☞ IOWA.—The returns are still incomplete; but the Whigs have undoubtedly elected their Governor, but not probably all the State officers, and certainly a member of Congress in the Northern District. The Southern District is claimed by both parties. The Whigs have the House, but we were informed by an Iowa gentleman, yesterday, that the Senate was unquestionably Democratic. Half of that body "holds over," a majority of which were Democrats. It is possible, therefore, that no U. S. Senator may be chosen by the Legislature elect, after all.

MEDICAL NOTICES.

REPEAL! REPEAL!!

Let the watchword of the people be, Repeal! When men become so infatuated with power, either in possession or expectancy, as to run off after every new dogma, and at the gidding of their imperial masters, pass laws in direct violation of the plainest principles of our republican institutions, it becomes the Vox Populi to rise in their might, without distinction of party, and compel our servants to repeal those obnoxious portions of our laws that strike at the root of our independence. So, also physically; when men run off after every new fangled nostrum opened to the public. They not only endanger their own, but the lives of their families and friends. It is therefore with pleasure we again recommend to the afflicted the use of MCALISTER'S ALL-HEALING OINTMENT, an old and well tried remedy, and almost certain cure for Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Weavels Scald Head, Ague in the breast, Corns, Spinal Affections, Fevers, and all Febrile diseases, too numerous to mention.—That by restoring the insensible perspiration, item to the system to throw off all the old worn out particles, thereby restoring to sound and perfect health. For sale by J. B. P. Sampsel & co., and R. B. Chubb & co., Ashland; J. McCoy, Milton: T. W. Coulter, Perrysville; D. E. Stockman, Loudonville; L. Spencer & co., McKay; J. Kinninger & co. A Wonderful Discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of consumption, asthma, and all diseases of the lungs.—We refer to Dr. Curtis's Hygean or, Inhaling Hygean Vapor and cherry syrup." Within this new method the Dr. has cured many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contract with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subject to the process of digestion. The Hygean is for sale at all the druggists throughout the country.—N Y. Dutchman.

THE relaxing heats of summer leave behind them a long train of evils. The most universal of these are general debility, and its sure attendant, lowness of spirits. For these we can recommend a speedy and unfailing cure, in the shape of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. It is, in our opinion, a medicine sui generis—alone—unapproachable. It seems to reach the fountain head of the difficulty in the digestive organization, and thus to relieve the secretions and restore to health and vigor the energies of disease. Its tonic properties give vigor to the membranes of the stomach, and promote the secretion of the gastric juice, which dissolves the food, while its cordial, soothing, and alterative influence imparts general regularity and strength to the action of the secretive organs, and seems to fortify the constitution. Such is our own experience of its effects, and we believe it is confirmed by the evidence of all who have tried it, or had an opportunity of witnessing its operation. For sale by Dr. Jackson, 120 Arch street. 2w14

We have frequently heard the celebrated German Bitters, spoken of in terms of the highest commendation, and we honestly believe that it is one of the best medicines advertised for the complaints for which it is recommended. They are pleasant to the taste, and can be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate stomach. The press far and wide, have united in commending this invaluable remedy, for dyspepsia, debility, &c: and such are the healing effects of this panacea, that we do not may be introduced to every family where dyspepsia has, or is likely to have a victim. 2w14

Read this Letter in favor of Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam.

DR. A. L. ADAMS—Dear Sir: I hereby certify that your valuable Liver Balsam, in my opinion, is the best remedy for Ague and Fever, Billious or Liver Complaint, that has ever been introduced, and this I am convinced is the case from my own experience; therefore I speak with confidence of its true merit.

Important to Teachers.

The Principal of Granger's Commercial College,

HAVING some time since secured the invaluable services of Prof. TRACY, of New York, author of a series of Mathematical works, to lecture before his Students upon Commercial Calculations, has been induced, by urgent solicitations of Teachers, to have the Professor, in connection with others, deliver a course of Lectures upon all branches of Education, before a Normal Class, during the month of August.

The reputation of Prof. TRACY as a Mathematician, and his clear and lucid manner of demonstration, are too well known to require comment. For many years he was Principal of the Classical Institute, N. York, and deservedly ranks as one of the best teachers of the age.

These Lectures are intended to benefit the Students in attendance at the Commercial College, but the arrangements will include those who do not wish to take a College course. To those who design to pursue the business of teaching, especially, this opportunity will be a golden one, coming as it does in vacation season, and at so little expense to them, and proffering such rich advantages.

☞ Arrangements are being made to secure the services of one of the best teachers of Penmanship in the country.

TERMS.—Students of the College, or those who become students at the commencement, during the lectures, or purchase scholarships of the Institution to attend at any subsequent period within six months, will be entitled to the Lectures free of charge.

