VERMONT TRANSCRIPT.

ST. ALBANS.

Friday, April 8, 1864.

—Our paper is issued in advance of our regular publication day on account of the State Fast.

—We regret to learn that the scarlet fever and measles have made their unwelcome appearance in St. Albans and vicinity.

—The assistant post-master notifies us that the number of letters mailed at St. Albans Post office, for the quarter ending March 31st, 1864, was 24,700; being an increase per quarter of between two and three thousand letters.

—Mr. Bullard of Swanton, who purchased several months ago the dwelling house now occupied by Mr. Alfred H. Huntington, has leased it for a year to Messrs. Lorenzo Janes and Marshall Mason.

—The weather for several days past has been very balmy and spring-like and too warm for the convenience and benefit of sugar-makers.

—The Rev. Dr. Fay, Superintendent of schools for St. Albans, gives notice that the public examination of teachers required by law, will be held at the Academy in St. Albans, on Saturday, April 16, 1864, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

—An inspecting officer will be stationed at St. Albans, to inspect such cavalry horses as may be offered agreeably to Messrs. Barlow & Goodell's advertisement in another column. This inspection at St. Albans will be a great convenience to sellers in this vicinity, and parties having cavalry horses for sale need no advice to dispose of them before the government contract is fully supplied.

—The next term of the Franklin County Court will begin at St. Albans April 12th 1864—Hon. Asa Owen Aldis Presiding Judge and Hon. R. H. Hoyt and Hon. R. T. Bingham, Assistant Judges. There are sixty-three cases manated for trial on the Jury Calendar and twenty-nine cases set for trial by the court. Ten days are assigned for the trials by jury—after which the court cases will be disposed of.

Wool Growers' Convention.—A Convention of Wool-growers in Franklin County was holden at the Court House April 6th, agreeably to previous notice—Hon. Lawrence Brainerd presided, aided by several Vice Presidents, and E. B. Whiting, Esq., acted as Secretary.

Messrs. B. Barlow, A. M. Clark, W. Teachout and H. Lewis were elected to memorialize Congress in regard to an increase of duty on Wool.

Forcible remarks were made by Messrs. Barlow and Clark favoring an increase of duty, and so preventing the free importation of large quantities of foreign wool.

These steps on the part of the wool-growers seem opportune and we trust may be beneficial to a very important branch of domestic industry.

—We have been requested to announce that Miss Edmunds of Boston will, by special request, read at Academy Hall, on Friday evening April 8th, at 7 1-2 o'clock—Tickets 25 cents.

—Hon. A. O. Aldis and family have returned to St Albans. We regret to learn that the Judge has been somewhat indisposed during his recent sojourn in Boston, where his family have been stopping for a number of months, on account of ill health.

—The Winthrop House, Boston, was burnt April 6th, with the Free Masons Hall, valued at over $150,000. The fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

—The Metropolitan Sanitary Fair in New York, opened on Monday last in great style, and promises to be a great success.

—Charles W. Rich, Esq., of Swanton, has in use a new patent hay press which is named the "Mormon Beater" and compresses hay more firmly than those in common use.

—The Rev. Charles Fay, D. D., is temporarily supplying the pulpit at Calvary church, East Berkshire, on alternate Sundays.

—Dolphus Dewing, Esq., whose sudden death of disease of the heart at East Franklin, we noticed last week, was a native of Woodstock, Conn., where he was born, April 2d, 1794. He has been a resident of Sheldon and Franklin for about sixty years.

—Instead of a ferry-boat plying regularly between Burlington and Plattsburgh, the Free Press says that the boats of the Champlain Transportation Company are still ice-locked in the harbor at Burlington; and at last accounts the ice was about 20 inches thick in Plattsburgh Bay.

—Certain newspapers are discussing with severity the mock wedding, of which a report will be found on the outside of to-day's paper. It may have been in questionable taste.

—Capt. Robert Bailey of Plattsburgh has been appointed cashier of the Iron Bank, vice Hiram Walworth, Esq., who is now cashier of the first National bank of Plattsburgh.

