NOTICE.

We would respectfully notify all persons who are indebted to the Hon. WASHINGTON ADKINS, that we must have money. We have exhausted our patience waiting and hoping that those who owe us will pay. We can wait no longer as our own credit is suffering from our indulgence of others. We hope our friends will settle at once, without requiring us to put our accounts in the hands of a collector.

Respectfully,
W. S. DOWNER & CO.

Thanks.—We are thanks to Mr. S. A. Thoman, for his courtesy in furnishing us with the proceedings of the Legislature. Also to Mr. Wm. Norris, Clerk in the Senate Committee, and other gentlemen for attentions.

Very Humorous.—The Major thought the folks out this end of the line were getting rather lukewarm, so he had to come out here to straighten things. He has gone to Gallipolis to start a chicking among the dry-horns there, and say he will do so "bigger than Jim Fisk." He says, "Let 'em hear from me."

Fine Wheat.—Nicholas Mitchell, of Guyandotte, raised from one bushel of wheat this year, the quantity of twenty bushels. This is the fine wheat country.

Fine Oysters.—We learn from Mr. Bradley, of the Ashland House, that he has received from Baltimore a fine lot of Oysters, which he will serve up in good style. He says he will get Fish Oysters, if any one wants them.

Go to Huntington.—The New Orleans Picayune, speaking of its future as a city, says: "The people who sit down in idleness to-day, or hesitate and dillydally for customers to take them by storm, and make themselves what they have to offer, will find themselves very unpopulous."

Fire.—There was a slight fire at the Ashland House on last Monday evening, by which the tops were burnt off of two box cars standing near the Round House. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The cars were standing near the house and if blaze there would have been a very serious conflagration, if it had not been soon discovered and put out.

Strange Accident.—On last Monday evening, Dr. Wall, was in haste to get to Kenova, to see a gentleman who had swallowed his wife for the much on a volcano—double price. It was feared for awhile that, as it happened, it would be necessary to open his stomach, by taking from the outside, but very quickly the gentleman was relieved without that necessity.

The Weather.—Options vine during the last two weeks have been confined to a good deal of rain fall. On one month of snow—night. The revolution should, among fall in the Rain.—We found a large quantity of water in the night between Monday morning, when opening the door, we found four inches of water in the house. It came in by Mr. Ashland's Thanksgiving present. A compact Thanksgiving day, in Jenkins & Holcomb's new Mr. Jenkins hiding behind a pretty out as baskets, expected to be packed with Turkeys. From what we picked up in listening to the boys, we think they were taking them home to some of the ministers, members of Thanksgiving and to help out them in the morning. DESTRUCTION OF THE CAPITOL AT WHEELING.

By telegram from Wheeling, we learn that Washington Hall, the temporary Capitol of the State, was entirely destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. We have not received the particulars, except that the building was almost entirely destroyed, and the books and papers were saved.

Since writing the above, we have received a copy of the Register, from which we get the following particulars. The fire commenced about 20 minutes past nine o'clock, and by ten the whole upper story was on fire; all the upper stories were occupied by Masonic Lodges, the furniture and Regalia in which made an intense flame which soon destroyed the roof, and caused it to fall. By one o'clock P. M. nothing was standing above the first story but the brick walls.—The stores underneath will be more or less damaged by water, and possibly by fire. One man was nearly killed, and three severely hurt. The House of Delegates was removed to the old Court House, and the Senate will occupy the old dining room of the McClure House.

LOSSES.

Masons lose about $10,000, insurance $6,000; the Hall was valued at $80,000, insurance about $11,000; the loss on Stores in the lower stories was covered by insurance. The furniture and fixtures of the House of Delegates were saved, and the damage will not exceed fifty dollars.

The interruption to the Legislature will be but a few days.

We are not going to shed any hypocritical tears, nor would we rejoice over the troubles of our neighbors, but we will merely say, that if the Capital had remained in Charleston, as it should have done, this loss would most likely have been averted from Wheeling, and the loss of time in the Legislature consequent on the fire would also have been avoided.

Found.—Nearly a year ago a gentleman from Ironton was looking at some Iron Ores in the neighborhood of Covington, Virginia, when he lost a valuable amethyst setting from a ring he wore. He searched for it at the time but could not find it and when he left, he promised a reward to any one who found it. On the return of the party from Richmond last week, a gentleman at the McCurdy House handed him the stone, which had been left there by the finder, who received a liberal reward. It was unlagged.