Those who desire only to attend the lectures, including penmanship, will be charged ten dollars.

☞ The Lectures to commence on the 8th of August.

N. B. Teachers can have access to an excellent Library in the College building.

WM. W. GRANGER, Principal.

TO SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The Board of Examiners deeming it important to the interest of the Public Schools, that the teachers and those designing to become such, should avail themselves of every opportunity offered for their advancement, beg leave to state the inducements to attend GRANGER'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, during the month of August:

1st. Instructions will be given in all the branches of Science, ordinarily required in our Common Schools.

2d. PENMANSHIP will be taught thoroughly and systematically. The latter inducement the Board consider highly flattering.

To those who do not teach except during the cold season, a good opportunity is offered to review their studies, which all acknowledge a single term is far from doing.

To those who do not consider themselves thoroughly prepared for teaching, a fine chance is given to make a due preparation for their responsible work.

To those who have never taught a rare opportunity is afforded to gain the requisite knowledge. In a word, we may say, that in our opinion there is sufficient inducement for all who have taught or wish to teach, to spend a few weeks in attendance upon these Lectures.

Prof. TRACY needs no commendation from us—he is known to you. Of Mr. GRANGER we simply say, that in our judgment, he will spare no labor or expense in procuring amply qualified instructors to assist.

M. DAY, } Board of ALEX. BARTLETT, } Examiners.

NOTE.—Mr. SHUPE, our fellow Examiner, is now absent from the State, but we are fully persuaded that he would most heartily subscribe to this recommendation were he here.

MAKE YOUR HAIR CURL.

A CERTAIN LORD who went princely dressed, once told his barber that his chief object was the sovereignest thing on earth for inward wounds." Well, we do not gainsay that; but we do know that Prof. M. Louis Garvey's Celebrated Recipe

For Curling and Waving the Hair,

"is the sovereignest thing on earth." The proprietor, on leaving France, procured of the renowned Chemist and Physiologist, Mons. JAQUES, this valuable receipe at an immense expense.

All persons desirous of having their Hair curled and waive in beautiful ringlets till the latest period of life can have the same for one dollar, post paid.

This is a discovery which most persons have reason to doubt. Human ingenuity has sought for years to perfect a HAIR LIQUID that would curl and waive it—and one that should combine the requisites to give the hair a beautiful natural tint, and at the same time not injure it. All former attempts have failed. The compounds would curl the hair, but they would scorch, burn and turn it foxy. Now, however, the thing has been accomplished; and the splendid Hair Curling Liquid which Profs. M. Louis Carvey and Byron H. Robb offer to the public may be relied upon as a preparation compounded on recently discovered chemical principles, which have received the sanction of the most eminent professors of that science. It gives the hair a soft glossy appearance and causes it to curl and waive in such beautiful ringlets that the most credulous person cannot but admire them. It does not destroy the vitality of the hair, but acts as an emollient: does not irritate or stain the curled; warms the triangular fibres with their thousand imperceptible branches in a natural activity, and never fails of success. It has been before the public but a few weeks, yet its merits have already established it. Such ever whelming popularity was never known at any age, of the world before. In the western and southern States, it has become the only reliable Hair Curling Liquid in use. The receipe will be sent to any part of the United States by sending one dollar.

☞ Beware of counterfeits. All letters should be directed to Prof. M. LOUIS GARVEY, and BYRON H. ROBB, only.

The Principal of the Institution, guided by the wants and experiences of the Mercantile community has recently secured some of the ablest men in the State as Instructors and Lecturers in the various departments of this College.

The Prof. of the Science of Accounts, has had an experience of eight or nine years in Commercial Affairs, alternating business partly as Teacher, in the Mercantile Colleges of Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Cleveland, and partly as an actual Book-keeper in the wholesale business Houses in the Country. These rare qualifications, yet so desirable and so seldom found in our Mercantile Schools, will enable this Institute to secure a more thorough knowledge of the real Maestro of Practical and Theoretical Book-Keeping than can be had probably by any similar institution in the U. States.

The subject of Commercial Calculations will have more prominence in this than in most Institutions of the kind, since a separate chair is to be devoted to it besides the usual instruction given by the Prof. of Accounts. The modus operandi of Teaching is entirely new and original—pursued by no Mercantile School—found in no text book, and may be justly and properly styled telegraphic in its nature, since it will abridge the labors of the Accountant, more than one half.

Penmanship in addition to the usual methods pursued, will be taught upon new and unrivalled System of Chirythmography, developed by the Principal in his extensive experience as Instructor in the Public Schools of this city and elsewhere. This system will produce the popular Commercial Hand of the day, in about half the time usually devoted to that purpose.
