THE SPANISH REBELLION

Crowning of Oscar of Norway

The Wreck of the City of Washington

CONTRADICTORY STATEMENTS OF PASSENGERS

LONDON, July 14.—A heavy storm of rain and lightning swept over Yorkshire. Reports from various points in the country state that the crops are greatly damaged by the storm. Several were killed by lightning.

The Czarowitch and Princess Dagmar took leave of the Queen yesterday and departed for Darmstadt.

MADRID, July 14.—The Carlist success and atrocities at Alcoy have awakened a strong feeling against the insurgents. War meetings are being held at various prominent points in the provinces, notably at Barcelona, where a large and earnest meeting was held last night to offer moral and material support to the government in its efforts to suppress the Carlists.

ROME, July 14.—There were slight shocks of an earthquake yesterday, here and at Frazinon.

DUBLIN, July 14.—Everything passed off quietly in Londonderry and Belfast yesterday, and there were no disturbances here.

Price Arthur went to Christiana, to be present at the coronation of Oscar as King of Denmark.

HALIFAX, July 11.—The steamer Miston arrived here from Port Lebcor, yesterday evening, with the captain, officers and crew of the City of Washington, and one hundred and forty steerage passengers who were left behind on Thursday. The latter were immediately transferred to the steamer Somerset, which sailed for Boston at nine o'clock. Captain Phillips, the officers and some of the crew will await the arrival of the Tigress.

The sweeping charges made by Captain Powell, one of the cabin passengers, against the captain, officers and crew, accusing them of mismanagement and incompetency, both before and after the disaster, has caused no little astonishment, inasmuch as he had signed testimony directly opposite to what he published. Captain J. H. Hammond, also a cabin passenger, pronounces the statement of Powell devoid of truth. The captain in command, he says, was thoroughly disciplined, and kept a good watch during the entire voyage; is competent to speak, as he never retired for the night before 12 o'clock; that there were always two officers on the bridge, and two men on the lookout. The disaster is due altogether to the compasses, as the ship's course was correct.

One statement of Powell, that there was lack of discipline, cursing, swearing and confusion, at the time the ship [illegible] landed, officers did all that could be done under the circumstances, for the comfort of the passengers. Provisions in abundance were furnished to all, and everybody appeared satisfied. Captain Hammond is a seaman of much experience, and his opinion regarding the disaster is looked upon as important.

WASHINGTON.

Restoration of Property Seized for Political Offenses in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Minister Sickles telegraphs the State Department that the Spanish Government has issued a decree rescinding all embargoes and ordering the immediate restoration of all property heretofore seized for political offenses in Cuba.

Grant is not expected here this week.

Robinson returns to-night, and the final settlement shows the Government's loss by paymaster Hodge's defalcation to be $44,319.

W. D. O'Connor has been appointed chief clerk of the lighthouse board.

Indian Commissioner, Smith, has gone West to inspect the condition of affairs, and returns in the latter part of August. He goes to Fort Sill early in October for a council with the Kiowas and Comanches, where Governor Davis, of Texas, will have Big Tree and Santanta.

The British-American claims commission will not consider claims after the date of the close of the rebellion, as fixed by the treaty of Washington. This bars a large number of claims, aggregating some millions.

GENERAL NEWS.

Disappearance of the Cholera from Memphis

MILWAUKEE, July 14.—Grand Rapids had a three hundred thousand dollar fire last night.

ALBANY, July 14.—A fire in Greenbush destroyed twenty-four dwellings on Broadway and Columbia, and some lumber yards; loss $200,000.

EVANSVILLE, July 14.—Two cars ran off the track, on the Nashville division of the St. Louis and Southeastern railroad, Saturday night. Fifteen passengers were injured.

NEW HAVEN, July 14.—A man stabbed another fatally for tampering with his wife. The husband was found dead afterward, supposed to have died from excitement.

MEMPHIS, July 11.—The health of the city was never better than now. A few cases of sporadic cholera excite no apprehension. Many citizens who left during the prevalence of the cholera, have returned.

The crop reports from Arkansas, North Mississippi and West Tennessee are encouraging. Reports from North Alabama are conflicting.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Jefferson Davis has gone to Memphis.

Three of the six whole men from the Polaris, expected to go on the Tigress in search, have now withdrawn, on the ground that the government has failed to pay them to date.

A Paris correspondent quotes McMahon as saying: "Everything that can be done to secure the Pope's safety and the necessary liberties of the Holy See, shall be done; that it is directly against the interests of Italy to expel the Pope, for were he to take refuge elsewhere, the Catholics of all the world would be aroused and united against Italy."

