

Gorman's Son-in-Law for Stanley for Congress.

Dear Mr. Stanley:—I am taking the liberty of writing you, expressing my sincere and earnest hope that you may be the means of redeeming the 5th Congressional District of this State for the Democratic Party.

My acquaintance with you, extending over many years as members of the same community, justifies me in saying that in times past you have made personal sacrifices in the interest of party harmony that you have never failed or faltered, whatever may have been your likes or dislikes, to contribute your services and influence for the common end, and only believe it will be the pleasure of your political associates and friends, among whom you have spent years of a well rounded life, to give you, though a Congressional nomination, the recognition of the esteem and confidence in which you are held.

Before the next Congress of the United States, there will be presented questions of great moment—questions the solution of which are big with possibilities, and the opportunity of the National Democratic Party to obtain and retain a position of commanding influence, absolutely demands that the democracy of this State should put forward as its standard bearer in the congressional campaign, men of known ability and integrity—men with firmness of character and free from doubtful influences.

That you possess those characteristics, no one can gainsay, and combined with these essentials your sympathies have ever been with the solid masses—those who hew the wood and draw the water.

It requires only a rudimentary knowledge of human affairs to understand that the wearing away of the fetters of blind party fealty are but the manifestations of a protest, which as yet has taken no concrete form, against commercialism in politics and the corruption of legislative bodies.

Co-extensive with this social discontent, we have been forced to bear the iniquitous burden of a high protective tariff—a tax levied on the skill and industry of the masses in order that the favors of the Republican Party may be extended to particular interests—a tariff which has fostered monopolies and crushed out individual initiative.

These are some of the pernicious and destructive evils which must be eradicated, and the day is not far distant when the spirit of greed and avarice as personified by Aldrich and Cannon and written by them on the Statute Books will be rooted out of our political life.

But your wide experience and matured mind should tell you that popular clamor and political agitation against the evils that exist, that stops short of effective, conservative and intelligent actions, is as senseless as it is useless.

To the correction of these things, you, as a member of Congress, would be a potent factor through your long services as one of the leading men of the bar of this State, and by reason of your extensive business connections, bringing you in touch with all conditions of society.

As a willing and zealous worker in the party ranks who has valued your friendship for many years, I feel I have the right to make known through you, to my former neighbors and associates in the 5th Congressional District, some of the reasons which stamp you peculiarly as a democrat worthy to uphold the high standard of conscientious devotion to duty as set by our last democratic representative from Southern Maryland, the late Barnes Compton, than whom no finer type of the Southern gentleman and civic manhood ever represented this or any other State in the House of Representatives.

From your long and intimate personal and political association with the late Barnes Compton and my distinguished father-in-law, the late Senator A. F. Gorman, whose regard for you as a man and a neighbor was beyond cavil, it seems peculiarly appropriate that you should speak from the loyal friends and supporters of those sterling democrats some recognition of your lifelong devotion to the principles of the democratic party, and some recognition of your aid and support of its candidates and principles when others faltered or turned aside.

Should the people of Southern Maryland, in the unrestrained exercise of their right, select you as their Congressional nominee, I will willingly contribute whatever influence and energy I can command towards your triumphant election. With assurances of my kindest regards, believe me,

Very faithfully,
S. W. GAMBRELL.

VITAL WASHINGTON NEWS.

By TAVENNER.

The American people will recall that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's price-investigating committee found that no part of the 58 per cent increase in the cost of living in this country in the last 10 years was due to the tariff. Political economists all over the land were sorely puzzled at the report.

The phenomenon can now be explained. The report of the minority of the committee, recently published, shows that the Republicans made no serious attempt to ascertain whether the tariff was responsible or not. Listen to this extract from the minority report: "In examining the witnesses we (the committee) scarcely touched upon the territory of the highly protected commodities. Lodge, who helped frame the Payne-Aldrich bill and takes the position that the ultimate consumer is a myth, saw to it that the investigations were confined almost exclusively to foodstuffs and cotton, and to the production, distribution and cost to the consumer of wheat, corn, beef, mutton and hog products, of which commodities the United States produces a large per cent of the world's production, and which we export in enormous quantities. As to these articles it may be supposed that, when freed from the influence of trusts and monopolies, the tariff should not cut a large figure except that it increases the cost of their production.