—Mr. Levi O. Corliss of Franklin, lost his dwelling-house by fire, March 29th, with nearly all of his household furniture. As there was no insurance, the loss is great.

—Rev. Benjamin B. Newton, late of St. Albans and now of New York city, who was for many years a Congregationalist clergymen in Plattsburgh and Chelsea, has recently joined the communion of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

—Capt. Stephen F. Brown continues for the present to superintend in this vicinity the matter of recruiting for the 17th Vt. Regiment.

Personal.—A biographical sketch of the Rev. Daniel Warren, who was pastor of the Congregational society in Bakersfield, from 1846 to 1855, appears in a recent number of the Vermont Record.

It is from the ready pen of the Rev. P. H. White, of Coventry. Mr. Warren died at Lowell, Vt., January 29, 1864, of typhoid pneumonia. He married for his second wife Miss Hannah L. B. Scott, of Fairfax, Vt.

—Walton's Journal says Col. Randall has made application to the War Department, with a fair prospect of success, to have the 17th Regiment, now nearly full, assigned to the division of mounted infantry about to be raised by Gen. Grant's order.

—We notice in the Frederick, Md., Examiner, that proposals for "forage," "sales of Condemned government horses," &c., are signed by Samuel K. Platt, Capt. and A. Q. M. in the U. S. army. Capt. P. was formerly a resident of St. Albans, and for many years clerk of the Q. M. at Plattsburgh barracks.

—Rev. Pliny H. White gives in the Vermont Record a list of more than fifty sons of Vermont ministers who are or have been in the Union army, of those in this vicinity we remark the names of Solon W. and George Woodward of Westford, George P. Ranslow, of Milton, Edward W. Smith, John W. Newton, of St. Albans, and H. O. Wheeler of South Hero.

—Assistant Surgeon Edson of the 1st Vermont Cavalry has been appointed surgeon of the 17th Vermont regiment, and will soon be in Burlington for duty. The Free Press says that he is "much more than commonly skillful, spirited and popular."

—George G. Benedict, Esq., will read his excellent paper descriptive of the battle of Gettysburgh at Academy Hall, St. Albans, on Tuesday evening, April 12th. Admission fee 25 cents—proceeds to be applied for aid of sick and wounded soldiers.

—Chittenden County Court is in session, Hon. John Pierpoint, presiding Judge, and Hon. Andrew Warner, and Hon. Lyman Hall, assistant Judges. The Jury calendar contains 47 cases—but few of which the Times says are set down for trial.

—Colton & Porter, Roe & Hitchcock, agents of the Methodist book concern, at New York and Cincinnati, will publish a daily paper at Philadelphia during the session of the General Conference, commencing May 1, 1864.

CONGRESS.

Declaration as to Mexico.

In the House on Monday, Mr. Davis of Maryland, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported the following joint resolution:

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States are unwilling by silence to leave the world under the impression that they are indifferent spectators of the deplorable events now transpiring in the Republic of Mexico. Therefore, they think it fit to declare that it does not accord with the people of the United States to acknowledge a monarchical government erected on the ruins of any republican government in America under the auspices of any European power.

Mr. Brooks, of New York, had no objection to the resolution if it was not a mere brutum fulmen.

Mr Davis replied: that would depend whether Congress would adopt the resolution and in so doing represent the opinion of the people of the United States.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, would vote for the resolution, but would prefer stronger and more emphatic language against foreign intervention in affairs on this continent.

Mr. Davis did not know how it could be more emphatic. They desired to say without mistake that a monarchical government on this continent will not be recognized under the auspices of Louis Napoleon. Let the consequences in the future take care of themselves.

The resolution was unanimously adopted; yeas 109, nays none.

How's Your Quota?—Perley, Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, gives a humorous description of the futile attempts to ascertain about quotas, and comes to this practical conclusion:—

Alderman Clapp's friend, Slocum Jenks of Muddleville, is not more befogged than are some of us here, who have undertaken to keep anxious inquirers "posted" as to their account current at the provost-marshal general's. The grand total is: "Keep recruiting, recruit early and late, recruit often. Don't have any constitutional scruples as to the color of your recruits, and get as many recruits as you can."