PACIFIC COAST.

ESCAPE OF A BANK ROBBER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Some officers caught Tony Marshall, one of the bank robbers, near Columbus, but he broke away from them and ran off. The officers chased him on horseback for three miles and kept up a constant firing, but without effect, and he escaped.

There were two deaths from smallpox during the week.

A giant powder cartridge held in a man's hand exploded, tearing him to atoms.

Of the Mormon mission to Arizona, the object being to build that section of the Southern Pacific, is disastrous. Seven hundred are on their way home. They suffered terribly. Returning emigrants report much suffering from want of water and pasturage.

A Chinese washerwoman killed a German.

WHISKY AND THE KNIFE.

A Bloody Encounter.

We received the following letter, yesterday, postmarked Will's Point, the present terminus of the Texas Pacific, from a gentleman familiar with the facts embodied therein. It will be seen that but one of the parties involved, in what must have been a desperate emeute, is mentioned. Our correspondent will oblige us by a full report if the facts are conveniently attainable:

WILL'S POINT, Texas, July 13, '73.
To the Editor of The Dallas Herald:

John Kelly, a laborer on the Texas and Pacific Railway, died from the effects of an injury received in a drunken row yesterday. A post mortem examination by Dr. Zearing, developed hemorrhage, from a stab in the left breast apparently a puncture from the small blade of a pocket knife. One or two others received injuries, to what extent is not yet known. X.

The Cosmopolitans To-Morrow Night.

The mere mention that this troupe will perform, would suffice to draw a crowded house, but when is added to this the fact that the object of the performance is for the purpose of completing the aggregation of the amount necessary for the purchase of the fixtures and equipment for the Hook and Ladder Company, an additional attraction is lent thereto, and there should be no reason why every seat should not be occupied. Go, and give a positiveness to this matter.

THE prescription department of our friend, B. Ward, druggist, 58 Elm street, is, perhaps, the most complete in the city. He keeps always on hand a full stock of fresh and pure drugs and chemicals, is himself a thoroughly educated druggist, and his establishment is always open, night and day. See his card in another column.

"MAJOR" ALFORD, more generally known as Jupiter, desires us to say that he will take the stump, during the approaching campaign, for the Democratic nominee. His preferences are for Captain Adams, but he designs making a lion-fight for whover is the standard bearer.

St. George Prize Ice Cream Saloon.

Our acknowledgements are due the courteous and extremely liberal proprietor of this neat little place of resort for a quantity of most delightful ice cream, which the entire office luxuriated upon, last evening. Drop around on Lamar street, and try this compound, and the St. George will forever afterwards retain your custom.

FARMERS' MEETING AT LISBON.

According to previous notice, a farmers' meeting was held at Lisbon on Saturday, the 12th of July, 1873.

On motion, David R. Cameron was made Chairman, and James P. Goodnight, Secretary.

In compliance with the request of the Chairman, Gov. J. M. Crockett explained the object of the meeting, which was to consider the subject of organizing Granges of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry. The Governor gave a full and very satisfactory explanation of the object of the meeting, the reasons for and necessity of such organizations, as well as the benefits to be derived from them; concluding his remarks with a motion that the Chairman appoint a committee of five to draft suitable resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The motion was adopted, and the Chairman appointed Governor J. M. Crockett, H. D. L. Gracy, O. V. Ledbetter, W. T. Eill and James Tims.

The committee retired, and in their absence, B. F. Rickets, Esq., addressed the meeting, presenting some interesting facts and figures to show the necessity of farmers loking to their interests.

The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We, a portion of the farmers of Dallas county, under a high sense of duty to ourselves, our families and our country, have met to counsel of our common interests; and

Whereas, We are impressed with the solemn fact that we are not sharing the equal benefits of legislation, either State or national; for by the partial arbitration of each monopolies are created, exclusive privileges are granted, combinations are encouraged, and capitalists are favored to our prejudice; and

Whereas, We deem our misfortunes in this respect more a matter of oversight and undue influence than from any design—legislators over-estimating the ability, capacity, prosperity and security of the farmers of the country, when, in fact, by the effect of class legislation they are not secure, but on the decline, and their occupation, instead of being the noblest, is rapidly becoming ignoble; and

Whereas, It is the habit of farmers to live isolated, and to feel a self reliance that is most detrimental to all of their best interests, subjecting them to extensive impositions by the shrewd men of every other class; therefore

Resolved, 1. That we will unite in presenting our claims to fair, just and impartial legislation; in improving our social, mental and moral condition, as well as our mode of agriculture; that we will combine for the protection of our interests in common, and for better security against shrewd speculators in any and every form.

