

Saint Mary's Beacon.

COUNTY NEWS.

Localwise and Otherwise.

We have on hand several mortuary tributes which we will publish as soon as possible.

Miss Lottie May Fenwick, of Washington, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Francis V. King, Leonardtown.

Don't forget the Wheeler Circus, booked to show in Leonardtown, Tuesday, October 11, instant. See advertisement. This is said to be a real first-class show.

F. O. Morgan, of Leonardtown, has bought of Mrs. E. Leigh Morgan the old Morgan home situated between his property and the residence of Dr. F. F. Greenwell.

James J. Norris, of Leonardtown, has purchased the dwelling formerly occupied by Judge Camalier and the old Boyd Restaurant building, Leonardtown, for $2,000.

Mr. Geo. L. Goodacre, of Washington, formerly a partner of Mr. Harry Bowling, of Leonardtown, was in St. Mary's last week, and bought 8 ponies of Mr. Andrews, of Clements.

Next Tuesday, the 11th, instant, is the last chance to be registered to vote in this Fall's election. If your name is not now on the books or is not then put on, you cannot vote this year.

Dr. Weems Petherbridge, of Charlotte Hall, returned to his home the next week, after spending some time at the home of his sister, Miss Jennie Petherbridge, at Dunkirk.—Calyari Journal.

Mr. Raymond K. Foxwell, son of Postmaster Charles W. Foxwell, of Leonardtown, has entered the Medical College of the University of Maryland at Baltimore. We wish him great success in his chosen profession and hope he will be a great doctor.

The Festival for the benefit of Holy Angels' Hall, Milestown district, held on September 27th, ultimo, was a grand success and cleared all but a remnant of the debt from the Hall. The total receipts were over $400. Fuller account next week.

Hon. J. Enos Ray, Jr., will address a meeting at St. Inigo's, on Thursday, October 13, instant. Gen. Murray Vandiver and Senator Linthicum, of Baltimore, will also speak. The meeting will be called promptly at 2 p. m. We hope there will be a large attendance.

Harry Bowling left Sunday last for Marlboro' to start Bedworth, in the Free for All race; from Marlboro', he will take Bedworth Jr. to Laurel, and then return home to get the St. Mary's racer in shape to go against Dr. Chase, a 2 1/2 trotter and the fastest horse on the tri-city circuit.

The barge Seneca, of Philadelphia, has been unloaded of stone for the State Road and has sailed, and the barge Diascond, of Philadelphia, is now at Leonardtown wharf and unloading. The management of the State Road is pushing the job rapidly to completion and Mr. Donnelly, the superintendent, hopes to have the Leonardtown end of the contract surfaced before December.

The course of three illustrated lectures by Mr. George Forbes, with colored lantern slides and motion pictures, will begin at Charlotte Hall School on Friday evening, October 15th. From the testimonials in the illustrated booklet, of which we have a copy, it is evident that these are lectures of such merit and entertainment, that the people of St. Mary's County will do well to make an especial effort to be present.

It is a great pity that something cannot be done to lay the dust in the streets of Leonardtown. The road engines and their trailers have worked the streets up until they are covered with dust of the consistency of flour which blows into the residences along the way and makes them almost uninhabitable. Superintendent Donnelly informs us that he will furnish a sprinkling cart and water if the Town fathers will supply the motive power.

There were three disastrous fires in St. Inigo's district last week. On Tuesday night, September 27th at midnight, fire was discovered in the "West" Hotel near Miller's Wharf and the building was soon reduced to a heap of ashes, some men who were sleeping therein narrowly escaping with their lives. At midnight on the following Wednesday, the storehouse at Beechville occupied by William Glazier was burned with its contents, the fire when discovered having gained such headway that almost nothing could be saved. At 3 p. m., on Friday, September 30th, an unoccupied house belonging to Walter Bennett, colored, in the same district, was burned to the ground.

It is reported that two cases of infantile paralysis have appeared in St. Mary's county and are under treatment; infantile paralysis according to Surgeon-General Walter Wyman, of the Bureau of Public Health, Washington, now numbers its victims in all parts of the United States and has become a public peril. Poliomyelitis is the scientific name of the disease. The disease is a baffling one and many cases result in death.

We are informed that the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Montgomery County, Md., has determined to further reduce the rate of interest on its premium notes to 2 1/2 per cent for the year 1911. This reduction is made in view of the large surplus now in the treasury and the small losses in the past few years. This is the fourth reduction made in the premium rate since Mr. George R. Garner has been agent for the company—a period of about ten years.

