SERIOUSLY.

A Mysterious Shot—A Negro with a Bullet in His Face—Several Deaths.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., April 23, 1888.

Saturday night was an unusually lively night in police circles, and the docket of the Mayor's Court this morning was a very full one in consequence. In the disposition of the many cases before the court the mayor was assisted by two justices—Messrs. Turnbull and Olivier. The first case called was that of Mr. Lazarus Moore, a citizen of Ettrick, charged with malicious cutting. The accused, through his counsel, waived examination, and was sent on to the July term of the Hustings Court for trial. Bail was allowed in the sum of $1,000 in each of the two cases charged against him. At an early hour on Sunday morning Officer George Edwards, while patroling his beat on Lombard street, found Mr. Moore and Mr. George C. Gary engaged in a dispute. He separated them and advised them to go home and have no trouble. Officer Edwards says that Mr. Gary started away, but after going some distance remarked something about settling the difficulty at another time and place. The officer went up to him to advise quiet. He was followed by Mr. Moore, who used language that caused Mr. Gary to strike him in the face. The officer stepped between the two parties and strove to shove them apart. In doing so both the officer and Mr. Gary were severely cut. Mr. Gary's cheek was laid open almost from the eye to the chin. Officer Edwards was twice cut, once across the left arm between the shoulder and elbow, the muscles being severed to the bone, and again across one of the fingers of the left hand. He says the wounds were all inflicted by Mr. Moore, but the latter says he had nothing but a small pocket-knife about his person, and on this were found no stains of blood. Officer Edwards does not think he was wounded intentionally, but that the blows which struck him were aimed at and intended for Mr. Gary. Both of the wounded men are resting quietly to-day. Their wounds, while very painful, are not regarded as dangerous.

James King (colored) was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with shooting one Albert Robinson (colored) on Saturday night with felonious intent. King appeared in court this morning, proved an alibi, and was discharged. Robinson was shot in the left cheek and the bullet has not yet been extracted. The shooting occurred on Gill street at 1 o'clock A. M. A crowd was present and there was considerable excitement, but who fired the shot is thus far unknown.

The Hustings Court was engaged today in the trial of Walter Jones (negro), indicted for an indecent assault. Jones has been twice convicted of this offence, but a new trial was obtained in each case on technical grounds. In the first trial the jury rendered a verdict of eighteen years in the penitentiary. Several hours were consumed to-day in obtaining a jury.

Douglass Ellis (colored), aged fifty years, employed as a box-prizer at Mr. John H. Maclin's tobacco-factory, on east Washington street, fell while at his work this afternoon and died in a few minutes. He did not speak after the attack.

Mr. William Vincent, a popular young citizen, died at his home, on Old street, this morning of consumption, after an illness of some weeks. He was about thirty years of age, was engaged in the stove and tinware business, and was an officer of the Washington-Street Methodist Episcopal church Sunday school.

Mrs. Captain John D. Alley died this morning at the residence of her husband, on Sycamore street, after a brief illness. She was a well-known and much-respected lady.

The Petersburg Convocation of the Episcopal Church will assemble in semi-annual session at Wakefield to morrow, and will remain in session until Saturday. All the Episcopal ministers in this city will attend—except, possibly, Rev. Dr. C. J. Gibson, who has been confined to his home by indisposition for several days. He was unable to attend his church yesterday.

It has been found necessary to cut away much of the luxuriant growth of ivy from the walls of Grace Episcopal church. It may be added, too, that the appearance of this ivy had been much injured by the flocks of English sparrows that infested and built their nests in it. When the vines were pruned it is said that several hundred of the eggs of these little birds were destroyed.

The prosecutions against the young man J. F. Gardner, arrested some time ago on the charge of obtaining small sums of money from various colored people under false pretences, having failed by reason of some technical informality, it is understood that new proceedings will be commenced against him.

ROBIN ADAIR.

Death of Mr. Oliver Beirne.

[Baltimore Sun.]

