TRACK TEAM AT WORK

HORSLEY, OF M'GUIRE'S, TRIES FOR VIRGINIA TEAM

"Pop" Lannigan Begins Whipping Candidates Into Shape for a Strenuous Season.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., September 30.—Virginia's track squad completed to-day its first week of practice, under the watchful eye of "Pop" Lannigan, the veteran trainer. A total of twenty-five men answered the call and have worked out each afternoon this week, to limber up preparatory to the indoor season, which starts in earnest after the Christmas holidays.

Lannigan just now is devoting especial attention to the cross-country runners. Men are needed to fill the gaps in last year's team, which won the South Atlantic intercollegiate cross-country championship meet, held at the university. The meet this year will be held in Washington, under the auspices of Catholic University, which will do its utmost to take the championship away from Virginia.

Hay, Horsley, Carr, Venture, Holmes, Allen, Shands, Maury and R. Shands are among the cross-country men reporting to date, but more are needed so that by the third week in November the university will be able to send to Washington a team of seven of the strongest cross-country runners in the South Atlantic States. Only two members of last year's winning team are in college—Maury and Allen. This leaves five places to be filled.

Among those who made their first appearance on Lambeth Field this week as track aspirants were Hay, a marathon runner, from Altoona, Pa., who has made quite a favorable impression so far; Fay, of New Jersey; Spencer Snead, of Lynchburg, and Hammond, of Culpeper, sprinters; Brook, of New Jersey, high-jumper and shot-putter; Venture, of Norfolk; Holmes, of Lawrenceville; Horsley, of McGuire's team, Richmond; Ezelinger, of Michigan, and Martin, a pole-vaulter.

Among the old men reporting are Allen, Round, A. Shands, Chamberlain, R. Shands, M. Warren, Maury, B. Warren, Beasley, Archer, Wilson, Minor, and Edmunds. The squad suffers greatly by the failure of Bill Abbot to return. Abbot was regarded by Lannigan as the greatest miler in the South Atlantic division. In one of the meets last spring he covered the distance in 4:25. Abbot is now an instructer in the Episcopal school just opened near Lynchburg. He expects to return to college next year.

REDS VICTOR IN BOTH

PITTSBURGH, September 30.—Cincinnati won both games of a double-header here to-day, the first by a score of 5 to 4 and the second, 5 to 3. The first game was poorly played.

In the ninth, the visitors won on Rousch's pass, his steal of second and Chase's hit.

In the second game Bigbee's three errors entered largely into the scoring by Cincinnati, while Knetzer received good support. Scores:

WILLIAM AND MARY IS VICTOR OVER SEMINARY

Union Theologians Defeated When Fumble Is Recovered and End Runs Prove Successful.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., September 30.—Drawing blood in the first quarter, and holding the Theologians in their territory most of the time, the Indians took the opening game of the season here from Union Theological Seminary by a score of 7 to 0. During the latter part of the first quarter, William and Mary recovered a fumble on the Preachers' forty-yard line. A series of end runs and off-tackle plays put the ball within three yards of the goal. On the next play Captain Wilson tore open a hole in center, Geddy falling through for a touchdown. Geddy kicked goal.

The seminary contingent used everything but an open style of play, attempting only one forward pass during the game. They gained most of their ground on exchange of punts and old runs. Coach Hubbard's charges used a great variety of plays, mixing forward passes with off-tackle plays for consistent gains. While none of the passes were successful, it caused their opponents to spread out their defense, making the line plays more effective.

During the last half a number of new men were put into the game. Their work was excellent. In Ellis, Garber and Close, the Indians are supplied with three backs that promise to be the finds of the season. Both on the defense and offense their playing was superb.

In the closing quarter, the Preachers came back with fight. After securing the ball on a fumble in midfield, they crowded the Indians back to the twenty-yard line. At this juncture the locals took a brace and got possession of the ball on downs. This was the nearest the visiting team got to William and Mary's goal.

The game gave the coach a good opportunity to look over the new men, and it is believed that some changes will be made in the line-up before the next contest, which is with Virginia Military Institute next Saturday at Lexington.

The line-up:

W. & M.	Position.	U. T. S.
Somers	left end	Amick
Wilson (capt.)	center	Bowling
Robertson	right guard	Caldwell
Burford	right tackle	Johnston
James	right end	Roberson
Geddy	quarter back	White
Lassiter	left half back	Thompson
Garber	right half back	Curry (capt.)
Close	full back	Vandervant

Summary: Substitutions—William and Mary, Ellis for Garber, Brittingham for Geddy, Parker for Somers, Garland for Lassiter, Doss for Brittingham, Mattox for James. Touchdown—Geddy. Goal—Geddy. Referee—Ferguson, William and Mary. Umpire—Dovell, University of Virginia. Head linesman—Stryker, Medical College of Virginia. Time of quarters—10, 8, 10, 8.

Amateurs

The sporting pages of The Times-Dispatch primarily are for Richmonders who are interested in any or every branch of athletics. As far as space permits, efforts are being made to print the news of the more important events regularly, and special care is being taken to publish reports of local events.

The sporting pages are yours; help us give you the full benefit of them by sending us reports of your games.

We will furnish you score sheets and will print the reports of your contests. It matters not whether you are interested particularly in football, baseball, rowing, bowling, billiards, hunting, gymnastics or basketball; others also will be interested in the branch of athletics that appeals particularly to you, and they will be glad to know what you are doing.

Call on the sporting editor for assistance at any time. He will be glad to aid you to organize clubs or to plan meets, and offers the use of his office for meetings at any time.

Get score sheets at once and either bring or telephone in the results of your games.

Let us know exactly what you are doing and what you are interested in most, and help to make your page more valuable to you.

Clubs should appoint a committee that will report accurately and immediately the results of all contests and the making of any special records by members of the organization. Advance programs can be used also.

WEST VIRGINIA HOLDS PENNSY

PHILADELPHIA, September 30.—Pennsylvania's eleven won, 3 to 0, from West Virginia on Franklin Field this afternoon after a bitter struggle. Gravey Williams, Pennsylvania's husky fell back, saved the day for the Red and Blue when he kicked a magnificent goal from the field a few minutes before time was called, scoring the only 3 points in the game.

The game was fast from the beginning. The Pennsylvania men managed to outplay their opponents in the first two periods, not permitting West Virginia to gain one first down. The playing was almost all the other way in the last two periods, when West Virginia kept the ball in Pennsylvania territory most of the time.

GEORGIA SHOWS BAD FORM

ATHENS, GA., Sept. 30.—Playing in mid-season form, the Citadel surprised the Georgia University football team, holding the Crackers to 6 to 0 in the opening game of the season here to-day. Georgia's play was ragged throughout.

FAIRMOUNT ATHLETES TO ORGANIZE MONDAY

The regular business meeting of the Fairmount Athletic Association will be held to-morrow night in the club headquarters, C. C. A. Field, at 8:15 o'clock.

Business of great importance, such as the election of officers and managers of the track, baseball and basketball teams, will come before the meeting. The gathering will be a sort of rally, and the object will be to get more members for the club. Any young men desiring to join the club will be welcomed at the meeting to-morrow night.

Fairmount has teams in other branches of sport as well as in baseball, basketball, football and track. An indoor baseball team has been got together, and will play its initial game on next Friday night against the Railroad Y. M. C. A. team.

The Fairmount boys have shown up wonderfully well in all branches of sport, having captured the basketball and baseball titles and having had a track squad last year that was not bad by any means.
