AMERICAN MARK FOR MILE AND THREE QUARTERS BROKEN

ROCKMINSTER COVERS DISTANCE IN 2:55 3-5

Takes Latonia Championship From Eastern Entrants in Record Time.

COMES FROM BEHIND

Enters Stretch With Great Burst of Speed and Flashes Under Wire Length Ahead of Field.

[By Associated Press.]

LATONIA, KY., Oct. 21.—The West triumphed over the East when Rockminster won the Latonia championship stakes worth $35,000 over a distance of a mile and three-quarters at Latonia today. Lucky Hour was second, and Surf Rider third.

The time, 2:55 3-5, clipped four-fifths of a second from the American record, and was one and one-fifth seconds better than that made by Cleopatra in 1920, the best previous time for the race.

The winner's share of the purse was $24,080.

Lucky Hour set the early pace, leading Chatterton by two lengths to the first half, with Bunting in third position. At the clubhouse turn, Lucky Hour was leading by three lengths, and Chatterton was a length in front of Rockminister. At the mile and a quarter, Lucky Hour continued to lead, with Bunting second, three lengths in front of Rockminister. Lucky Hour was one length ahead of Rockminister at the mile and a half post with Bunting third, three lengths back.

Coming into the stretch, Rockminister forged to the front and won by half a length from Lucky Hour. Surf Rider came fast down to the wire to capture third money.

Johnny Dobbs, manager of the New Orleans Pelicans since 1914, has quit after a wordy scrap and signed to manage the Memphis Chicks next season.

Girls' Rifle Team Seeks Intercollegiate Matches

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 21.—Girls' rifle teams on an intercollegiate basis are among the season's novelties in the sporting world. Down in Knoxville, the home of the University of Tennessee, the co-eds have organized a rifle team under the direction of the army officers detailed there for the R. O. T. C. unit in the men's branch of the university, and have sent challenges broadcast. Rutgers received one here this week but declined for the very good reason that Rutgers has no girl students.

PRINCETON PUTS OUT RARE FOOTBALL TO WIN

University of Maryland Is Carried Through to 26-to-0 Defeat.

[By Universal Service.]

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 21.—With the Tigers displaying rare football in spurts, Princeton carried Maryland through a 26-to-0 defeat at the stadium today.

Jack Cleaves, Watson Crum and Howie Gray, each accounted for a touchdown, while Baker kicked two goals for the Tigers. In three spectacular line plays Crum carried the ball over forty yards. His was the feature work of the day.

Soon after the start of the game Cleaves tore across the field for a thirty-yard run, bringing the ball into position for a drop kick, which Baker fizzled. Later he again thrilled the spectators with a buffeting of forty-five yards for a touchdown.

Though unable to penetrate an inch through the Tiger phalanx, Maryland did some pretty punting. Groves' and McQuade's work along this line was the feature of the midship's attack.

DAVIDSON SURPRISES VIRGINIA TECH ELEVEN

Light Tarheel Team Holds Heavy Virginians to 7-to-7 Tie Score.

PENALTIES PROVE COSTLY

Blacksburg Boys and Wildcats Both Suffer—Presbyterians' Score Due to Laird's Run of Seventy-Five Yards.

[By Associated Press.]

DAVIDSON, N. C., Oct. 21—Fighting to uphold the tradition of never losing a game on their own field, the Davidson College Wildcats came from behind and, outweighed ten pounds to the man, held the heavier V. P. I. eleven to a 7-7 tie today in the most thrilling and hardest fought grid battle seen here in years.

Doped to lose by three touchdowns, the Wildcats gave the football world one of the most astounding upsets of the season by presenting an almost impregnable defense to the team that last week almost beat Centre. The game abounded in thrilling plays, end runs, fakes and passes keeping the spectators on edge throughout. After Virginia Tech, by a series of line bucks, had rushed the pigskin to the Red and Black three-yard line at the close of the first quarter, they opened the second period with a touchdown. From the following kick-off to the end of the half, the Wildcats showed a complete reversal of form and played the Gobblers off their feet the entire period.