Mr. Oliver Beirne died in New Orleans Saturday, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. Mr. Beirne was born in Monroe county, West Virginia, in 1811, and was a son of Colonel Andrew Beirne, who was a member of Congress from the State of Virginia about 1840. Mr. Oliver Beirne was twice married. His first wife was a sister of Hon. Allen T. Caperton, who served in the Confederate Senate from Virginia during the war and in the United States Senate afterwards from West Virginia. His second wife was a daughter of Mr. Sprague, a banker of this city, and a sister of Mrs. William Donnell. He had three daughters by his second wife, one of whom married Baron von Ahlefeldt, and is the only one who survives. Mr. Beirne was the owner of the Old Sweet Springs, and possessed large tracts of land in Monroe county. Not long ago the late John Burnside, the immense sugar-planter of Louisiana, made him his sole legatee. This last addition to his already great possessions increased his wealth to an estimated amount of $10,000,000.

Hon. James Barbour's Condition.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

CULPEPER, April 23.—The Hon. James Barbour, who was thought to be in a very precarious condition last night and whose family were summoned around him, is reported better this evening, and there are some hopes of his recovery.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

To settle a friendly dispute between two estimable gentlemen, kindly decide in your columns these three questions—viz.:

1. What tax per pound does the English Government receive import upon leaf tobacco and manufactured tobacco respectively?

2. What is the import duty on tin from England by the United States Government?

3. Where is to-day the genuine Irish "Blarney Stone"?

Your attention please. R. G. P.

1. The tariff varies from 3s. 6d. on leaf to 4s. 4d. on manufactured—per pound, of course, though it is extremely high.

2. There is no duty on tin, we think.

3. In or near the village of Blarney, Ireland.

Advice to Mothers.

Dr. Biggers's Huckleberry Cordial should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for the bowels. TRY IT.

FIRE AT ASHEVILLE.

A Railroad Wreck—The Hot Springs Convention.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

SALISBURY, N. C., April 23.—About 3:30 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in a house of Mr. Richmond Pearsons, in Asheville, occupied by a Mr. Hart. The roof fell in before any one knew there was a fire. Every one escaped, but the building and contents were burned. Several other buildings caught, but the fire was put out.

There was a wreck of a freight train on the edge of this city on the Richmond and Danville railroad this morning. The engine and several cars left the track and stuck in the dirt road. The engineer and fireman jumped, and no one was hurt.

Several of our most prominent men will go up to the Hot Springs to attend the immigration meeting to be held there on the 25th. A mistaken idea has prevailed that it is to be a Catholic meeting. This is not the case. There is to be no religious feature, though many of different sects have been invited and will be in attendance.

National Bank Depositories.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Acting-Secretary Thompson has transmitted to the Senate, in compliance with the resolution of that body, a list of national banks which are depositories of public moneys, with the amounts held by each on April 7th to the credit of the Treasurer. In the letter of transmittal he informs the Senate that no interest is paid by national banks on public funds so deposited, and that the place of deposit is discretionary with the Secretary. The amounts vary from $40,000 to more than a million, and aggregate more than $60,000,000.

The Diss Debar Case.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, April 23.—Queer developments continue in the famous Diss Debar spiritualist suit. General Diss Debar admitted this morning to a reporter that he was not the legal husband of Madame Diss Debar. He had never been divorced from his legal wife and was not married to the "priestess." He added that he was not a general, but had received the title in the South. The Madame will return to Marsh's house when she is released.

Worth Noting.

Professor Thomas Davidson, a distinguished Scotchman, said in a sermon delivered last Sunday in Washington:

"One of the strongest proofs of the existence of the soul is that it cannot be discovered; it is immaterial, the microscope and the crucible do not reveal it. What we mean by the soul is the common principle of will, volition, thought, and feeling. Each one must be to a certain extent conscious of such a soul. We signify the soul when we say 'I.'"

"Here let me point out the almost universal fallacy that time passes. It is the succession of events that passes, not time. All time is always present. There can be no measurement of the illimitable; hence no measurement of time, merely of the passing of events."

And many other striking things.

ROW ON A TRAIN.

A LIVELY TIME ON THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO.

