LATEST FOREIGN NEWS

PER "MARIPOSA."

Mr. Parnell intends to summon a conference of the Irish Parliamentary party for February 5th in Dublin in order to concert a plan of campaign in the next session of Parliament.

The upper house of the Prussian Diet has passed a resolution forbidding hunting on Sunday under a penalty of heavy fines and imprisonment.

Constantinople, Dec. 23.—Seditions placards have been found on the mosques here and the police are searching for the authors.

Toulon, Dec. 23.—The French transport with General Millet and staff aboard sailed to-day for Tonquin. Troops will be taken aboard at Algiers. The transport European sails for Tonquin to-morrow with reinforcements.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 23.—The accident to the Czar occurred on the 10th, when he received injuries in the face in a fall from a sledge. He injured his right shoulder, which is still inflamed, but the pain has diminished. The physicians ordered absolute repose.

Madrid, Dec. 23. The Governor of Grenada states that a gale destroyed half the town of Mammote. The harbor is much damaged, the shipping suffered greatly and many persons were injured.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—A snow storm of wide area prevailed last night and to-day, followed by sleet, which finally turned to rain in some places. The storm was heaviest in Southern Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Trains have been delayed from one to ten hours, and telegraphic communication is greatly interfered with on account of the sleet, especially toward the north and east.

Lisbon, Dec. 23.—There were two earthquakes on Saturday. The first was not generally noticed, but the second lasted twelve seconds, being accompanied by heavy rumblings, awakening the population and causing a panic. Some damage was caused to old buildings and many chimneys. At Satubal, eighteen miles southeast of here, the shock was so severe that many of the inhabitants rushed to the seashore.

London, Dec. 23—Bismarck is trying to bring about a meeting between the Emperor of Austria and the King of Italy to give confirmation to the triple alliance. If the programme of Prince Bismarck is carried out the Emperor of Austria and the King of Spain will meet in Rome in the spring, and the King of Italy and the Emperor of Austria will afterwards visit the Emperor of Germany at Berlin.

London, Dec. 23—The Observer's Cairo dispatch states that the British Government has explicitly informed Egypt that it will not attempt to reconquer the Soudan, nor permit Egypt to make any attempt. England, however, is willing that any other Power shall do so at Egypt's request, providing the Khedive incurs no expense. England is willing to send a fleet to Alexandria and assist in the defence of strictly Egyptian territory if the same is threatened by El Mahdi.

Paris, Dec. 23—The Government of French Cochin China reported that the council of the regency at Hue has notified them that Hiephema has abdicated the throne of Anam, and that a new King, aged fifteen, was crowned on December 2nd. His name is Kienphu. The Annamite Minister of Finance who, is hostile to the French, then became the head of the council. The crisis lasted several hours during which the gates of the citadel were closed, and Hue was placed in a state of siege. When the gates were re-opened the death of Hiephema was announced.

New York, Dec. 21—An army officer writes to the Times on the Mormon question, thus: Let Congress pass a law prohibiting the entry or sale to Mormons of government land unless evidence is given sufficient to satisfy the proper government officials that the person neither believes in nor practices polygamy. The government could well afford to go a step further and pay the cost of transportation of from five to ten thousand emigrants who would settle in the territory. This would be much cheaper than employing the strong arm of the government.

King Alfonso has issued a decree establishing reciprocity of commerce between Cuba and the United States.

Cairo, Dec. 30.—The rebels attacked Genirch, eight miles from Berber. The garrison of the town, consisting of two companies of Bashi Bazouks, repulsed the assailants with heavy loss. The Egyptian loss was slight. The rebels intended to attack Berber but were thwarted by their defeat.

Brisbane, (Queensland) Dec. 30.—The Swedish brig Notal, from Boston, reports a mutiny on the voyage, in which the captain and first mate were wounded and the second mate killed. The captain shot two mutineers and secured three others. The latter are in prison here.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 30.—The murder of Colonel Sudelkin of the gendarmerie, undoubtedly was the work of Nihilists. A letter was found in Sudelkin's house, threatening Folstori, Minister of the Interior with a similar fate.

New York, Dec. 30.—P. T. Barnum seems to consider his life work accomplished, for he has just made his will. In order that there might be no question as to his sanity on which to ground contests after his death, he was examined by experienced physicians, and secured their attestation that he was of sound mind. The will and its codicils cover more than 700 pages of legal cap, closely written, and disposes of real estate and personal property valued at $10,000,000 to 27 heirs.

It is reported that the German Crown Prince, while in Rome invited the King and Queen of Italy to visit Berlin, and the invitation was accepted.

A Dallas, Texas, special, says Ulysses S. Grant, a son of Wm. Jesse Grant, a relative of Ex-President Grant, was arrested there yesterday on a charge of burglarizing a house and purloining pistols, which he afterwards sold. This was not his first offence.

New York, Dec. 26.—No fewer than three panics occurred in public halls and theaters last evening, but no lives were lost. There were four cases of suicide in different parts of the city, and many murders and other cases of bloodshed.

Madrid, Dec. 25.—It is asserted here that the Chinese troops took part in the affair at Sontay and that the French losses in the battle there were much greater than officially reported. Preparations for the defence of the Red River delta by the Chinese continue on a large scale.