Resolved, 2. That we recognize in the order of the Patrons of Husbandry, a noble, moral and benevolent institution, free from political trickery and religious sectarianism; that the Granges are well suited to the promotion of the best interests of the community; that we recommend in the most friendly and earnest terms the organization of such at every suitable and convenient place in our county.

Resolved, 3. That while we deprecate all legislation that is inimical to the farming interests of the country, and while we feel that it is our imperative duty to fortify ourselves against monopolies, combinations, capitalists and shrewd traders, we do not pretend to proscribe honest and able Legislators of whatever occupation or profession they may be, or are fair and just men in any trade or business, but on the contrary, it shall be our purpose and our pride to encourage all such when we shall find them to be so.

John M. Crockett, Fayette Gracy, James Sims, O. Y. Ledbetter W. T. Gill, Committee.

On motion, Resolved, That the different newspapers of the city of Dallas be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, and that the Secretary furnish them with copies.

On motion, the meeting adjourned [illegible] on the south side of the river are requested to attend, and all persons friendly to our purpose respectfully invited. D. R. CAMERON, Chairman.

JAS. P. GOODNIGHT, Secretary.

Meeting of Democratic Club.

Pursuant to a call by the President, the Democratic Club of Precinct No. 1 met last night, and was called to order by its regular Chairman, Chas T. Marries.

C. H. Jenkins, J. G. Eblen, J. W. Jackson and W. H. Lemmons made short but appropriate addresses, when, on motion, Judge Nat. M. Burford was called to the rostrum, and in a speech of more than one hour's duration, reviewed the history of the Democratic party, and in conclusion complimented the club on its organization, and urged its members to preserve themselves intact, assuring them that in due time their combined services would be required. At the conclusion of Judge Burford's speech a motion was made and carried that this club give a grand Democratic barbacue, to which the people of Texas be invited, for the purpose of bringing together all elements of our citizens, both in town and country, and that a committee of five be appointed to superintend its arrangement. The following gentlemen were appointed said committee: Major J. E. Barkley, Captain Jeff. Peak, Captain W. H. Lemmons, W. W. Barton, J. L. Leonard.

On motion the President and Secretary were added to the committee, when it was moved and carried that the club adjourn until next Friday evening, at which time Hon. John Henry Brown will address the citizens of this precinct and county.

C. T. MORRISS, President.
J. G. EBLEN, Secretary.

WE believe we have failed to notice the terrible devastations lately by fires, which have destroyed many thousands of acres of woodland along the seaboard of Massachusetts. These fires prevailed during the last week in June. The account say that not less than sixty square miles of territory were laid bare by the flames, and thousands of cords of wood were reduced to ashes. At times, the burning mass presented a front of flame eight miles in extent, and all the efforts to arrest it were unavailing. This devastation spread along the coast in the neighborhood of Cape Cod. The loss is said to extend to millions, but we have seen no exact estimate. Nearly one thousand men were employed a full week in trying to arrest the flames.—[Galveston News.

Claims "Back Pay."

An old school teacher in Maine has been presenting her claims for back pay. She says that years ago she kept school for three dollars a week, and boarded herself, and that some of her scholars, who were hard cases, and difficult to bring into decent discipline, are now smart, enterprising and prosperous citizens, while she, who aided them effectually in becoming such, is comparatively poor. The old lady seems to have a better case than the Congressmen.

Thrilling Circus Episode.

The following is reported in Mendville. During one of the scenes at the circus last night, while several performances were in progress, a young lady was looking at two clowns whirling a hat in the air with a stick, and observed to her young man that she "used to do that." The young lady happened to be looking at a contortionist, in another part of the arena, with both legs tied around his neck. An explanation was made necessary.

We take this occasion to thank our friends for past favors, and respectfully call their attention to our immense stock, which we are just receiving direct from the principal manufacturers of the North and West, purchasing direct from first hands for cash on the spot, and availing ourselves of every advantage by shipping in car loads under special contract, and by our own labor almost freeing ourselves from store expenses. We feel confident in our ability to offer to our friends and to the public generally our share materially less figures than has ever before been offered in the interior of Texas.

As a basis and foundation of our business, we guarantee every article to be as represented, or money refunded at our expense of transportation.

Our success in business depends entirely upon establishing a wholesale trade in Northern Texas, and we only ask a fair and impartial trial, and a close comparison of uniform prices with those of Shreveport, Galveston, and New Orleans with freights added, and we cheerfully abide by the decision of the same.
