CADETS LOSE HARD GAME

LENGTHY RUNS AND PASSES FEATURE CAROLINA VICTORY

Gray and Munce Get Into Fracas. Bertschey, Leech, Folger and Tennent Make the Touchdowns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., October 28.—In a fast and snappy game, Carolina defeated Virginia Military Institute here to-day, 38 to 13. Folger's touchdown, on a thirty-yard end run within the first minute and a half of play, made the Carolina eleven overconfident. As a result, within the next four minutes, Bertschey made a sensational seventy-yard, broken field run for a touchdown, which was in a minute followed by a touchdown on Leech's fifty-five-yard end run. Tandy's field goal in second quarter closed the half.

In third quarter, after a thirty-seven-yard end run by Bertschey, Carolina recovering the ball on a fumble on her own forty-five-yard line, and by a perfectly executed forward pass, Folger to Tennent, which netted thirty-five yards, and followed by a series of line plunges, pushed Tennent over for a touchdown.

In the fourth quarter, two twenty-yard runs by Folger and two after-a-yard runs by Tennent and Folger were responsible for the next two touchdowns. With two minutes to play and the ball in midfield, three forward passes, Coleman to Ramsey, for five yards, another for ten yards and one, Coleman to Love, for twenty yards, and Tennent's fifteen-yard-line plunge, carried the ball over for Carolina's last touchdown.

The broken field and longest runs of Bertschey and Leech were features for the Cadets. The whole team seemed fast on the ball. Folger's sweeping end runs, Tennent's line plunges, Tennent's and Ramsey's tackling and Tandy's work at center were the outstanding features of the game, offensively. Tandy kicked all five goals and one field goal. Folger's runs in the second half averaged thirteen yards. Tennent averaged about eight. Carolina made seventeen first downs; V. M. I. made nine. Fully 2,000 students and visitors attended the game.
