St. Albans, April 8, 1864. 5-tf.

—The amount of butter shipped from the depot at St. Albans for the week ending May 31st, 1864, was 99,779 pounds; amount for the week ending June 7th, 1864, was 86,758 pounds; total, in the two weeks, one hundred and eighty-six thousand, six hundred and thirty-seven pounds. For the foregoing official statement we are indebted to the courtesy of Mr. G. T. Benedict, clerk at the St. Albans depot, whose statement was carefully prepared and can be relied upon.

—A beautiful stained glass window has recently been added to the decorations of St. Luke's church, St. Albans. It is a memorial window, erected in memory of Mary Frances and Miranda Metcalf Aldis, beloved daughters of the Hon. Asa Owen Aldis and Mrs. Mary T. Aldis. It is admirably designed and executed by Mr. Owen Doremus, Mont Clair, Essex county, N. J.

—The annual meeting of the Franklin County Sunday School Union, will be held at Swanton on Tuesday and Wednesday next, 14th and 15th inst. The object of the Union is to increase the interest in Sunday Schools, uniting the efforts of its friends to devise the best method of rendering them productive of the greatest good. All friends of Sunday Schools are cordially invited to attend this meeting, and by their presence and words encourage and help on the good work.

—Capt. Alonzo R. Hurlbut, of Co. A, 5th Vermont, went out with his company from St. Albans in September, 1861, as First Lieutenant, his commission bearing date Sept. 3, 1861. He was promoted to the Captaincy of Co. A, in June 1862, and stood high among his brother officers and was greatly beloved by his men.

News has been received by telegraph that he can not long survive. The amputation of his leg was too long delayed, and his life has probably already been the forfeit. Capt. Hurlbut is a native of St. Albans, and during his clerkship in St. Albans village, with Mr. George H. Farrar, gained many acquaintances and friends.

—We regret to learn that the health of Hon. Jeptha Bradley, State Auditor, continues very poor and that his recovery is considered by his physican well nigh hopeless.

—We trust there is no necessity for reminding our readers that there is to be a Town Meeting on Tuesday next to consider bounty matters.

—We understand that Bishop Hopkins has been engaged to supply the pulpit of the Episcopal church in Shelton every other Sunday until the constant services of some clergyman can be secured.

—The Rev. Frederick A. Wadleigh of Arlington, is about to assume charge of the Episcopal parishes at Montgomery and East Berkshire.

—The courts in Addison, Bennington and Caledonia Counties, are now in session, the terms having commenced June 8th. Judge Aldis presides in Caledonia County.

—W. H. Loveland, Captain of an Illinois Regiment, was wounded in the battle of the Wilderness and died on the 31st May at Alexandria. He was a son of Mr. Martin Loveland of Fairfax, and a good officer and a brave man. His remains will be brought to Fairfax for interment.

MASONIC.—The Festival of St. John the Baptist will be celebrated by Masonic Union Lodge, at South Troy, Orleans County, Vt., on Friday, June 24. An address will be delivered by Henry Clark, Esq., of Poultney.

☞ At a hearing in Chancery at Rutland last Saturday, an interlocutory order was made, permitting the resignation of Hon. John W. Stewart, of Middlebury, as one of the trustees of the Rutland and Burlington Railroad.

☞ By special orders from the war department, the draft rendezvous at Brattleboro has been broken up, and the officers and men there are ordered to the camp at New Haven, Ct. So Grapevine Point becomes the general rendezvous for all recruits enlisted in the States of Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

WAR NEWS.

[As a matter of convenience and interest to the readers of the TRANSCRIPT, we continue to republish the official war bulletins of Secretary Stanton—giving them in their chronological order. They present in the briefest mode attainable the narrative of the several military successes or reverses as they occur in the progress of the war. They are addressed by telegraph to Major General Dix, and are printed in the New York papers and are telegraphed thence all over the country to satisfy the reasonable anxiety and curiosity of the American people.

