MY, OH, MY! AREN'T THEY THE CHEERFUL LITTLE FELLOWS!

GOOD DUROC HOGS AND HEREFORD CATTLE FEATURE FAIRVIEW FARM; FINE HERD HEADS MAKE SUCCESS

"Just around the corner from Polk street." This is the way H. T. Neely of Neely Brothers, describes the location of Fairview Farm, six miles west of Amarillo on the paved highway. This statement may sound absurd of some but if you will remember that this farm is on the highway and that this road will soon be connected with Polk street when Sixth street is paved, it is easy to see why Mr. Neely declares that his farm is "around the corner from Polk street."

Fairview Farms in the opinion of the writer could also be called "Hog Heaven." The home of one of the leading Duroc Jersey herds of the Southwest. Everything on the farm is arranged for the convenience and welfare of the large number of registered hogs that make it their home.

Think of shipping buttermilk from Omaha, Nebr., just to feed it to hogs. Well, that is what is done at Fairview Farms. Flake buttermilk, which is nothing but evaporated buttermilk, is bought by the Neelys in Omaha and shipped all the way to Amarillo in order that their hogs may have the best that there is.

A part of the farm has been divided into four acre tracts which are planted in sudan grass, as soon as this grass gets about eighteen inches high, the hogs are turned in on it and with an abundance of water, the hogs of the farm emphatically declare that it is a veritable hog paradise.

Good Boars Make Farm.

What has made Fairview Farms? The use of real herd boars and herd bulls. On this farm you find Commander Sensation by Great Orion Sensation and out of a King Orion dam. Forty-two inches high and seventy-eight inches long, this boar would easily be a 1,000 pound hog if he was fattened. Think of a hog that is better than waist high to the average man and is longer by far than the average man is tall. With a monstrous body and wonderful smooth qualities this boar has already won a place as head of the Neely herd.

Orion Cherry Sensation, by Great Orion Sensation and out of a Joe Orion dam is another wonderful boar found on Fairview Farms. The use of these boars in the Neely herd is already having an effect on the quality of hogs offered on the market by the feeders of the Panhandle. Many farmers visit the Neely herd to get sons of these noted boars to use with their grade sows and already the quality of the hogs of the Panhandle is showing an upward tendency. It is predicted that soon practically every hog in the Panhandle will be a thoroughbred.

With eighty-two registered sows and gilts of breeding age, it is necessary for one man to devote his entire time to the hog part of Fairview Farms. D. M. Manner is the Neely herdsman. He is always glad to see visitors and to explain to them the fine points of the hogs on the farm.

Also Has Herefords.

Fairfad Fairfax, 15th son of Protector Fairfax, and an Anxiety 4th dam, is at the head of the Neely herd of registered Herefords. This wonderful bull was purchased as a yearling by the Neelys at the 1917 Panhandle state fair from R. V. Gilbert and Son of Stamford at $1,500. The price paid for the bull was considered at that time to be a high one but Neely Brothers have no regrets over their purchase. Ted Neely declares that it was the best investment he ever made and to look at the calves gotten by this bull will convince anyone that he has real value. Several splendid sons of this bull will be offered in the winter sale of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders' Association. They deserve the appraisal of every Hereford man.

Will alfalfa grow on the plains of West Texas? This question has been argued many times. It is a settled fact that it will grow and in fact is one of the surest crops. Without irrigation, the Neelys have a field of alfalfa that is now six years old and there has never been a year that they have not received at least two cuttings from it and all that has ever been done in the way of cultivation, is to disc the field each spring. Today the Neely farm is filled with beautiful pedigreed alfalfa and another crop will soon be ready.

Visitors Welcome.

Do you delight in seeing real pedigreed hogs and cattle? Then drive out Sixth street, past the Country Club and the county farm, six miles you will recognize Fairview Farms when you reach them, since the barn is painted white and red, striped like the peppermint candy that used to be so popular. Visit this farm and see for yourself that there is a great future in the Panhandle for the man who combine the sow, the saw and the hen and who believes in keeping only the best of livestock and in giving them only the best of care. Give us more Neelys and enlarge the bank deposits of Amarillo grow.

Neely Brothers will hold their second auction of Fair Farm, Fairview Farms Durocs, August 31. Fifty head of bred sows and gilts, the pick of the herd, will be offered at this sale, which will be a real opportunity to secure some real hogs. Further announcement will be made later.

WINEINGER FUNERAL TO BE HELD AT 3 TODAY