New Building.—Notwithstanding the cold weather, Mr. Lallance is pushing his new brick stores on vigorously, and still hopes to get the roof on before the work is compelled to stop by the settled cold of winter. The predictions are all in favor of a mild winter and we hope they will prove true.

Mr. J. F. Stewart is doing the brick work; he built the large store for Messrs. Harvey & Sons, and M. A. Jones, and is doing first rate work.

We are glad to see these improvements going on. The time will come in the not distant future when they will pay the owners a large percentage on their investment.

Death of Wm. B. Astor.—Mr. Wm. B. Astor, the richest man in America, died in New York on Wednesday, 25th inst. He was over 80 years of age, and his wealth is estimated at from one to two hundred million of dollars. Mr. Astor bears the reputation of having been a just and charitable man. His wealth was not accrued in speculations, nor in grinding the face of the poor, but by the increase in the value of real estate, in which the bulk of his property was invested. His father, John Jacob Astor, left him twenty million dollars, and he has added to it.

He died surrounded by his friends and relatives, and had his senses almost to the minute of his death.

Mr. S. E. Lacher, is receiving a fine lot of Groceries, which he is offering at very moderate prices for cash or country produce. You will find an assortment of good goods there.

New Firm.—J. S. Witcher & Co., have opened a general goods store in Barboursville. The firm is composed of Gen Jno. S. Witcher and R. D. Bright, Esq. They are known to the community as responsible and wealthy gentlemen, and they propose to sell goods as low as they can be purchased anywhere on the Ohio river. We advise all persons who wish to buy dry goods, boots, shoes, hats and caps, hardware, queensware, groceries, notions, carpets, oilcloths, and in fact everything that can be found in a general goods store, in Barboursville to call at the new store of J. S. Witcher & Co., who propose to sell all kinds of goods at Barboursville at the very lowest rates. J. S. Witcher & Co will sell goods cheaper than any other firm in the county. Call on them for bargains. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods.

Sam. Gibson is selling a great many persons with suits, whom it may suit to buy him a suitable price for a suit of nice clothes. He will be glad to suit you.

Thanksgiving Day.—The day was much more generally observed in Huntington than it has formerly been, and many of the stores were closed a great part of the day. Union services were held at the Congregational Church, in which, Revs. Albert Bowers, J. S. Gibson, J. D. McChatuck, Mr. Crook and Dr. Prettyman took part. A average congregation was present. Rev. J. D. McChatuck made the opening prayer, Rev. Mr. Gibson read the Psalter, Rev. Dr. Prettyman preached the sermon, and Rev. Mr. Crooks made the closing prayer. Dr. Prettyman's sermon was an elegant tribute of the cause for National thanksgiving, and propriety of the observance of the day. The choir of the Church made excellent music. After church the usual number of Turkeys were made away with, no doubt with thankful hearts for the "invention" of such a good feed as the Turkey. So the day passed away, and the thanks were duly received.

Centennial Commissioners for Lincoln County.

J. S. Wilkinson, C. L. Bowden and B. F. Curry, commissioners appointed by the State Board of Centennial Commissioners met at Lincoln C. H. this 11th day of Nov. 1875 and proceeded to appoint commissioners for the several districts of said county.

Carroll District.—Marion Sanford, James C. Black and A. J. Barrett.

Sheridan District.—Irwin Lusher, Jerome Shelton and Spencer Midkiff.

Laurel Hill.—Henderson Drake, James A. Hatfield and A. F. Ketchum.

Harts Creek.—Isaac Gardner, Wm. Fry and B. C. Toney.

Jefferson.—Milton Dingess, Bradford Hill and Robinson Spurlock.

Union District.—Wm. A. Holstein, James W. Adkins and Jenkin Oxley.

Duval District.—A. J. Williams, Jacob W. May and Thos. Oxley.

Washington District.—Dr. Nelson McClure, W. W. Pauley and Harrison Griffith.

The above parties appointed are specially requested to procure specimens of ore, and minerals to-wit: Iron Ore, Coal, &c. &c., also specimens of all varieties of valuable timber and agricultural products, such as Tobacco, Grain, &c. &c.

Jno. S. Wilkinson, Chairman.

Wm. Stratton, John M. Thompson and Joseph Plymale were duly qualified and permitted to practice at this bar.

Henry Golby was granted license to sell intoxicating liquors at the mouth of Harts Creek.

Harrison was appointed guardian for Virginia A. Gray and John W. Gray.

These were all the important cases disposed of up to Thursday, noon when your informant retired from the scene.