C. Ben Greenwell youngest son of Mrs. Mamie Combs Greenwell and of the late James J. Greenwell, died at his mother's residence in Medley's Neck, last Tuesday in the fifth year of his age. Ben was a bright, manly little boy, the pride of his home and his death is peculiarly sad. He was sick but a short time, infantile paralysis being the cause of death. The bereaved family have our heartfelt sympathy.

"One less at home
The charmed circle broken—a dear boy's face
Missed day by day from its accustomed place;
But cleansed and saved and perfected by grace.
One more in Heaven."

Mrs. Mary Jane Moore died at the residence of William A. Fenwick, Washington, D. C., on Monday, October 3, 1910, in the 87th year of her age. Most of her long and useful life was spent in St. Mary's county, where for many years she was in charge of the famous old "Moore's Hotel." There are few of our older readers who have not at some time been the recipient of her hospitality and who are not under obligations to her for numerous acts of kindness. As a wife, mother and friend she was ever a model and few have gone to their reward more sincerely lamented by relatives, friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Moore was a woman of keenest sympathies for all distressed, was one of the kindest of neighbors, most devoted of mothers and sincerest of friends. The death of her husband, the late Jackson W. J. Moore left her with a large family and with limited material resources for the battle of life, but she took up the contest bravely and met and overcame obstacles that would have disheartened many men. She was in truth a noble woman and our world is better because she lived. She has gone to her reward and we trust and believe that she has heard, for her well spent earthly life, the Master's plaudits of "well done."

After Requiem Mass at St. Aloysius Church, Leonardtown, on Thursday morning her remains will be buried in the family lot at Our Lady's Chapel, Medley's Neck. May she rest in peace!

Festival at St. John's.

The colored members of St. John's parish invite all their friends to their annual dinner on Wednesday next October 12th.

Everything will be done for the comfort and entertainment of all. The dinner will be of the usual high order—the taste of even the most fastidious will be pleased.

The following members of the committee are helping to make the affair a great success. Messrs. Bradley Banks, James Taylor, Richard Stephens, Lois Bryan, Louis Edelen and several others. Assisted by the following matrons: Rose Garner, Etta Coates, Mary Dyson, Mary Spears, Rebecca Scriber, Alice Edwards, Bessie Fenwick, Mary Young and Luja Clarke.

Come and enjoy a good dinner and a pleasant day.

Religious Notice.

Mass hereafter at St. John's will be at 8 and 10 30 A. M.
Instructions for the children every Saturday at 2 30 P. M.

For three consecutive Friday evenings, beginning October 15th, at Charlotte Hall School, Mr. George Forbes will lecture with colored lantern slides motion pictures. The first lecture will be on the "U. S. Naval Academy," the second on "Life on Stage," and the third on "Colonial Annapolis." These lectures have received the heartiest approval of the press and public, as is evidenced by brief testimonials printed with the advertisement of the lectures, in another column of this paper, and given more in detail in a very handsome illustrated booklet, which may be had on application at Fowler & Co's store, at Charlotte Hall. In bringing this course of lectures to lower Maryland, which have cost over $5,000, we feel that Mr. Forbes is offering this section an unusual educational opportunity, and we bespeak for him a representative audience. These lectures have been delivered at conspicuous colleges, clubs and other organizations throughout the State, and have been received with unusual favor.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We wish to state to our friends and the public generally, that the large and commodious building now in the course of erection in Leonardtown will be completed by September 15th, at which time the same will be opened for business.

Messrs. Joseph S. Matthews and J. Philip Greenwell will be in control of the management of the business for the firm, and they have already placed their orders for a large stock of Harness, Vehicles, Machines, etc., to arrive by that time, and will be in a position to show the largest and most complete line of such goods ever shown in the county. Our main effort has always been to see that our patrons are fairly dealt with, to give the proper service and expert attention to all buying machines of us, to furnish the best goods possible for the price asked, to keep a stock of repairs for the machines sold by us, and to do all in our power to merit the confidence of our patrons; therefore, we ask that we be accorded a friendly consideration by all.

The management will be pleased at any time to have its friends call and look over what they have whether they desire to buy or not.

Thanking you for the patronage and kindness shown us in the past, we are respectfully,

The Matthews-Howard Imp. Co