In the prettiest run of the game, Hendrix, Davidson quarter, returned the following kick-off fifty yards with practically no interference.

For five minutes the ball swayed back and forth in midfield, when Red Laird intercepted a Gobbler pass and dashed seventy-five yards for the Wildcats' touchdown.

Tech's penalties proved her undoing. In the second quater, Davis, Davidson end, caught a pass and carried it over the last chalked line, but the referee called him out of bounds on the two-foot line, where the ball was given to Tech, who kicked out of danger.

Davidson's place kick for point after goal was lucked, the ball striking a Virginia m[illegible] and bouncing over the post, tieing the score.

Both sides intercepted five passes, but were successful with many more. Rip Wallace and Pasco Gettle, of Tech, time and time again made the Davidson line look sick by their plunging, but the thin red line always tightened when endangered.

Line-up and summary:

Davidson.	Position.	V. P. I.
C. Davis	left end	Hardwick
Clark	left tackle	Tilson
Brice	center	Baker
S. Davis	right guard	Shepertz

CORNELL HAS TROUBLE DEFEATING COLGATE

[By Universal Service.]

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 21.—In a hard-fought game that kept the spectators on their toes until the final whistle, Cornell defeated Colgate, 14 to 0, today. The first touchdown was scored in the first period, when a poor punt by Sanford gave the Ithacans a chance to strike from Colgate's ten-yard line, and the latter soon carried the ball over.

A series of powerful line smashes from her own twenty-yard line, in which Ramsey starred, brought in the other tally.

Dinwiddie Victorious.

DINWIDDIE, VA., Oct. 21.—Dinwiddie Agriculture High School defeated the Darvels High School in a baseball game at Era, 6 to 0, to decide the school championship for this season.

PRINCIPALS IN MAIN ATTRACTION ON BOXING CARD TUESDAY NIGHT

JOE DUNDEE.

ANDY TUCKER.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE FOR NEXT BOXING MATCHES

Church Hill Athletic Club's Monthly Entertainment at Strand Theater on Tuesday Night—Fighters Arrive Here Tomorrow.

Andy Tucker, the sensational New York lightweight, who is to meet Joe Dundee, of Baltimore, at the Strand Theater Tuesday night, in the main bout of ten rounds, met and defeated Artie Pierce, at Madison Square Garden Friday night, in one of the preliminaries to the White-Marks bout, in which White knocked out Marks in the second round. Pierce was the amateur lightweight champion of New York and just recently entered the professional ranks, and the defeat by Tucker was his first since starting out as a professional.

Tucker and Attell, his manager, will arrive in Richmond tomorrow morning and will rest up during the day and will go through a light workout at the C. H. A. A. Monday night about 8 o'clock.

Max Waxman, manager of Dempsey and Dundee, announces that his men are both in good condition and will be ready to put up the scrap of their lives. Dempsey will arrive in the city Monday and will do a little light work at the C. H. A. A. field Monday night, and Dundee and Waxman will arrive Tuesday morning, while Lawrence is expected to arrive Monday night.

Special seats will be placed on the stage which will be reserved for members who have taken out a contributing membership for one year, and no one else will be allowed on the stage.

Herbert Cole and "Rusk" Stone both say they will be in good shape for their six-round battle, and these boys will probably stage the best preliminary seen here for some time. There will also be another six-round preliminary between local boxers.

Membership cards are at the largest cigar stores and billiard parlors in the center of the city, where old members can secure them and new members can secure membership applications.

BRITISH GOLFERS SAIL FOR HOME WITH HONORS

[By Associated Press.]

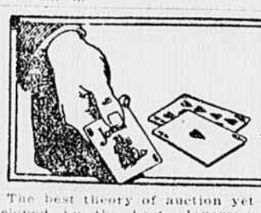
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, noted British golf professionals, sailed for home today after an extensive tour of the United States.