The Clerks, Messrs Hager and Curry know their business and keep the records in first class style. There are no clerks offices better fitted up or better supplied with books and blanks than these. Other counties might do well to imitate them.

Groceries.—J. W. McCullough at the old stand of Harper & Hannah, is doing a good business supplying the people with groceries. He has a good stock at low prices, and is agent for Ashshire's Flour, the best in the market.

FROM GUYANDOTTE.

Dear Editor:

Right royally has winter commenced to reign, and our usually crowded (?) streets are now almost deserted. Owing to the inclemency of the weather last Friday night the young ladies and gentlemen did not have a "Sociable out," (as one of the Huntington gentlemen has called the surprise parties), and thereby quite a number were disappointed, as they are very sociable and enjoyable little affairs.

The M. E. Church, South has resumed having their mite societies. They are very nicely attended, with just enough young folks present to enliven the circle, and to recall youth and past pleasures to the older members. The society will meet next Friday night, Dec. 3rd, at Mrs. J. L. Caldwells and I believe all are invited to attend.

We were pleased to see upon our streets the past week, Hon. Jno. Hall, of Mason and Mr. Clark O. Smith, of Louisville, Ky. The latter was visiting his relatives, the families of Mr. Nicholas Smith and J. L. Caldwell, with whom he took a Thanksgiving dinner. We were very much entertained and interested in his glowing descriptions of the rapid growth and improvement of his now beautiful city.

Although the truth, we regret to say no religious services were held in our town on Thanksgiving day, but all the churches were closed.

Mrs. J. H. Hysell, of Pomeroy, Ohio, who has been visiting her parents for several weeks, departed for home last Friday, accompanied with our regrets.

Mrs. Anna Caswell, daughter of Elder Trainer, also left last week for a visit to her sister in Wheeling, where she will remain all winter. Her voice will be missed greatly in the M. E. Church choir.

Miss Julia Jenkins, quite a "petite" and sprightly blonde, has for several weeks been visiting Miss Minnie Smith, and is still in our midst.

We are glad to see Mr. Alex Clark out on the streets once more as he has been quite sick for some time.

Business has commenced to enliven as the Holidays approach, and all the youngsters are in a perfect rapture.

More Anon.
Wide Awake.

Hueveys are offering bargains to close out their stock before moving into their new store. Give them a call.

FROM WHEELING.

Moundsville, Nov. 21st, 1872.

Mr. Editor:—Availing myself of a halt in the legislative mill, I ran down here last evening, to see the Penitentiary &c. The building is nearly all completed, and when finished, it will be one of the finest of its size in the country. The material and workmanship are both first class. This building has cost the State a pretty round sum of money, but the people can now have the satisfaction of knowing that the time is near at hand when the institution will be self-sustaining and a credit and ornament to the State.

There has been but little Legislation accomplished since I last wrote you. A Joint Resolution to pay the money expended in the capture of the Bank robbers to the persons who have incurred the expense, has passed the Senate and will pass the House as soon as it can be reached. The amendments to the Charter of the City of Huntington have been reported from the committee and are now before the House, and will also pass as soon as they are reached.—The Tobacco bill is in the same fix. In fact the House has done literally nothing in the way of passing laws. The impeachment humbug has turned the House into a "Cave of the winds, and from ten o'clock in the morning until sundown, the roar on impeachment is kept up, on one side by so-called democrats who are being made cat's paws of by the radicals, and out and out radicals, and on the other side by the friends of right and justice, who do not wish to see men who have violated no law sacrificed to appease radical hate and revenge. A motion to indefinitely postpone the whole thing is now pending and I believe will be adopted. Mason, Campbell and Chap Stuart have spoken for the prosecution, and Fleming and Ice for the defence.—"Butter Milk Jimmy" alone occupied a whole day and rambled all over the history of the world. The sensible working men of the House are sick and tired of the whole thing, and I hope will stop it.

The Senate is well up with its work, and could get through within the 30 days if the House would act on the business sent to it. The Salt Sulphur Bill and many internal improvement schemes have been introduced, among them a bill by Senator McGinnis for State aid to build a turnpike from Barboursville to Logan Court House, and one by Mr. Thornburg to build a bridge over the Guyandotte river at Barboursville. There is a proposition before a committee of the Senate to raise by taxation and a sale of forfeited lands, a fund for the purpose of internal improvements in the State.—Unless something of this kind is done there will be no appropriations for roads and bridges at this session. A Bill to locate the Capitol permanently by a vote of the people has been introduced by Mr. Dennis, and the proposition seems to meet with much favor. It seems to be a fair way of settling this vexed question, and the people from all parts of the State, except Wheeling, want an end put to the controversy.