It is understood that they are prepared by Hon. Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War, well known throughout the country as an able and reliable journalist and as one of the editors of the "New American Cyclopedia" lately published by D. Appleton & Co., New York.]

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 2,—9.30 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Gen. Grant dated this morning, June 2, at Bethesda Church, 7 a. m., has just been received. It states that yesterday afternoon an attack was ordered to be made on our left at Coal Harbor by the 6th corps, the troops under Smith, Warren, Burnside and Hancock being held in readiness to advance in their respective fronts.

The attack was made with spirit about 5 p. m., continuing until after dark, resulting in our carrying the enemy's works on the right of the 6th corps, where we still hold them, and also the first line in the front of Smith. The latter, however, were commanded by another line in the rear, which made those carried untenable.

The enemy made repeated assaults on each of the corps not engaged in the main assault, but were repulsed with loss in every instance. Several hundred prisoners were taken, but I cannot say what number, nor estimate either our own nor the enemy's casualties. During the night the enemy made several assaults to regain what they had lost, but failed.

JUNE 2—12.15 p. m.

A dispatch from Gen. Grant's headquarters, dated yesterday, June 1st, at 10 a. m., has been received by this department. It states that about 5 p. m. Tuesday, May 31st, Gen. Sheridan, perceiving a force of rebel cavalry at Coal Harbor, which proved to be Fitz Hugh Lee's division, attacked and after a hard fight routed it, together with Clingman's brigade of infantry which came to its support. Sheridan remained in possession of the place. He reported at dark that he had a considerable number of prisoners and that there were many rebel dead and wounded on the field. He was ordered to hold the position, and at 10 p. m., the 6th corps set out to occupy it. We have not yet heard from Wright or Gen. Sheridan this morning, and do not know whether the former got his troops to their destination. Smith must be close upon Wright's column.

This morning the enemy are also moving a heavy column in the same direction. The order has just gone to Warren to fall upon their flank. Wilson had a fight last evening near Hanover Court House with Young's brigade of cavalry. He routed Young, killing and capturing many, but there has been a good deal of artillery firing in that direction this morning.

Warren reported last night that in his fight on Monday afternoon, near Bethesda Church, Col. Terril, 13th Va., and Col. Willis, commanding Pegram's brigade, were killed. Col. Christian, 49th Pa., was wounded and captured; so was the Assistant Adjutant General of Ballsay's brigade, name not reported. Ten other commissioned officers were captured and seventy privates. Sixty rebels were buried on the field.

In our centre Burnside reports his advance line as lying this morning within a mile and a half of Mechanicsville. No other military intelligence has been received by this Department since yesterday.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 3.

A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated Tuesday night, says the day before the 5th corps advancing from Howe's store towards Bethelem church, drove the enemy about two miles.

At sunset while our men were engaged in digging rifle pits, Rhode's and Early's divisions made an attack on Warren's right flank, causing him to fall back from his first line. The enemy then advanced and charged the second line. Kitchen's brigade of heavy artillery was posted there and opened a heavy fire in conjunction with the batteries on both flanks, which nearly demolished the rebel column of attack. The enemy fell in terrible disorder and left their dead and wounded behind them on the field.

NEW YORK, June 4.

The Tribune's bulletin says: Grant has advanced his lines and driven Lee into Richmond.

The Herald's dispatch from headquarters Army of the Potomac dated May 31st says: All that was done yesterday (Monday) amounted to nothing more than a series of attempts to ascertain the enemy's position. By the road we are now about 12 miles from Richmond. The sound of our cannon must be heard by the inhabitants of the doomed city. The road occupied by the 9th corps leads to Richmond via. Meadow Bridge; the other bridges, Bottom, New, and Turnpike, are in front of the other corps.

