PUBLIC STREETS OF MANCHESTER.

Council Committee Doing All in Their Power.

PERRY STREET CULVERT REPAIRS

Mr. Herbert C. Friend Thrown from His Horse and Injured—Revival Services at Central Methodist—Other News.

Manchester Bureau Richmond Times,
1112 Hull street, Beattie Block.

The Council Committee on Streets met in the City Engineer's office last night with Messrs. Morton, Hart, Green, Randolph and O'Brien present. City Engineer Lipscomb was also in attendance.

The matter of repairing the culvert at the corner of Seventh and Perry streets was exhaustively discussed. It was stated by the City Engineer that the railway company would bear half the expense.

With this understanding Capt. O'Brien moved that the situation at that point be relieved at once, and the motion prevailed.

The City Engineer submitted his report for the year.

The question of opening an alleyway between Fourteenth and Fifteenth from Semmes to McDonough streets was referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer for a report.

A general discussion on permanent street improvements was indulged in, and it developed that the entire committee were in sympathy with anything that tended to place the streets in good condition, and that all would be done along that line so far as the appropriations would permit.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Board of Health was to have met in called session last night, but owing to the inclement weather the attendance was kept down to the President, Dr. Lawrence Ingram, alone. The meeting will be held at a later date, to be stated by the president. The Board will meet in conjunction with the special Council committee to discuss the vaccination matter.

THROWN FROM HIS HORSE.

Mr. Herbert C. Friend, son of Dr. George W. Friend, and brother of Messrs. Charles E. and Wm. W. Friend, the prominent druggists of upper Hull street, was thrown from his horse while riding in from Gayton Monday morning, and his collar bone was fractured.

Mr. Friend resides in Newport News, and holds a responsible position with the Dry Dock Company. He is visiting his family in Manchester, and had been to see his sister, Mrs. D. A. Allen, at Gayton, and was returning when his horse shied and threw him.

The injury is not considered serious, but it will confine him to his room for several weeks. Dr. Friend is attending him.

CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH.

The revival services at Central Methodist church on Sunday were of a most interesting character. The pastor made an earnest appeal in the Sunday-school to the young to consecrate their hearts and lives to Christ. Eight of the scholars responded to this appeal.

At 11 A. M. Rev. R. T. Wilson, Presiding Elder, delivered an impressive sermon on "Being reconciled to God," to a large congregation.

The pastor, Rev. J. C. Reed, preached at night to a large congregation. The services last night were interrupted by the rain, though a good congregation was present. Services to-night and each night during the week.

PERSONAL AND NOTES.

Mrs. Willimena Fahr, of Richmond, is visiting her son, Mr. A. W. Fahr, No. 1311 Decatur street.

The Joint Committee on Vaccination will meet in the Council Chamber to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. R. J. Willingham, of Richmond, Va., will preach at Bainbridge-Street Baptist church to-night at 7:45. Full attendance desired.

An extra car was put on the Hull street line yesterday morning to run between the hours of 6 and 8 A. M., and 5 and 7 P. M.

Mrs. W. L. Sanderson, of 312 east Eleventh street, is quite ill.

Mr. John Moles continues ill at his home on Twelfth street, near Perry.

Rev. S. U. Grimsley, of Richmond, will preach at Clopton-Street Baptist church next Sunday morning and night.

Mrs. Charles L. Pettit, who was recently operated on, is now convalescing.

Mrs. P. C. Warrick, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

The little daughter of Captain Augustus T. Atwell, of west Twelfth street, is quite ill.

MUSIC FESTIVAL.

The Wednesday Club Supplies Information as to the Concerts.

The Wednesday Club of this city has issued an attractive pamphlet in the interest of its sixth annual music festival which is to occur at the Academy of Music beginning April 21st with three performances, including a matinee of the children's chorus, which proved such an attractive feature last year.

The following information about the coming festival is given:

The Wednesday Club, 150 voices.

The Children's Chorus, 275 voices.