Rocks and Pistols—One Negro Shoots Another—Killed on the Rail—Fire.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

CHARLESTON, W., VA., April 23.—A party of three men, whose names are reported to be Lee Trimble, Will Brannon, and ——— Bowles, got on the afternoon train going West on the Chesapeake and Ohio road yesterday at Coal Valley, and being somewhat under the influence of liquor were not long in getting up a row among themselves. As the train was starting out from Dego they were standing on the rear platform, and one of them was knocked off the train by another in the party. He responded by knocking his assailant off with a rock, and the third, who was still on the car, fired a 44-calibre revolver at the pair, the ball passing through Trimble's coat, but doing no other damage.

Saturday was pay-day at the Caperton mines, and two colored men of that place proceeded to celebrate the event by filling up on mean whiskey. The result was a row, which ended in one of them shooting the other, who may die from the effects of his wound.

C. C. Barker, a miner, was run over by the cars at Upper Creek, two miles below here, at 4 o'clock this morning and was instantly killed. He was horribly mangled. He leaves a wife and seven children. It is supposed he had been drinking and had gone to sleep on the track.

The house of Joseph Smailes, at Hawk's Nest, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. But very little of its contents were saved. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

FOUND AT LAST.

A POSITIVE PREVENTIVE OF CHOLERA IN HOGS AND FOWLS, AND A CURE IF USED IN TIME.

THE GREAT WESTERN CHOLERA CURE is the remedy. Used successfully for years in the West. Introduced East now for the first time.

Lone Jack Tobacco is known throughout the world, and so is its distinguished inventor and proprietor, JOHN W. CARROLL, Esq. See what he says: "For some months past I have been using the GREAT WESTERN CHOLERA CURE to prevent cholera in my hogs, and with the most satisfactory results. While others in the vicinity of my plantation have been troubled with this terrible scourge, my hogs have been entirely free from it, and I believe the liberal use of this valuable medicine will entirely prevent cholera."

MR. ELIAS O. PAYNE, of Adams Brothers & Payne, says: "I have very fine chickens, and think a great deal of them. Not long ago, very much to my regret, the cholera broke out among them. All were droopy, others very sick, and some died, and I thought I would lose all of them. I was advised to use the WESTERN CHOLERA CURE, and lo! and behold, the effect was almost magical. They commenced improving at once. No more died, and in two or three days they were all well and thrifty, and not one has been sick since. You are authorized to give it my most enthusiastic endorsation, and I recommend its use both as a preventive and cure of chicken cholera."

For sale everywhere.

COMMISSIONER'S AUCTION SALE OF THAT VALUABLE STORE AND DWELLING No. 509 EAST MARSHALL STREET.—By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, entered on the 12th day of April, 1888, in the case of Newell and wife vs. Ragland and als., the undersigned, special commissioner, will sell at public auction, on the premises, on

TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1888,

at 5 o'clock P. M., the DESIRABLE THREE-STORY BRICK TENEMENT No. 509 east Marshall street, the first story being occupied as a store and the upper portion as a dwelling. The lot has a front of 28 feet 6 inches and runs back about 157 feet.

This property has been occupied by a good tenant for many years past, and, with its proximity to the market and the recent improvement of Marshall street, would pay well as an investment.

TERMS: One third cash; for the balance, three negotiable notes—one payable in six months for one fourth, one payable in twelve months for one fourth, and one payable in eighteen months for one half—with interest added, and title retained until all the purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the Court, or a deed executed to the purchaser at once, and a deed of trust executed by him to secure the deferred payments, as the Court may order.
BEVERLEY T. CRUMP,
Special Commissioner.

NEWELL AND WIFE, PLAINTIFFS, AGAINST RAGLAND AND ALS., DEVENDANTS—IN THE CHANCERY COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

I, Benjamin H. Berry, clerk of said court, do hereby certify that the bond required of the special commissioner by the decree of said cause of April 17, 1888, has been duly given.

Given under my hand this 23d day of April, 1888.
BENJAMIN H. BERRY.