The Tribune's letter from headquarters of the 6th corps, dated 11 miles north of Richmond, May 31st, 10 p. m. says: The rebel rifle pits in front of Gen. Hancock were carried this morning. There has been desultory firing all day by Gen. Wright's corps, who are in close proximity to the rebels. Each party wishes the other to commence the attack.

Capt. J. H. Platt, (of Vermont) quartermaster of the 6th corps, with 5 men and a wagon were captured Sunday.

The Times' dispatch from headquarters dated May 31st, closes thus: There is hardly a doubt that the position now held by the rebels in our front is but an advanced line which they will hold as long as possible for the purpose of gaining time to perfect the defences on the Chickahominy. On that line it is now expected we shall deliver battle.

WASHINGTON, June 5, 1 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Gen. Grant's headquarters dated half past 8 o'clock last night, has been received. It states that about 7 p. m., Friday, June 3, the enemy suddenly attacked Smith's brigade of Gibbon's division. The battle lasted with great fury for half an hour. The attack was unwaveringly repulsed. Smith's losses were inconsiderable. At 6 p. m., Wilson with his cavalry fell upon the rear of a brigade of Hoth's division, which Lee had thrown around to his left, apparently with the intention of enveloping Burnside. After a short but sharp conflict Wilson drove them from their rifle pits in confusion. He took a few prisoners. He had previously fought and routed Gordon's brigade of rebel cavalry. During these fights he lost several officers, among them Col. Preston, 1st Vermont cavalry, killed; Col. Benjamin, 8th New York, seriously wounded. Gen. Stannard, serving in the 18th corps, was severely wounded yesterday, Friday. Our entire loss in killed, wounded and missing during the three days' operations around Coal Harbor, will not exceed, according to the Adjutant General's report, 7,500.

This morning, Saturday, June 4th, the enemy's left wing in front of Burnside was found to have been drawn in during the night. Col. Cessnola, in command of 5,000 men, arrived here yesterday, having marched from Port Royal. Telegraphic communication between Cherry Stone and Fortress Monroe continues uninterrupted.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, dated yesterday, June 4th, 8 a. m., 13 miles west of Marietta, reports that his left is well around covering all the roads from the south to the railroad about Ackworth. His cavalry has been in Ackworth, and occupies in force all Altoona pass. No other military intelligence has been received by this Department.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 6—7 a. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

We have a dispatch from Gen. Grant's headquarters down to 6 o'clock last evening, which states that there had been no fighting during the day.

The enemy made an attack Saturday morning upon Gens. Hancock, Wright and Smith, but were everywhere repulsed. Gen. Hancock's lines are within forty yards of the rebel works.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, dated yesterday, 3.30 p. m., at Altoona Creek, states that the enemy, discovering us moving around on his right flank, abandoned his position last night and marched off.

The army supplies of forage and provisions are ample.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 6—10 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

Dispatches have been received from Gen. Grant's headquarters to-day, but they report only certain changes in the position of corps and contemplated operations. They state that everything is going on well.

The Chief Quartermaster of the army reports a personal inspection of the depot at White House, and that it is in a most efficient state. All needful supplies are on hand and wagons to transport them easily to the army.

The wounded are being brought in and transports are not delayed a moment.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, dated 12 o'clock at noon to-day, at Ackworth, says: I am now on the railroad at Ackworth Station and have full possession to within six miles of Marietta. All well.

No other military intelligence to-day.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 7—10.15 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

Dispatches from headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, dated 9 o'clock this morning, have been received. An assault was made on Burnside about midnight and successfully repulsed.

On the preceding afternoon a hundred picked men of the enemy made a rush to find out what was the meaning of Hancock's advancing siege lines. Nine of the party were captured, the rest killed or driven back.

Several letters have passed between Gen. Grant and Gen. Lee in respect to the collection of the dead and wounded between the two armies. Gen. Grant, inclosing his letter, regrets that all his efforts for alleviating the sufferings of the wounded men left on the battlefield have been rendered nugatory.