The Boston Festival Orchestra, forty-five pieces. Assisted by the following solo artists:

Mrs. Sara Anderson, soprano; Miss Anna Lohbiler, soprano; Miss Gertrude May Stein, alto; Miss Blanche Towle, alto; Signor Campanari, baritone; Mr. Evan Williams, tenor; Mr. Clarence Shirley, tenor; Mr. Myron Whitney, Jr., basso.

It is safe to say that the Wednesday Club has never heretofore provided three such rare programmes and excellent corps of artists as this season's will prove to be.

The works to be rendered are Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" Coleridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," and Stanford's "God Is Our Hope and Strength" (xlvi. Psalm), by the Wednesday Club, solo artists and full orchestra.

At the Saturday matinee the Children's Chorus will render Adelaide Proctor's "Legend of Bregenz" (music by Bendall), a beautiful three part harmony cantata, and other shorter choruses, accompanied by the orchestra and solo artists—making that programme most attractive. In addition to the above works, the soloists will be heard in select numbers on each programme.

The box office at the Academy will be open (for subscribing members only), on Tuesday, April 18th, from 2 until 6:30 P. M., and for subscribers for single concerts, on Wednesday, April 19th, from 2 until 6:30 P. M.

Reserved seats will be on sale to the public generally, at the Academy every day, commencing Thursday, April 20th, from 9 A. M. to 6:30 P. M.

For additional particulars inquire of any of the members of the Executive Committee, members of the Wednesday Club, or of the officers and special committee, Arthur Scrivenor, director; Walter C. Mercer, assistant director; H. T. Meloney, president; W. R. Miller, secretary; J. G. Hankins, treasurer.

AFRAID OF SMALLPOX.

Compulsory Vaccination in Fredericksburg Schools—Peculiar Death.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 28.—Special.—As a precautionary measure the City Council has ordered all the children of the public schools to be vaccinated and the authorities of Fredericksburg College make the same requirements of the pupils of that institution.

Mrs. W. G. Brown, of Philadelphia, has donated sixty bound volumes of Harper's Magazine to the public library of this city.

Mrs. G. W. Shepherd and Mr. G. W. Shepherd, Jr., of this city, attended the funeral in Norfolk of Major Charles Pickett, who was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Shepherd.

Rev. Father DeMaynck, of St. Mary's Catholic church here, who has been undergoing treatment for some time at the Old Dominion Hospital in Richmond, is improving rapidly.

Mr. Oscar Todd, a prominent citizen of this county, is extremely ill.

The wife of Ephraim Mills (colored), aged fifty years, fainted while being vaccinated this evening and died in a few minutes.

MARRIED IN WILLIAMSBURG.

Mr. Morris and Miss Stotts Surprise Their Friends—Quarantine Raised.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., March 28.—Special.—Mr. W. M. Morris and Miss Lulu Stotts were quietly married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stotts, Sunday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Boyles, of the Baptist church. The marriage was kept a secret until last night, when the news leaked out.

Commonwealth's Attorney C. A. Branch is still a very sick man, and his condition is giving his friends much alarm.

The smallpox situation in the counties of James city and York is much improved. The quarantine has been raised on the house in West Williamsburg, York county, all the patients having fully recovered.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME.

A New Kent Farmer Returns to the Banks of the Pamunkey.

OAK, VA., March 26.—Special.—Some of the people in this section still have the Newport News fever. Mr. Eddie Boteler has leased his farm for two years and moved to Newport News, where he thinks he will not have to work so hard and make a much better living than he did here. Miss Ella Mills has accepted a position there also.

Mr. F. T. Richards and family, who moved to Newport News January 1st has returned to their home, having concluded that there is no place like "River View," their beautiful farm on the Pamunkey river.

In consequence of so much rain the farmers are a long ways behind with their work. It is predicted that crops will be much later than usual.

A Nansemond Fire.

SUFFOLK, VA., March 28.—Special.—A dwelling owned by Nansemond county and occupied by Superintendent W. H. Holland, of the County Almshouse, eight miles from Suffolk, was burned last night together with practically all the contents. The paupers' dormitory was not inured. Loss, $1,800; insurance, $800.
