ELECTOR BEALE OPENS CAMPAIGN

He Addresses Voters at Spotsylvania Courthouse—Delivers Eulogy of Wilson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Va., August 5.—R. L. Beale, of Bowling Green, Democratic elector for the First Congressional District, opened the campaign to-day at Spotsylvania Courthouse, addressing a large crowd on behalf of the national Democratic ticket. Mr. Beale discussed the tariff, and explained the position of the Democratic party on that subject. He severely criticized President Taft and the Republican party and also ex-President Roosevelt and his new so-called progressive party. Mr. Beale eulogized the Democratic candidate, Governor Wilson, and stated that through him the people would be represented in the government as against the special interests, which would control both the Republican and the third party. He closed by urging every member to contribute his time and finances to the success of the national Democratic ticket.

Ben Poignike, of Spotsylvania county, was convicted and fined $50 and costs by Justices Jones and Kent for violating the laws for protection of the permanent improved roads in Spotsylvania county by carrying excessive loads of lumber. This is the second time he has been convicted, the first time being fined $150 and costs by a jury. He took an appeal.

Captain Dan M. Lee, who has been indisposed at his residence, "Highland Home," in Stafford county, near this city, was in town to-day for the first time for two months. He has been taking a rest cure and recovering from several attacks of heart trouble. He has entirely recovered his health.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the survivors of the Forty-third Battalion of the Cavalry of the Army of Northern Virginia, known as Mosby's men, will be held at Groveton, Prince William county, on Thursday, August 29. There are quite a number of Mosby's men in this city and the surrounding counties who expect to attend.

Police Looking For Prager.

Wilmington, N. C., August 5.—After staying at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, posing as a "sport", and becoming popular with the young people, D. R. Prager, a young white man, left suddenly owing two weeks board, but leaving a note stating that he had gone to Roanoke, Va., to straighten out a check account with J. S. Fine and that he had left his baggage as security. As he did not return and search of his baggage revealed only an old canvas hat and a few bottles, an inquiry developed that a man named Prager had beaten the Ebbitt House in Washington and other hotels of board bills, a warrant was issued for his arrest. The police of this city are now trying to locate him.

Mundy—Good.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisonburg, Va., August 5.—Claude H. Mundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mundy, of Port Republic, and Miss Hattie D. Good, daughter of John M. Good, of Mt. Olive, were married yesterday by Rev. Samuel Pence.
