New York 4; Brooklyn 2.

Brooklyn, Sept. 26.—The New Yorks took a step nearer the flag-clinching point by beating Brooklyn 4 to 2, this afternoon. They scored all their runs in the first three innings, during which Allen darted on the mound and was hammered for eight hits. Then Elmer Brown, the $7,000 Montgomery recruit, made his local debut and added a reduction to holding the visitors hitless and runless for the remaining six innings. He gave four passes on balls, but only one runner got to second. Tyrrell allowed but four hits, only one of which was clean. He doubled in the third, when Brown's fly scored the only run, and again in the ninth when the locals got men to third and second, with one down. Other than these, Tyrrell let out and Wheat, letting for Brown, fanned.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.—Boston got an even break in a double-header here today, Philadelphia winning the first game, 6 to 3, and the visitors the second, 10 to 9. Philadelphia made only five hits off Dickson, who hurled the first six innings, but all of the safeties count in the scoring of runs, while Foxy was invincible, excepting in one inning. Batting rallies featured the second contest. Cammitz started in the ninth inning and walked three batters, and Gowdy came