Berlin, Dec. 25.—It is stated that France is determined to entertain no negotiations for peace with China until the Chinese occupy Bacninh.

Paris, Dec. 25.—The Temps protests against the rumors of mediation between France and China, and adds: "France will always pay great attention to England's councils, but must see her claims in Tonquin recognized. It is not for England to offer mediation if China does not ask it."

A letter from Pasamayo, Peru, states that Puga was completely overthrown in a battle on the heights of Stallon, lasting ten hours. The government troops were under the command of Colonel Iglesias. Puga fled towards Panca pursued by the national forces.

The health of the Czar is improving, and the pains and inflammation caused by a recent accident are rapidly subsiding.

Toronto, Dec. 27.—The Trades Congress unanimously resolved that the future welfare of the working people of the Dominion required the prohibition of the importation of Chinese laborers.

Washington, Dec. 27—John N. Irwin, Governor of Idaho Territory has returned to the United States a draft of $650, sent him as salary for the quarter ended October 30th. He declined also to receive the salary due him for the term ending December 31st, and states that he has been unable to attend to the duties of the office since July 1st and does not consider that he can conscientiously accept pay.

New York, Dec. 27—General Grant, on leaving home to-day slipped upon the ice and fell, receiving a severe shock and seriously injuring his thigh. No bones were broken, and the supposition is a bruise of the sciatic nerve is sustained. The General immediately after the accident was assisted to his bed, where he has remained ever since, lying in one position, on his back, while the injured leg is most painful, the general health otherwise is good, and he is even comparatively cheerful.

St. John's (N.F.) Dec. 27—Advices from Harbor de Grace states that the Orange procession, yesterday, while passing along the street, was fired upon by a crowd. At first the Orangemen thought the firing was from powder guns carried by their friends, until they saw their men fall. Four men were killed, two Orangemen and two Roman Catholics. Eight are reported mortally and eighteen to twenty slightly wounded.

New York, Jan. 1.—The day opened with rain and a cloudy sky. The streets were in a miserable condition. Nevertheless, large numbers of callers and holiday-keepers were out, and the houses down town were universally closed. The ultra fashionables in the city not receiving calls, the most wealth families passing the day in the country, amid rural scenes, merrymaking.

Teas! Teas!
We have Just Received from the Celebrated
TEA HOUSE OF L. P. MOORE & CO.,
Of Yokohama, Japan, a well selected Asst. of Pure Japan Teas!
To which we call the attention of the trade, and beg to refer them to the following certificates:
Sworn Certificates of Purity from Leading Physicians and Analysts.
CONSULATE OF HIS IMPERIAL JAPANESE MAJESTY, San Francisco.
I hereby certify that the TEA marked "L. P. M." (in diamonds), packed by L. P. Moore, Yokohama, and submitted to me, is, in my opinion, a pure, unadulterated, and natural leaf. KENTARO YANAGIYA. (His Imperial Japanese Majesty's Consul at San Francisco.
OFFICE OF F. C. KEIL, PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMIST, MARKET STREET PHARMACY, Southwest Cor. Market and 4th St., San Francisco.
To whom it may concern: I hereby certify that I have examined the various brands of Japanese Teas, all of which has been purchased by disinterested parties, and found them all to be more or less adulterated with coloring matter and other substances foreign to Tea with the exception of lots marked "L. P. M." (in diamonds), packed by L. P. Moore, Yokohama.
The analysis of twelve different brands give the following result, viz:
No. 1 Large amount of coloring, consisting of Prussian Blue (ferro cyanide of iron), Gypsum and Soapstone.
No. 2—Large amount of coloring, consisting of Indigo and aluminous earth. This brand contains a large quantity of leaves only resembling tea in color.
No. 3—Colored with Indigo and aluminous earth.
No. 4—Colored with Prussian Blue and Gypsum, and mixed with leaves from other plants.
No. 5—Colored with Prussian Blue, Gypsum and Soapstone.
No. 6—Slightly colored with Indigo, Plumbago and Clay.
No. 7—Colored with Indigo, Plumbago and Gypsum.
No. 8—Slightly colored with Plumbago and Indigo.
No. 9—Colored with Plumbago and Clay.
No. 10—Slightly colored with Prussian Blue, Soapstone and Yellow Ochre.
No. 11—Colored with Indigo and Plumbago.
No. 12—"L. M. P." (in diamonds), L. P. Moore, Yokohama, perfectly free from dust and any artificial coloring or other foreign substance.
FRED C. KEIL.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 12th day of January, 1883. F. C. WEGENER, Notary Public.
San Francisco, January 11th, 1883.
L. P. Moore, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having read the result of the analysis of various brands of Japan Tea, we consider No. 12, marked "L. M. P." (in diamonds), packed by your firm in Yokohama, the only Tea of the twelve samples fit for use and perfectly wholesome—the other brands containing more or less injurious substances, and under no circumstances should be allowed to be used.

IDLE GOSSIP.
THERE IS NO IDLE GOSSIP HOWever, that the undersigned will take Portraits in any style or views to order in the best style of the Photographic Art, and on the most Reasonable Terms—but it is idle gossip which says "he will not try to please," for he always was and will be willing to please everyone who can be suited; and never treated anyone out of the way, and never will treat anyone otherwise than in a proper manner. Do not listen to gossip, but come and see for yourself—there is always two sides to a story.