Two rebel officers and six men sent out to search for wounded rebels were captured, in consequence of the enemy not delivering Gen. Lee's letter until after the hour he named had expired. Gen. Grant has notified Gen. Lee that they were captured through a misunderstanding and will not be held as prisoners, but will be returned. No other military intelligence received.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 8.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Gen. Grant dated yesterday, 3.50 p. m., reports all very quiet to-day. No casualties reported.

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman dated Ackworth, yesterday evening, 6.30 p. m., says:

I have been to Altoona Pass, and find it very admirable for our purpose. It is the gate through the last or most eastern spur of the Alleghanies. It now becomes as useful to us as it was to the enemy, being easily defended from either direction. The roads hence from Ackworth into Georgia are large and good, and the country more open. Details of position of our troops and contemplated movements are given, but not needed for public information. The dispatch further states that the enemy is not in our immediate front, but his signals are seen at Lost Mountain and Kenesaw.

Dispatches from Canby, dated the 3d, have been received, which report satisfactory progress in the organization of his command.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 8—1.45 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Mr. Dana at Gen. Grant's headquarters, dated last night at 8.30, announces a victory by Gen. Hunter over the rebels beyond Staunton, and that the rebel Gen. Jones was killed on the battle field. The dispatch is as follows:

The Richmond Examiner of to-day speaks of the defeat of Gen. W. E. Jones by Gen. Hunter, 12 miles beyond Staunton, Va. Gen. Jones was killed on the field. His successor retired to Waynesboro and now holds the mountains between Charlottsville and Staunton. The paper further states that no hospitals or stores were captured by Hunter. Another dispatch announces that our forces occupy Staunton.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 8—1.45 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. Dix:

Gen. Hunter's victory and our occupation of Staunton are confirmed by the following dispatch just received from Butler:

All quiet on my lines. Richmond papers of the 7th give intelligence of a fight at Mount Crawford between Hunter and Jones, in which Hunter was victorious and Jones killed. Staunton was afterwards occupied by Union forces. The fighting was on Sunday.

E. M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 8.

The President has sent a message to Congress recommending the repeal of the three hundred dollar exemption, which prevents the army being kept up to its maximum strength.

NEWS SUMMARY.

—The Danish monarchy is now reduced to two islands of the sea, frozen up six months in the year.

—The real estate record of Chicago mentions fifteen buildings and blocks that are to be put up in that city, this season, costing, in the aggregate, $700,000.

—Major Gen. Fremont has resigned his commission, and his resignation is accepted by the President. He will now have leisure to give up his whole time and energies to running for president, though such military duties as he has performed for the last year or two, could not have been very engrossing or exhaustive.

—Fouquet's hotel in Plattsburgh was totally consumed by fire on June 6. This is a great loss not only to Mr. Fouquet but to Plattsburgh. For years this hotel has had an enviable reputation for both the excellence and elegance of its accommodations.

PATENT

HORSE HAY RAKES.

The subscriber respectfully notifies his friends and the public generally, that he still keeps for sale the BINDY HORSE RAKE, which gives good satisfaction wherever used, and is generally preferred to any other kind, for the case with which it can be operated. It has been tested on all sorts of land, and in all descriptions of grass. It gathers hay easily and thoroughly, and works well on rough and smooth ground.

The hand lever is so constructed that the operator raises the head by pulling it towards him. It is confidently claimed that it is the most perfect Horse Hay Rake thus far invented.

WORCESTER'S ROYAL QUARTO

DICTIONARY.

THE BEST DICTIONARY EXTANT.

This massive volume contains one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four pages. It is illustrated by more than one thousand wood cuts; five thousand words are accurately synonymized; the many tables of proper names pronounced, are very full and accurate. Dr. Worcester's Quarto Dictionary is a standard authority among authors and literary men wherever the English language is spoken. Every family and every student of the language should possess a copy, for it is a library in itself. A few testimonials are given:

From WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT and WASHINGTON IRVING.

