LEONARDTOWN, MD.
FRANCIS V. KING, Editor.

THURSDAY MORNING, Sept. 22, 1910.

J. Enos Ray, Jr., the Democratic candidate for Congress has been making a tour of the Congressional District and was in Leonardtown on Tuesday. Mr. Ray saw many of our people and made a most favorable impression. He will undoubtedly make a forceful and vigorous campaign and the signs of the times are that his efforts will be successful. Mr. Ray will make a good Congressman.

The Republican Mass Meeting.

The Republican Mass Meeting at Leonardtown last Tuesday was attended by most of the people present at Court. Capt. William F. Chesley was chairman of the meeting. F. Stone Fossey was the first speaker. Hon. Oliver S. Metzgerrot was the next speaker, and was followed by the Hon. Thomas Parzan, the candidate for Congress. The Hon. Metzgerrot's remarks might have been omitted with pleasure to the audience and profit to his cause. Candidate Parzan's speech was in his usual pleasant and facetious vein and his little "stories" kept his audience in good humor and elicited much laughter, even though they had little bearing on the issues of the day. Tom announced that he was a "progressive Republican" and told how he had progressed from one office to another and hoped to keep on going. The local brass band was in attendance.

VITAL WASHINGTON NEWS.

By TAVENNER.

Spending $3,567,685.66 every business day, the United States under the reign of the standpat Republicans has become the most extravagant government in the world. Increased expenditures in the first year of the Taft administration, over the corresponding year of Cleveland's last administration, amounted to $75,730,600, or over 120 per cent. This occurred under the much-heralded Taft policy of "cut-to-the-quick" economy, recently repudiated in Maine and Vermont.

National expenditures for the ensuing year amounted to $1,098,847,184, which is more than the entire capital of all the national banks in the United States, $919,143,825, and more than one-third of the entire output of all of our gold mines in 120 years, $3063,787,000.

Two striking illustrations of the Republican "business" administration are: A deficit of $11,579,265 since June 30, 1910. A deficit of $180,381,355 69 since June 30, 1907.

Here are some of the ways the standpatters spend the people's money in a republic:

Marble baths for senators. Autos to carry them 100 rods between their offices and the Capitol. Touring cars for the President, vice-president and "Uncle Joe."

More than $2,500 for apollinaris water for the Senators. Thousands of dollars to keep them in vaseline, castor oil, olive oil, perfume, quinine, hair tonic, costly perfumes, glycerine, bergamot, nail brushes, clothes brushes, traveling expenses in attending funerals, etc.

MUCH MONEY WASTED.

If the waste at Washington is $300,000,000 a year, as stated by Aldrich, every American family suffers to the extent of $16.66 every year. This enough to buy a suit of clothes. It will buy an overcoat or a cloak. It will buy nearly three tons of anthracite coal. It will buy four or five pairs of shoes, or various other necessities.

EXTRAVAGANCE INCREASES PRICES.

Under our system of excessive protection, government extravagance and cost of living keep pace. As the government raises practically all of its revenue by taxing things eaten, worn or used, the consumer pays his pro rata of government extravagance every time he buys a protected article at his local grocery, dry goods or furniture store.

This rule proves itself. The per capita appropriation by Congress jumped from $6 to $12 between 1890 and 1910. Increasing in almost exact proportion, the prices of 100 leading articles, according to Bradstreet, advanced 56 per cent. between 1896 and 1910.

PEOPLE ARE NOT REPRESENTED.

An increased annual tax of more than $100,000,000 has been saddled upon the American people through increased freight rates within the last few years without opposition by the government. But this is not enough. The railroads want still more revenue, and as soon as the November elections are over it is believed they will be allowed to boost their rates a couple of notches higher.

The interstate commerce commission is now going through the formal procedure of taking testimony as to the reasonableness of the new increases which, according to the estimates of the commission, will swell the annual profits of the railroads $500,000,000. There are high-priced lawyers for the railroads at the hearings, and also an imposing array of legal talent for the bigshippers. The public alone is unrepresented.

One fact that has cropped out at the hearing is that the railroads seem to have unanimously agreed that the increased rates shall apply where they will be the least annoyance to the trusts and big combinations of manufacturers. The added burden is to be laid on the little fellow—the merchant, the householder, the father and mother of the families, the country storekeeper and the farmer. Products of the trusts enjoy a striking immunity from increases. This is not hard to understand. It is not easy for the railroads to put an increased rate over on the sugar or the steel trust. Such increases would be fought tooth and nail and probably defeated by counsel for the combines who gather like flies about the room in which the commission meets. But it is easy money to put an increased rate over on the general consumer, because he isn't present to enter objection for him.

The interstate commerce commission declares it represents none in particular, but sits as a judicial body wholly. The result is that in many, many instances the case goes against the consumer by default.

WEATHER WAS CLEAR.

When the results of the Vermont election showed a 27 per cent. slump in the Republican vote, the Republican leaders in Washington declared the phenomenon was due to rainy weather. Then came the sweeping Democratic victories in Maine. As the election took place on a clear day, it would indicate the change in sentiment going on all over the country bears no relationship whatever to atmospheric conditions. If the election of the Democratic candidate for governor, Plaisted, by a plurality of 8,782, is not sufficient to discredit the weather theory, here are results of other elections held on pleasant days which tell their own stories:

Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, elected to Congress from Massachusetts March 22 by a plurality of 5,640.

James S. Havens, Democrat, elected to Congress from New York by a plurality of 5,831.

C. C. Atkinson, Democrat, elected to Congress from Missouri on February 1 by a plurality of 3,778, the Democratic majority in 1908 being only 1,995.

TAFT REPUDIATED.

The recent overwhelming victory of Senator LaFollette was a clear-cut and direct repudiation of President Taft by the people of Wisconsin.

Colonel Roosevelt draws the line at Senators Lorimer; he can stand Cannon, Aldrich, Payne, Guggenheim, Smoot—who all have shady political reputations—and can swap yarns with them, but somebody must be made an example and Lorimer was a shilling mark.

Louisiana will have to be up and doing if it is to capture the Panama International Exposition of 1915. A special session of the California legislature has proposed two amendments to the state constitution which will allow an additional $10,000,000 for the financing of the Exposition, and over $7,000,000 for the provided by private subscription.

Representative McKinlay of California, a Connonite, whom the voters of his district have decided they can better do without, is engaged by the Republican Congressional committee to stump Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee; probably on the theory that he can't do very much harm in those states.

As To Insurgents.

Vice President Sherman is evidently worthless as a political prophet, for after attending the standpat convention at Milwaukee two or three months ago he declared with solemn assurance, "there are no insurgents in Wisconsin." The result of the primary election shows that Senator LaFollette, the most progressive insurgent of them all, was renominated by a vote of 3 to 1. Sherman, or his standpat Wisconsin pals, concocted a scheme to beat LaFollette with a Democrat when the legislature votes for United States Senator; but the Democrats do not seem to hanker after such a combination; and Teddy has denounced it as an "outrage," and on the part of the Republicans, "an act of bad faith." It will be interesting to see what Mr. Jim Sherman will do to Teddy, or whether Mr. Roosevelt will jiu jitsu Jim when they clash at the convention in New York. In any event "Sunny Jim" will discover by that time there are insurgents in Wisconsin and a few in New York.