The British pair won forty matches, lost ten and tied two during their invasion. Mitchell's eighteen-hole average for 102 rounds was 72.7 strokes and Duncan's 72.

Duncan won the Western New York open title, leading Walter Hagen by five strokes, while Mitchell defeated Leo Diegel in the play-off of a tie for the Southern open championship. The Southern Golf Association, however, refused to officially recognize the Briton's victory, on the ground that three extra holes of play needed to break a second tie between Diegel and Mitchell at the end of the play-off, were not authorized.

Duncan finished sixth in the national game at Skokie, with a score of 296, while Mitchell, with 303, failed to land among the money winners.

Easy Lessons in Auction Bridge



Copyright 1922 by Hoyle, Jr.

The best theory of auction yet developed by the best players is to give exact information whenever possible. With this idea in view they have restricted all bids to one meaning. This is particularly true of the original suit bid. Rather than deceive partner as to the character of their hand, they prefer to pass and await another chance to bid. An original suit bid by first or second hand always conveys the information either that the bidder has two quick tricks in the suit bid or else one quick trick in that suit and one in an outside suit. The requirements, therefore, for an original suit bid by first or second hand, are: first, a five card suit; second, with two quick tricks, such as A K, K Q J, or A Q J, in the suit bid; or, third, one quick trick in the suit bid, such as ace, or K Q, and an outside quick trick, such as an ace or K Q.

With such factors, the hand is worth at least four tricks with suit bid as trump. With the three requirements above noted kept in mind, the following hands illustrate the principles involved:

Hearts—10, 9.
Clubs—A, K, 7, 6, 2, (2 quick tricks).
Diamonds—4, 3.
Spades—8, 7, 6, 2.

Hearts—K, Q, J, 7, 6, (2 quick tricks).
Clubs—4, 3.
Diamonds—7, 6, 5.
Spades—J, 4, 3.

Hearts—10, 7.
Clubs—J, 3, 2.
Diamonds—7, 6, 2.
Spades—A, Q, J, 4, 2, (2 quick tricks).

Hearts—A, 3, 2, (1 quick trick).
Clubs—4, 6, 2.
Diamonds—K, Q, 9, 7, 6, (1 quick trick).
Spades—10, 8.

Hearts—4, 6, 2.
Clubs—K, Q, 4, 2, (1 quick trick).
Diamonds—6.
Spades—K, Q, 4, 3, 2, (1 quick trick).

Hearts—A, Q, 10, 7, 6, (1 1-2 tricks).
Clubs—10, 9, 8.
Diamonds—J, 7, 6.
Spades—K, 8, (1-2 quick trick).

Hearts—A, 10, 7, 6, 2, (1 quick trick).
Clubs—J, 7, 6.
Diamonds—A, 4, 2, (1 quick trick).
Spades—J, 4.

The last hand should not be bid. The requirement as to two quick tricks is present but the suit is too weak. This is a border-line hand and no suit as weak as this heart should be bid, unless holding more than one outside trick.

Certain four card suits may be bid, such as A, K, Q, 4, or K, Q, J, 10, without any outside tricks. Suits such as A K 4 2, K Q J 6, or A Q J 8 should not be bid without at least an outside trick preferably an ace. Four card suits may also be bid if hand contains a strong secondary bid, that is, a suit that can be bid on the second round of bidding. For example:

Hearts—10, 9.
Clubs—A, K, 7, 6.
Diamonds—7.
Spades—K, J, 10, 9, 8, 7.

With this type of hand it is much better to bid the club as the original bid, and bid the spade on the second round. If the bidder holds two four card suits, each headed by A, K, the better bid is a no trump. The hand is too strong for a suit bid of one. Please note that all of the above refers only to original suit bids by first or second hand.