ANN ELIZA.

I have seen and heard the nineteenth part of B. Young's wives, curiosity as much as anything else, led me to invest 75 cents at the Opera House to see the show, and to learn the reason why this Mrs. Potiflar had Brigham put in prison. A sight of the woman and a small piece of her story explained to my satisfaction, Ann Eliza is quite a pretty woman of 30 years, graceful and finely formed. Her brunette complexion and flashing eye clearly indicate the strong passion that controls her being. She could be tender and loving at times, but woe to the man who arouses her. Jealousy, and being compelled to share his attentions with 18 others is what is the matter with the hero and Brigham. She seems not to have been his favorite.

THE WOODHULL.

I have seen and heard Victoria, and I confess I was agreeably surprised. She is a splendid specimen of a woman, mentally and physically—perhaps morally, I dont know. As a lecturer she has few equals. Her ideas are original and most strongly and eloquently expressed. She touched many truths and said nothing unfit for ears polite. Much that she said every woman ought to know, and many other things, many preachers do know but never express them. Taken as a whole, the lecture was a very fine one, well worth the price of admission. Without agreeing with all she said, her lecture is instructive and magnificently delivered.

JOS. S. MILLER

will be our next auditor. He has consented to run and that settles the question. No man has so many friends in all parts of the State, and no candidate is so universally and deservedly popular. Young, handsome, talented, and so perfectly qualified for the position, his candidacy is hailed with almost universal satisfaction, and his hosts of friends in all parts of the State will work with a will for his nomination. Trot out the rad that is willing to tackle Joe.

Lee Monument Association.—This Association was incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia to erect a monument to Gen. R. E. Lee.

The corporators have confided the trust to the Governor, the Treasurer and the Auditor of Public accounts.

The 19th of January is the anniversary of Gen. Lee's birth day, and it is determined on or before that day to seek a contribution from every family in the Southern States.

Mayor Burke has been requested to receive contributions in Huntington for the purpose, and as there are many Southern men here, who will doubtless be glad to contribute for this purpose, Mayor Burke requests us to say that he will receive all contributions and forward them to the proper officer.

The memory Gen. Lee is worthy of a monument, and we hope the contributions will be ample to secure its speedy erection.

Richmond and Her Western Railway Connections.—Major N. H. Hotchkiss, the indefatigable and irrepressible general traveling agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, is in the city after a four months tour in the counties of Summers, Mercer, Giles, Bland, Tazwell, Russell, Fayette and others along the line of his road. The crops have generally been good in that section, everything looks prosperous, and the people seem happy. He saw crops of corn that would average seventy five bushels to the acre. During the time that Major Hotchkiss was on this business tour he saw but one Richmond merchant who was in that productive region endeavoring either to make trade for himself or divert it in this direction; but he did see, daily, everywhere the representatives of Baltimore business houses, who were unceasing in their efforts to secure trade from this essentially trading region.

The Major being a live man was naturally considerably disgruntled and annoyed at this exhibition of supineness and indifference on the part of our Richmond merchants. The trade of all that vast region has its natural outlet via Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in this city, and if it does not come here it is because somebody blunders, and continues to do so. The efforts of all the Baltimore merchants tend to the enrichment of their city through its chief conduit, the Baltimore & Ohio railway. They are benefitted in proportion as their main avenues of approach and departure are sustained and encouraged. They thus build up themselves and town, instead of pulling both down. Why cannot Richmond merchants display this energy, foresight and care for their own interest?—As "Colonel Sellers" says "There's millions in it." We fear Richmond and her people will never get out of their slow paces.

We assure our Richmond merchants that when they want to act in the line of building up their own city, by extending their trade connections with the West, or the interior even of Virginia, they will find the Chesapeake and Ohio railway authorities most willing to grant them every privilege and accommodation which the Baltimore and Ohio Railway has, or will concede to the most favored customers. These facts can be verified very easily. Let every man go to work, if he wants to put money in his purse, or build up this city.—The News and Gazette.

We confirm the above most emphatically. The Richmond merchants ought to get a large trade from Huntington and neighboring towns, but they neither advertise here nor canvass. We know of merchants in this town who are sending their produce to Baltimore, and doing all their trading there, simply because their trade has been solicited. We have more New York advertisements in our paper than Richmond ones.

