TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 8 (Special).—The oats market was the leader to-day, at one time 1⅛@1⅜c higher than Saturday, and closing ⅞@1c over. The map decided the tone. The West had no rain Sunday, and Kansas had maximum temperatures around 100 degrees. The forecast offered little relief for to-morrow—possible showers in some of the States, with clear and warmer in the States which have suffered worst. The West and Southwest led the buying of oats; the selling was by local bulls. September opened at 29⅛c, sold between 29⅛c and 30⅛c, and closed at 30c; July touched 28½c, 30⅛c, and closed at 29½c. All the advices are that oats everywhere are thin, and decidedly bad in Kansas, Texas and Missouri. The selling to-day was led by McReynolds, Counsiman and the Phillips crowd. Patten added to his long line; Barrell, Pringle, Harris and Bartlett-Frazier were buyers. St. Louis was a conspicuous buyer. The visible decreased 136,000 bushels and Chicago decreased 1,052,000 bushels. A feature was the sudden spurt at St. Louis, the July there getting to 2c over Chicago and the September 1c over.

Western buying was as much the feature in corn as in oats. Local corn holders took profits. Prices at one time showed ¾c to 1¼c over Saturday; they closed ⅝c to ⅞c over. The weather was the important influence—the heat and drouth of Sunday and the prospect of little relief for the next thirty-six hours. September sold at 47⅝c and at 48½c, and closed at 48⅛c. July closed at 46½c sellers, the December at 47⅝c sellers, and the May at 48½c. Crop advices are unfavorable from Kansas, Missouri and Texas; generally favorable from Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois. The West was a liberal seller of cash last night. The selling of futures was led by Armour, Barrell, Comstock, Phillips and local bulls; the buying was by Bartlett-Frazier, Harris, Trego-Montgomery and Raymond-Pynchon. The Southwest was buying corn as well as oats.

The inspection was 170 cars; the estimate for Tuesday, 310 cars. Nothing was done for shipments; cables were steady. Clearances were 776,000 bushels. The visible decreased 686,000 bushels; the Chicago stock increased 51,000 bushels. There was a decrease on passage of 440,000 bushels. The talent here is taking profits on corn freely. New-York reported 5 loads.

Wheat was weak and dull, the close ⅝c to 1⅜c under Saturday. September sold at 64⅞c and at 64⅝c and closed at 64¾c bid; December closed at 66c. Lack of speculation, larger Western offerings and poorer export demand were the factors. All foreign prices were lower. Wheat professionals were bearish.

The grading of the new wheat continues the highest ever known; 3 cars of No. 1 red here to-day. Cash sales, 100,000. The seaboard reported 73 loads.

Flaxseed was weak and dull, prices off 6c to 12c for the futures. The October was offered at $1 39½c, the September at $1 49. Cash unchanged at $1 88. There were 35 cars of seed at the three points, against 4 last year.

Provisions were neglected and weak, pork off 30c; lard and ribs off 5c to 7½c. The outsider is not in the market. The packer is not disposed to bull prices for the benefit of the speculator. Cash demand is only fair.
