The pilot boat Mary E Fish, No. 4, whose launch we noticed a short time since, went on a trial trip yesterday, and around the Lightship, returning to the city in the evening. Her performance was highly satisfactory to her builder, Mr E F Williams, and the pilots who own her, as also to a large number of invited guests. She belongs to the New Jersey and Sandy Hook pilots, and is commanded by Capt R Brown, formerly of the Mary Taylor. She spreads 22 yards of canvass in her three sails—the mainsail, foresail and jib—which were much admired for shape and make. They were made in this city by Mr Lemuel Burrows, of 175 South street.

The U S steamer Mercury, Capt Lowber, being in the vicinity, proceeded to her assistance, but before reaching her, pilot boat No. 9, Capt Hammond, launched a small sail and saved them, when they were transferred to the Mercury. The injured man was taken to the Sailor's Retreat, S I. The M made an effort to tow her, but owing to her anchor being out, did not succeed.