YALE GIVEN WORK-OUT BY WILLIAMS ELEVEN

Blue Registers Rather Easily, 38 to 0, and Wins Over Plucky Visiting Team.

[By Universal Service.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 21.—Yale did not have to extend herself much in downing the Williams eleven this afternoon for a 38-to-0 victory, scoring five touchdowns and one field goal. Captain Jordan accounted for two touchdowns, which were put over in sweeping runs, the first from the ten-yard line and the second from the eight-yard line.

The only threatening moment of the game for Yale was when the Violet aggregation tried to put through a strong forward pass play which came near ending in a tally near the last quarter's close. Chandler raced fifty-one yards to the Yale six-yard line, where he was brought down from the rear by Hart, one of the Blue's substitute ends.

A forty-two-yard run back of a punt by Neidlinger put Yale in position for its first score, and the second score came as the result of a march down the field from Williams' forty-six-yard line. Neidlinger was responsible for another touchdown after he had smashed through on a thirty-six-yard run.

Entries for the long-distance run, received so far, include Earl Johnson, of Pittsburgh, present title holder; Fred Faller and Jimmie Hilligan, of Boston; Ilmar Prim, Willie Ritola and Frank Zuna, of the metropolitan district.

MARSHALLITES WIN FROM FORK UNION

John Marshall High School meted out an unexpected defeat to Fork Union Military Academy yesterday afternoon by holding the speedy Cadets to a single score on their own field, the final score being 13 to 7. The game was quite a battle, but John Marshall was never in danger, except for the first few minutes of play, when the Cadets made a nifty touchdown.

After the first quarter it was all smooth sailing for the Marshallites, who showed their power by securing nine first downs and completing four out of five of the forward passes they attempted. On two occasions these passes carried the ball over the line for touchdowns.

Captain Dudley, of John Marshall, was a complete puzzle to the Cadets, his defensive work being the major reason why Fork Union's assaults on the Blue and White line had no effect. Quarterback Brasseur played best for the Cadets.

The Marshallites had wonderful success with their passing, as all except one went for gains. Fork Union, however, showed a miserable weakness in aerial attacks, completing only one out of four attempts. John Marshall's last score showed that the Fork Union line was not what it was expected to be, as the Blue and White players carried the ball through it and beat it back from midfield for a touchdown.

COMPLETE FINANCING OF WOMEN'S CLUB

[By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Financing of the new Women's National Golf and Tennis Club, at Glen Head, Long Island, is nearly completed, it was said today, and construction work is expected to begin early next year.

Miss Marion Hollins, of East Islip, Long Island, former national women's amateur golf champion, is one of the leaders in the new organization, launched as the result of a demand for a course which will afford an ideal test for women devotees of the royal and ancient game. Women in many cities of the country, outside of the metropolitan area, are interested in the project.

The proposed links, besides marking a new development in golf facilities, will be especially adapted to holding women's championships.

"HENRY FORD" TRIMS CANADIAN SCHOONER

Race Declared "No Contest" Because Both Contestants Made Premature Starts.

[By Associated Press.]

GLOUCESTER, MASS., Oct. 21.—The finishing schooner Henry Ford, challenging in behalf of the American fishing fleets, with Secretary of the Navy Denby aboard, beat the Blue Nose, of Canada, International champion, by two miles today in a forty-mile race. Because both the fishermen, out for sport, refused to return after a premature start, the International sailing committee declared it no contest.

As a result, Captain Clayton Morrissey, of the Henry Ford, and his crew tonight declared their intention of putting dories aboard and going back to the banks to fish, quitting the races. Captain Angus Walters, of the Blue Nose, was outspoken in private and to crowds in his assertion that it was a "fair race, and for the Henry Ford a fair victory."

"No official race on account of both of the contestants having made false starts."

This statement, subscribed to by five members of the International committee, will stand as the formal record of the contest in the 1922 series for the Halifax Herald cup.