Cabell County Teachers' Institute.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Cabell County Teacher's Institute, held at Barboursville on the 26th and 27th of November, the next meeting was appointed to be held at Milton, beginning on the third Friday of December, and closing Saturday evening, and the following programme of exercises adopted:

Religious Notices.

The Second Anniversary of the Reformed Episcopal Church.—As the consecrations of the Reformed Episcopal Church, will everywhere celebrate the 2nd of Dec., 1875, as a day of thanksgiving to the great head of the church for his goodness in restoring to the "Old paths" and simple faith and practice of our fathers, by call of the 3rd general council, I will hold religious services this evening at 7 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, and will also illustrate the distinguishing principles of that church.

James S. Gibson.

Rev. Samuel Wolcott, D. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, is expected to preach in the Congregational Church next Sabbath, also several evenings of the following week.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A preparation so widely and favorably known as Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, needs few words of praise from us. This compound has won its way to the highest favor in the public through the multitudes who have validly testified to its remarkable restoration of their hair, thus, in trying the Sicilian Hair Renewer, been made glad by the speedy restoration of their gray hair to its natural color, and the thin locks thickened again in the days of early youth. It also prevents the hair falling out, makes it soft and glossy, and is altogether the best preparation for the intended purpose ever before the public.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

NEW HOTEL.

C. E. Myers, would respectfully inform the denizens of Huntington, and all who visit its classic precincts, that he has opened a Hotel on the European plan, at the corner of 7th and Second Avenue, where he will be happy to serve all who come.

He guarantees that anybody who comes to his house for a good square meal will not go away unsatisfied.—You call for what you want and pay for what you get. tf.

NOTICE.

All persons are hereby warned not to execute notes or pay money to Wm. R. Seamands for the purpose of defending a suit wherein Low and Aspinwall are Plaintiffs and the people of Cabell, Boone, Logan, Lincoln and Wayne Counties of W. Va. are defendants, as he has no authority from me to do so in any manner whatever.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as Boschee's German Syrup for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by. Smith Davis & Co.

The West Charleston Company.

A charter has been obtained and stock is being subscribed with a view to the purchase of West Charleston from the Trustee who represent the present owners.

The property embraces more than TWO THOUSAND TOWN LOTS, 40x120 feet each, and about 140 acres of streets and alleys. Also the proceeds of all sales made by the Trustee up to date, amounting to about $30,000 in cash and bonds, for lots SOLD AT AN AVERAGE OF NEARLY $325 EACH. Also thirteen houses valued at $12,000, including one of nine rooms, with stable and out houses; and finally the proceeds to be derived from the sale of the Kanawha Sun and Evening News.

THE RENTS derived from this property, including houses, brickyards, fair grounds, &c., amount to over $5,000 per annum. At the rate at which the property is offered to the Company, over 200 PER CENT. will be made by the Company on every lot hereafter sold by them at the prices at which lots have been heretofore selling—and on choice lots much more.

LOCATION.

This property embraces the choicest part of the ridge upon which Charleston is built. It lies in the angle formed by the Elk and Kanawha rivers—on the lower side of the Elk; it is almost perfectly level, and is well drained—has already a population of over four hundred, and a number of new houses building at this date.

MANUFACTURES.

Charleston has twenty-four manufacturing industries of which ten are located below the Elk.

IRON WORKS.

The erection of the Kanawha Iron Works, just above this property on the Elk, and the opening of iron ore, fire clay and limestone mines in the hills immediately adjoining, is already increasing the population, and must, in connection with other industries, bring in several thousand inhabitants within the next two years.

PROSPECTS.

While the company will be enabled from the beginning to sell at an increase of several hundred per cent., and at the same time offer lots at very low prices, the probability is that in a few years the remaining lots will be largely increased in value and realize many times the present prices. A safer and better investment has never been offered to the public—there can be no question of loss, there can be only a steady increase in value from year to year. Charleston is the natural manufacturing center of the Kanawha Valley; with cheap coal, iron ore, fire clay, limestone, lumber, salt, &c., immediately surrounding the city, and good transportation east and west, in a word as great manufacturing advantages as are possessed by any city in America, it can be but a short time until our present manufactories are double and treble, and every foot of real estate greatly increased in value. The present owners only sell because obliged to dispose of an interest.

The title is perfect; all liens now on any portion of the land will be either cancelled or secured in a satisfactory manner.

The shares are $100 each, less the amount of dividend from sales already made.
