LOOKS LIKE FOUL PLAY.

A WIFE SUSPECTED OF POISONING HER HUSBAND.

The War Between the Two North Carolina Educators Breaks Out in a Fresh Place. An Affray in Henderson.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 19.—Special.—News is received here from Granville county of a sensational case coming to light. On the 6th of this month Ruffin T. Rycroft, doing budness at Wilkins, and living in Dutchville township, in that county, died very suddenly. There was a great deal of suspicious talk in the neighborhood.

A few days ago a coroner's jury was summoned and his body was disinterred and a post mortem examination was made. The stomach will be sent to Raleigh to be analyzed to see if there is any evidence of poison. There is suspicion of his being foully dealt with, and his wife is the suspected party. Rycroft, on the 29th of January, 1891, was married in Durham to Mrs. Berdie Oakley. He was seventy years old at that time, and his wife gave her age at fifty years.

News reaches here from Henderson of a sensational affray there to-day between Dr. C. S. Boyd and George P. Hart, in which pistols were used, but neither was fatally hurt.

The open war which has for some time been threatened between Colonel Eugene G. Harrel, editor of the North Carolina Teacher and secretary of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, and Professor Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial School for girls at Greensboro, has broken out in malignant form. McIver has published a card replying to the charges made by Colonel Harrel of misappropriation and mismanagement, and Colonel Harrel will to-morrow publish a reply, charging McIver with falsehood, and declaring that he has evidence to prove that he is totally unfit to be at the head of an institution for the girls of the State. The result of the fight is awaited with great interest, and it is the general opinion that the battle will be to the finish.

JUSTICE JOHN'S COURT.

Funston Cox Sent to a Jury for Stealing a Pair of Trousers.

His Honor was in the best of humors yesterday when the banker opened the game with his usual agility in dealing the cards. The Justice felt good over the fact that the big State Convention will come to Richmond, and give everybody a good chance to keep the political ball a-rolling. He is a staunch, bona fide, straightout and pronounced Democrat of the Jeffersonian type, and nothing pleases him better than to cross his legs languidly and peruse a well-written column of political news in one of the daily papers.

Judge East, the happy, smiling police justice of Norfolk, kept His Honor company during the proceedings. The genial judge from the seaside is endowed with a nature all bubbling over with fun, and he realized at once that he couldn't get in better company, and soon settled himself for a good time in the game. Judge East came up from Norfolk to use his influence in persuading the executive committee to vote for Norfolk as the place for the convention, but the inducements offered by the Richmond Democrats could not be resisted, and when the genial Judge failed in his purpose he sought consolation at the sanctum by witnessing the disappointed sinners as they anted up their respective fines.

Funston Cox (colored) came in on a charge of stealing a pair of pants from William Nash. Cox stated that he was at a gaming-house on Broad street between First and Second, where he carried a bundle and laid it on the counter. He played heavily, lost all his shekels, and in the excitement made a mistake and walked off with the wrong bundle. He then sold the pants to Dumps Twyman (colored). Dumps testified that Cox sold him the pants, and he pawned the goods, after losing all his lucre in a game of craps. William Nash, the owner of the trousers, stated that there was only one bundle in his establishment. The panis were found at Jacobs' pawn shop, as stated by Dumps. The latter was discharged, and Cox was sent to the hustings court.

George Earley and Mamie Crump (colored) paid the costs for contempt of court.

The ordinary jag cost Edward McLaughlin, George W. Earley, Mary D. Cavanaugh and Mamie Crump $2.50 each, and the court adjourned on a bob-tail flush.

LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.

An Interview With Chairman Patteson. He Opposes an Early Convention.

Mr. S. S. P. Patteson, chairman of the city Democratic committee, said yesterday that he had received no request from the members of the committee to call a meeting of the committee to consider the matter of an early convention, except from those who are themselves candidates. Said he, "all that I have seen was the newspaper mention. A great many people have been to me to oppose it, and I believe that two-thirds of the Democrats of Richmond are opposed to an early convention. Under the new appointment there are five delegates and one senator to be elected from Richmond, and one senator jointly between the city and Henrico county, making seven in all, and they will have to participate in the election before the Legislature of five judges of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals for a term of twelve years, the judges of the circuit court and hustings court for eight years, and two United States senators, one for a long term, and one for a short term.