FOREIGN NEWS.

We have four days later news from Europe. No further battles had taken place in Schleswig or Jutland. The Allies had abandoned the siege of Frederica. The bombardment of Duppel was kept up without much apparent effect. The reports of the acceptance of the conference propositions by Denmark and by the German powers were both re-affirmed, and denied by different authorities. The opposition candidates in Paris were elected by large majorities. Mr. Slidell had been refused an audience by the Archduke Maximilian. Garibaldi was on his way to England, where he would have a grand reception. Lord Ashburton died on the 23d of March. Four new steel blockade runners were reported ready to leave Liverpool. The pirate Florida touched at Teneriffe on the 4th ult. Cotton was dull. Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged.

A Large Judgment Paid.—The claim of Col. L. D. Brock, of Plattsburgh, against the Estate of Dr. Barnes of Grand Isle, Vt., for professional services, which has been in litigation, and very sharply contested, for three years past, was lately brought to a finale by Dr. M. A. Barnes, the Executor of Dr. Barnes, deceased, paying to Smith M. Weed, Esq., of this village, the amount of the judgement, about $5000.00.

This case has excited a great deal of interest in Plattsburgh, has been twice tried before the Referees, argued several times at special term, and twice at the general term of the Supreme Court. —Plattsburgh Republican.

A Tall Opinion.—A sturdy farmer from Oskaloosa, Iowa, one of the bone and sinew class, called upon us yesterday in relation to business matters. Before leaving, we asked him how Mr. Lincoln stood in Iowa. "Stands," said the old farmer, with glistening eyes, and raising his brawny fist; "Old Abe stands seventeen feet higher in Iowa than any other man in the United States." The homely reply had a world of force and truth in it.—Chicago Tribune.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT:

Office of Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, Feb. 20, 1864.

Whereas, By satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that the First National Bank of St. Albans, in the County of Franklin, and State of Vermont, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States Stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved Feb. 25, 1863, and has complied with all the provisions of said act required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking.

Now, therefore, I, Hugh McCulloch, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the First National Bank of St. Albans, County of Franklin, and State of Vermont, is authorized to commence the business of Banking under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and seal of Office this 20th day of February, 1864.

[L.S.] Signed, HUGH McCULLOCH,

1 Comptroller of the Currency.

THE UNITED STATES CHRISTIAN COMMISSION would inform the patriotic, the philanthropic and Christian men and women of the country, of its work and its wants.

It cares for the body and the soul, as did Christ when on earth. By its delegates, who go without pay and from love, hospital stores, home comforts and reading matter are given directly to those who need them, together with such personal ministrations and religious instruction as each case may require—and the Gospel is preached at every opportunity.

In the hospitals, on the battle-fields, and in the camps of the strong and brave, the delegates are welcomed by surgeons, officers and men, and their labors have, in the judgment of those well-informed, saved thousands of lives, and been blessed to the conversion of thousands of souls, besides raising the morals of the army and strengthening the links that bind the soldier to his home.

It has the confidence of the Government and all the facilities from it that military exigencies will allow.

Its affairs are managed by business men who give their services. Railroads and telegrams are free to it; the Bible Society gives its publications, but religious reading matter must be purchased, and the demand is far beyond the ability of the Commission to meet it.

The wants of the Commission are now to go as delegates; stores to be distributed by them—money to purchase reading matter.

The aim is to have no large balance in the Treasury, but to do at all times what the current contributions shall allow, there being no extensive and complicated system of agencies that a change would seriously affect.

Money and Stores may be sent to George H. Stuart, 11 Bank Street, Philadelphia.

In New England, money may be sent to Joseph Story, 112 Tremont Street; Stores to D. P. Rowland, 5 Tremont Temple; Letters to Charles Demond, 4 Court Street, all in Boston.