The conciseness and completeness of the definitions, and the conscientious accuracy of the work in all its departments, give it, in my judgment, the highest claims to public favor.

From PROF. OLIVER WENDEL HOLMES, Boston.

It is, indeed, a monumental work, and one of which our city and country may be proud as long as we have a city, a country, and a language.

From CHARLES DICKENS, England.

It is a most remarkable work, of which America will be justly proud, and for which all who study the English language will long have reason to respect your name, and to be grateful to you.

From REV. W. WHEWELL, D. D., Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, Author of "History of the Inductive Sciences."

I have repeatedly consulted the Dictionary since it has been in my possession, and have seen reason to think it more complete and exact than any of its predecessors.

From REV. JOSEPH BOSWORTH, D. D., F. R. S., Professor of Anglo Saxon in Oxford University, England.

The whole work is the most comprehensive and useful that I have yet seen. It is the most complete and practical, the very best, as well as the cheapest, English Dictionary that I know.

From C. C. FELTON, LL. D., late President of Harvard College.

I find it not only rich beyond example in its vocabulary, but carefully elaborated in all its details, and thoroughly trustworthy as a guide to the most correct and elegant usage of the language.

From HON. CHARLES SUMNER.

I know no one who has done so much as you for all departments, and given to our language a Dictionary so complete and many-sided.

The best existing English Lexicon.—London Athenæum.

We have never failed to get a right answer from it.—London Examiner.

The most useful and complete work of reference in a single volume that we possess.—London Reader.

The completest and cheapest English Dictionary the world has yet seen.—London Critic.

NEW FIRM.—The subscribers having purchased the Shop and Stock of Henry M. Stevens, and formed a co-partnership under the name and style of

would respectfully notify the people of Franklin County and vicinity, that they have fitted up in a neat and convenient manner their

on Main Street, St. Albans, adjoining the Drug Store of L. L. Dutcher and Son, where they will keep on hand and manufacture to order, all kinds of Harnesses, Saddles, Bridles, Halters, Whips, Horse Blankets, Bells, Trunks, Valises, etc., etc.

They will pay especial attention to Harness Making and Carriage Trimming, in all their branches.

Intending to employ experienced workmen only, and to sell their goods at a fair price, they hope to merit and receive a goodly share of public patronage.

☞ Harnesses cleaned, oiled and repaired in the best manner and on short notice.

☞ Business done on the CASH principle.

S. S. BEDARD,
J. A. BEDARD,
Successors to Henry M. Stevens.

Notice.—All those indebted to J. A. Bedard are requested to call and settle their accounts without delay. J. A. BEDARD.

THE UNITED STATES CHRISTIAN COMMISSION would inform the patriotic, the philanthropic and Christian men and women of the country, of its work and its wants.

It cares for the body and the soul, as did Christ when on earth. By its delegates, who go without pay and from love, hospital stores, home comforts and reading matter are given directly to those who need them, together with such personal ministrations and religious instruction as each case may require—and the Gospel is preached at every opportunity.

In the hospitals, on the battle-fields, and in the camps of the strong and brave, the delegates are welcomed by surgeons, officers and men, and their labors have, in the judgment of those well-informed, saved thousands of lives, and been blessed to the conversion of thousands of souls, besides raising the morale of the army and strengthening the ties that bind the soldier to his home.

It has the confidence of the Government and all the facilities from it that military exigencies will allow.

Its affairs are managed by business men who give their services. Railroads and telegrams are free to it; the Bible Society gives its publications; but religious reading matter must be purchased, and the demand is far beyond the ability of the Commission to meet it.

The wants of the Commission are men to go as delegates; stores to be distributed by them—money to purchase reading matter.

The aim is to have no large balance in the Treasury, but to do it all times what the current contributions shall allow, there being no extensive and complicated system of agencies that a change would seriously affect.
