Not in the Bargain.

A country vicar was giving some juveniles of his parish a Christmas party. Before tea the lights were lowered and the words of the grace were thrown by means of a lantern onto a screen. The village baker, who was supplying the refreshments for the occasion, appeared none too happy during the meal, and toward the close he passed a roughly written penciled note to the reverend gentleman in the chair. It read as follows:

"Please don't turn down the lights to sing grace when tea's done. I quoted a shilling a head for all they could eat, and didn't take no lanterns into consideration. Sausage rolls is a temptation in the dark. P. S.—Just you notice how George Cook's left-hand pocket bulges."—Tit-Bits.

COTTON

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The cotton market was extremely nervous and unsettled today with prices making new low ground for the movement under more or less general selling. May contracts broke below 12 cents for the first time since last November, selling at 11.93c, or $1 a bale under Saturday's closing figures and $5.80 per bale below the high level of the season. The close was barely steady at practically the low point of the day and at a net decline of from 16 to 21 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 6 to 12 points in response to lower Liverpool cables. Prices rallied 8 or 9 points right after the call but the market soon weakened again on reports of easier southern spots, weakness in the stock market, nervousness over the political conditions and renewed liquidation. There seemed to be a very good demand around 12 cents for May contracts and after the break to that level, or about 15 points under Saturday's closing figures, prices rallied a few points from the lowest but offerings increased again in the late trading with March contracts selling off to 11.71c, July to 12.05c and October to 12.09c, or 16 to 22 points net lower.

Rumors of unfavorable international developments and the unsettled ruling of the stock market seemed to be largely responsible for the late break and there was heavy Wall street as well as scattered local and southern selling.

New Bedford advices claiming that while some southern shippers had not weakened others had fully met the decline in futures, probably contributed to the early decline. On the other hand, several wires were received which claimed that offerings had been practically withdrawn and while the south was a seller here during the day, people around the ring took it to be in the way of liquidation rather than in the shape of hedges.

Private cables attributed the break in Liverpool to a recount of the stock at that point showing an increase of 32,854 bales.

GRAIN

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Wall street weakness that was associated here with possibilities of complications with foreign governments brought about a decided setback in wheat values today after an early advance. The close was heavy, 1⅞c to 2¼c net lower, with May $1.31⅝ and July $1.27⅝. Other leading staples, too, all finished at a setback, corn ⅛ to 1¼c, oats 1¼ to 2½c and provisions 15c to 87 cents. Breaks in the price of wheat followed one another swiftly once the market began to give way. Bullish news was ignored and traders took little heed of anything but the fact that stocks in New York had suffered a tumble and that in this connection much talk was rife with reports that serious phases of international difficulties for the United States lay beyond the public utterances of President Wilson. The result was an extreme decline of 4⅞ from the top figures of the day. Much of the selling on the way down was of an unmistakable stop loss character. Profit-taking by shorts, however, seemed sufficient volume to cause ill-sustained rallies near the close.

Announcement that the railroads entering Galveston had placed an embargo on wheat shipments to that port was important, as a discouragement to the bulls, who in the first part of the session had lifted the market without a great deal of trouble. The basis of the temporary advance was chiefly a forecast by a leading authority that shipments from Australia and Argentina were not likely to be on a large scale at any time during February.

Corn weakened with wheat. Unfavorable weather formed the main reason for a prevailing transient uptown. Oats were relatively bearish throughout the day, as compared with corn. Receipts were larger and eastern demand slow.

Calling off in exports had a depressing influence on provisions. The market also was affected somewhat by the general unloading by holders on other lines.

MONEY TO LOAN

Yes, we, as well as the other loan companies doing business in this city, have any amount of cash to place on Tulsa property, but in making a mortgage, the borrower should look out for his own interest before entering a long-time contract. The first and most important feature is the rate of interest, then the next point to be considered is whether or not the loan may be repaid at any time without paying a premium in order to get the privilege of paying same off. One never knows when he will be forced to pay off a loan. We represent the STANDARD SAVINGS & LOAN ASS'N of DETROIT, MICH., and venture the assertion that there is NO LOAN COMPANY in the state offering a contract with the privileges offered by this company. The monthly payment of $1,000 is $16.70, $6.50 interest and $10.20 on the principal. If interested we will gladly explain fully.