The interests of every business man and citizen in Richmond is deeply involved, and they are concerned as deeply as it is possible for them to be in a constitutional way.

I am satisfied our people have not thought of the importance of the election, and that it is due to them to give them an opportunity to make their own selection in their own way.

If a candidate is strong now he should have greater strength in the fall.

I am of the opinion that the people as a general thing do not readily get acquainted with the candidates, and too frequently do not know them, or know who they are.

Since the State executive committee has fixed the date of the State convention on August 17th, nearly three months off, having considered from August 17th to November 7th ample time in which to canvass one hundred counties, I am of the opinion that Richmond can be canvassed successfully after the middle of October without endangering her 6,850 Democratic majority. Any gentlemen who might be nominated now for the Legislature from Richmond could take a trip around the world and spend one month in Calcutta, India, and have time, after getting home, to canvass the six wards of Richmond.

I think a late convention for the best interests of the party and the people.

According to the rules governing the city committee, the request to the president by five members only is necessary to have a meeting called.

Up to last evening Mr. Patteson had not received any petition of that character.

A Grave Error.

Cancers in the Neck

Terrible Choking Sensation

Mrs. James Baker
of Locust Valley, Long Island.

"Four years ago, while living in Trinidad, Colorado, a small lump appeared on my neck, which gradually swelled and developed into an intensely painful livid sore with a centre filled with granulations like shot. Another sore appeared an inch or two distant, and I had to give up and return to my parents in Brooklyn. Physicians pronounced them cancers and for their removal. I suffered a great deal before the operation, and far worse since. One of the cancers, the smaller one, healed over but was as sore as ever, while the other did not heal and was worse. The physicians told me I would have to submit to another operation, but

I said I would Die First

A similar lump a year ago came on the right side of my neck. For many months I could swallow only liquid or very soft food, and sometimes found great difficulty in speaking aloud. At the suggestion of a friend, I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the only thing I regret is that I did not take it years ago, and thus have prevented terrible suffering, for had I taken the medicine, I sincerely believe I should not have needed any operation at all. These sores are now, after taking two bottles, and, I am satisfied, permanently healed up. The lump on the right side of my neck has nearly all dried up, and no longer causes me any inconvenience. I can eat anything once more, and can use my voice as well as ever."

Completely Gone

TERRIBLY INCREASING.

The Authorities of the Board of Health Give Some Important Information About the Present Condition of the People.

At no time in the history of New York city have there been so many deaths from pneumonia as now. The official figures show that nearly twice as many deaths from this cause are occurring than for the last five years. This is something terrible.

Dr. John T. Nagle, Registrar of Vital Statistics, says that this increase is due to the influence of grip. He says that grip may be called epidemic just now, and that in the majority of cases grip is a vital, contributing cause to pneumonia and all dangerous pulmonary troubles. At this time of the year, when we are changing over from winter to spring, there is always a low order of vitality—a reaction from the strains of the season. The blood does not flow so full nor rapidly; the strength is less. For this reason grip has a much better chance than at any other season.

This is a time of year when people need to be careful, and too much importance cannot be placed upon keeping the blood warm and in circulation. You must bring about a reaction if you wish to avoid the pain and dangers of these troubles in time. There is but one way by which a reaction can be brought about, and that is by the use of a pure stimulant, preferably whisky. But the great difficulty is that there are few whiskies which are pure. The only really pure and reliable whisky known to the medical profession or the world is Duffy's Pure Malt. It possesses qualities known only to itself. It will bring about a reaction and prevent cold, pneumonia or the grip where many so-called stimulants would fail. It has saved more lives and relieved more suffering than anything of a similar nature which was ever known before to the world.