Do you see the point, Mr. Consumer? Lodge had been assigned by Senator Aldrich to make a report, obviously for campaign purposes, which would absolve the tariff from all blame in connection with the awful increase in the cost of living under our system of excessive protection. Lodge evidently concluded that the safest way to accomplish this end would be to avoid asking any questions of witnesses concerning the advances in the prices of highly protected articles, such as the products of the sugar trust, the steel trust, the harvester trust and the lumber trust, all of which contribute heavily to the Republican campaign fund.

The Lodge report gave fifteen reasons for increased prices, and found the tariff was "no material factor." This report is being used by the men who voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill in the hope it will prevent them from being re-elected to private life.

TARIFF INCREASES PRICES. Senators Johnston of Alabama, Clarke of Arkansas, and Smith of South Carolina, the minority members of the Lodge committee, find that the three substantial causes for increased prices are:

- 1. Tariff.
2. Trusts, combines and monopolies.
3. Increased money supply.

Owing to the tactics of the Republicans in avoiding highly protected articles, the minority members found themselves "without sufficient data to apportion the degree of responsibility between these three causes," but state "that the two first are the chief malefactors which we have no doubt, and they are of our own creation or permission."

A CAMPAIGN CANARD. "Taft will no longer cooperate with Cannon, Aldrich, and Ballinger is to be retired." This is the gist of statements carried by the Associated Press, and obviously inspired by Republican campaign managers.

The information may be accepted as nothing more than a ruse. The Republican campaign managers played the same trick on the public in the last Presidential election. The rumor was quietly started that Candidate Taft did not approve of Speaker Cannon. The inference was strong that Taft would not stand for Cannon as speaker. This false rumor or unmistakably helped Taft in the insurgent districts.

Immediately after Taft was inaugurated an attempt was made to defeat Cannon as speaker. The combined Democrats and Insurgents would have accomplished this and had not the President used all of the resources at his command to perpetuate Cannon as speaker.

Taft is not going to read Aldrich and Cannon out of the party, because Aldrich and Cannon (and the special interests they represent) will not permit the President to have a re-nomination if he tries it. Mr. Taft knows which side his bread is buttered on.

Furthermore, there is no reason for discord. Taft, Aldrich and Cannon, and Ballinger, too, are all working to the same end. Their views are in harmony on big questions. No newspaper man can be here in Washington and know his business, and not know that Taft, Aldrich and Cannon are consolidated in a great political firm, and that this oligarchy has never had any serious dissension.

The three men are constantly paying each other compliments. It was just a short while ago that Taft eulogized Aldrich to the skies and referred to "Uncle Joe" as being in the Abraham Lincoln type of statesmen.

the Payne-Aldrich law, in the opinion of the writer. There never has been any doubt on this point in my mind, and I have expressed the view repeatedly in dispatches since March 4, 1909. But Roosevelt will indorse Lodge, tool of Aldrich and special senate representative of the tariff trusts, railroads and other New England corporate interests. Nor do I expect to hear of Roosevelt campaigning for such genuine progressive reforms. Roosevelt is playing for the presidency, and is jealous of LaFollette's popularity. At this stage Taft appears to stand a better chance of hauling down the next Republican presidential nomination than does T. R. This is because Taft stands right with the great corporate interests of the United States, and they control absolutely the Republican machine. Roosevelt was turned down in New York because the machine politicians know that Roosevelt is to be an insurgent. They feared that if they permitted him to be even a temporary chairman he might take advantage of the opportunity to weaken machine rule. The fight may be expected to be intensely interesting from now on. Keep a close eye on the political checker board, because a few intimations may be let drop which will show who is really in control of the government of this country.

WHAT'S THIS! The Payne-Aldrich law is not now bringing in sufficient revenue to run the government, reports from the Republicans are untrue, to the contrary notwithstanding. The tariff law, the corporation tax, internal revenue receipts, and all other sources of revenue, combined, failed by $3,014,842.77 of producing sufficient funds to run the government during the first 16 days of August.
