The Excursion.

The Eagles went out on their excursion yesterday to Plattsburgh as advertised, by the "River Queen," accompanied by their lady seconds and the St. Albans Brigade Band. The excursionists acknowledge the compliment paid the band by the officers of the River Queen in passing them free both ways. Every thing passed off delightfully and the party had a good time during their round trip. Our boys speak in unmeasured terms of approbation of their reception and treatment by their cousins at Plattsburgh. One of the Plattsburgh Cornet Bands filed in with the St. Albans Band to while the passing hours away. After the game was played, the entire party sat down to a sumptuously furnished table at the Chamberland House upon invitation and at the expense of their Plattsburgh friends. The party returned to St. Albans about 11 o'clock last night without meeting with an accident during their absence.

A sprinkle from the clouds before the commencement of the game attayed the heat, and the sun hid its face during the playing match to the satisfaction of the players. There was quite a large number of the Plattsburgh people present to witness the game. The Eagles, as usual come off victorious, and herewith we append the score.

ALBURGH SPRINGS.—The work of bottling water is going on briskly at the Springs, and the new spring house is about ready for the various uses for which it is designed. The second story is to be occupied as a billiard room for the convenience of gentlemen and lady visitors, and will be cool and pleasant. Mr. A. Stevens has charge of the spring house, and as he is well acquainted with every convenience for extracting amusement out of a stay at the springs, visitors will do well to make his acquaintance. Fishing, bowling, bathing, drinking the waters, rambling, etc., constitute the charms of the place; though we may add that it is quiet, and a nice place to read a novel, and there is a good hotel.

A SUBJECT.—The Times records the death of the "Queen City Base Ball Club," after a career [illegible] with the Middlebury club, and [illegible] have conquered [illegible] which our friend is to take place. They wish to pay proper obsequies on the occasion.

THE GALAXY.—The August number of this entertaining and instructive magazine is received and exhibits a good look of contents. The serial by Richard Grant White, on words and their uses, which have been a leading and accredited [illegible] of this magazine, is worth the price of subscription. The stories and poems are equal to any of the kind in our magazine literature. If a reader cannot find 35 cents worth of reading out of the 150 pages in the Galaxy, he must be much more dull than we ever found that well-conducted and illustrated magazine.

MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—The Connecticut Valley musical association held their annual convention at Middlebury the past week. It was a most [illegible] and [illegible] and appreciative attendance of musicians, from Vermont and adjacent towns. The [illegible] were composed of fathers of the very [illegible] of music. The singing of Miss [illegible] was inspiring and added a great [illegible] to the lovers of good music. Miss S. W. Barnum of the Boston Conservatory displayed uncommon talent and performed her part in the association in all. Mr. Jabez Wilder, [illegible] is one of nature's [illegible] and is considered by great [illegible] the best singer that has been [illegible] Professor Seymour [illegible] to Wm. Concerts [illegible] for the [illegible] and success. Everything was all that could be desired and Mr. Sherman fulfilled the highest expectations. We think it would be difficult for New England to produce her superior as the pianist here [illegible]. Should Middlebury well be proud of her [illegible]. The [illegible] was large and well supported among the quantity we noticed some of our native talent. Newport was well represented by Mrs. J. Y. Green who did herself much credit in her [illegible]. The weather was all that could be desired and the arrangements of the hall were adapted to give effect to the singing. Such exhibitions are well adapted to promote an interesting interest in the production of good music and draw out much talent that is now lying [illegible]. We trust that every county in Vermont will awake on the subject and establish a musical association.—Newport Express.

WANTS A NEW MAN.—The Middlebury Register is out against Mr. Woodbridge for Congress. It says:

We should be unfair to our convictions did we not say that it is our deliberate opinion that Mr. Woodbridge has not that weight of character, those qualifications, intellectual or moral, which the people should demand in their representative upon the floor of Congress.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

FOR Grey hairs, although accounted an honor by the old, have never been so considered with respect to the middle aged or young. These can be easily remedied by the use of "Barrett' Vegetable Hair Restorative." The only thorough renewer and preventative of all diseases of the scalp.—Opheusburgh Journal.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S BILLS.—When Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. The use of a single bottle, costing one dollar, will satisfy the most incredulous that they need look no further for the required aid.

ST. ALBANS, VT.

At the present time there is much competition among Life Insurance Companies, and many agents are far too regardless of the truth, in statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is all important for persons intending to insure their lives, to insure only with agents whom they know to be reliable, again it is always most satisfactory for parties assured to have their risks with Local agents, then there is no difficulty or danger of loss in transmitting premiums. Persons intending to insure their lives will find it for their advantage to see the agent of the Guardian Mutual before insuring elsewhere.

A Boy Stabs a Man, and Escapes.

BANQUET TO REVERDY JOHNSON.

FIRE IN NEW YORK CITY

NASHUA, N. H., July 16.

Robert McQuestion, of Littlefield, who was stabbed on Sunday afternoon by a boy named Holmes, about 16 years of age, an escaped convict from the Reform School at Manchester, died this morning from the effects of the wound. Holmes was imprisoned about two years ago for stealing a cow in Nashua, and made his escape last Friday night. Mr. McQuestion was immediately notified, and also that Holmes threatened to take his life. Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, as McQuestion and his wife were walking about the farm, they saw Holmes coming towards them. When he came by, the former endeavored to arrest him. Holmes ran, and McQuestion followed. As the latter came up Holmes drew a sheath knife and stabbed him in the right side, the blade passing through into his bowels. The murderer had not been captured at last accounts.

BALTIMORE, July 16.

The banquet to Reverdy Johnson last night was largely attended. In response to a toast in his honor, Mr. Johnson responded, thanking his fellow citizens for the honor conferred upon him, and said: "On the eve of my departure on a mission to England, where I may find questions of much difficulty and importance affecting more or less the friendly relations between two great nations, nothing could contribute more to encourage me than such a manifestation of your regard. As to the questions between the governments I have but this to say, that I entertain a confident hope that they will be so disposed of as to remove all embarrassments they may have occasioned, and an enduring and honorable peace may be secured to both governments." Speeches were made by Senators Nye, Hendricks, and others.
