KING AND QUEEN WELCOMED HOME

Demonstration in London When Edward VII and Alexandria Arrived.

London, Feb. 13.—The reception in London accorded King Edward and Queen Alexandra never lacks enthusiasm, but the welcome they received this evening on their return from Berlin was more remarkable than ever. At the station to meet them were the Prince and Princess of Wales, Premier Asquith and Foreign Secretary Grey, while on the road to Buckingham palace great crowds cheered vociferously.

The king, who was not looking so well as usual, and was closely muffled up about the throat, had a few minutes' animated conversation with Sir Edward Grey, both of them showing plainly their great satisfaction at the happy result of the sovereign's short stay at Berlin.

Public Mind Easier.

The visit certainly has had a wonderful effect upon the mind of the British public, and the antagonism against Germany seems to have disappeared. Berlin's cordial reception of the king has paved the way for this, and communications have been given out by the British and German officials in which mutual satisfaction is expressed relative to the aims and foreign policies of the two government. All this has been so sudden that the question is already being raised how long it will last.

Diplomats Optimistic.

Diplomats who have been watching recent events closely are optimistic. They point out that British and German interests do not clash in any part of the world, and that the bitterness between the two nations really arose out of jealousy over affairs in the near east. Their aims, however, have been declared identical, and Germany having reached an agreement with France regarding Morocco, there apepars nothing on the horizon over which they can quarrel.

The endurance of the Anglo-German rapproachement, it is recognized, largely depends on that between Germany and France, for in recent years the difference between Germany and Great Britain arose largely from Germany's supposed hostile attitude toward Great Britain's new-found French friends.

Feeling in Berlin.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—Chancellor von Buelow is hopeful of good results from the recent visit to Berlin of King Edward, and in this connection he today expressed himself as follows:

"The conversations between English and German statesmen, held while the king was here, have evoked sincere satisfaction on the German side, and they justify the firm expectation that because of the visit of the king the confidence in the loyalty of both England and Germany and the understanding of the political aims of both countries will be strengthened.

"The discussion of the Balkan question revealed a far-reaching agreement, both in regard to the endeavors of Great Britain and Germany for the preservation of peace, and in the attitude of each government toward the new regime in Turkey."

CLAIMS RELINQUISHED.

Suit for a Part of Adrian Pintro's Estate Is Dismissed.

Apparently all attempts have been abandoned to establish the claim of the boy known as Adrian Pintro, jr., to a part of the estate of Adrian Pintro, the saloonkeeper who died Jan. 31, 1908. Pintro left money in banks of Salt Lake City amounting to $7,500, and a will giving everything to Anna Reinhart, his common law wife. This will was probated, but the matter was opened on application of J. W. McKinney, as guardian of the boy, who claimed that acknowledgment of his paternity had been made by Pintro. Suit was also filed on the law side of the district court to compel the payment of the moneys into court. This suit was dismissed yesterday before Judge T. D. Lewis.

The answer of Anna Reinhart impugned the boy's birth. The dismissal of the action on the boy's behalf yesterday was at his request, and without prejudice.

HONG YEY WOULD TRAVEL.

Immigration Officials May Permit Him to Visit China.

United States Immigration Inspector H. J. DeHart has returned from Evanston, Wyo., where he went three days ago to inspect the papers and the record of Hong Yey, a Chinese, who has made application to the local office for permission to return to his native land. Yey also wants to bring his son back with him, but before he can do this he must first secure the consent of the immigration officials. Hong Yey is a merchant at Evanston, and has lived in the United States for the last ten years. The officers of the Chinese service have investigated his record during his residence in the country and will probably give him the permission he desires.

MORAN'S CONTRACTING PLANT IS TO BE THE MOST COMPLETE OF ITS KIND IN THE WEST

When he has carried his present plans to completion, P. J. Moran, contractor, will have the most complete contracting plant in the west, and he will have spent $200,000. When the buildings which are now being rushed to completion are ready for occupancy, he will have spent nearly $100,000, and next year he will do the rest.

Mr. Moran purchased nearly the whole block between Second and Third West and Eighth and Ninth South streets a few months ago for a permanent home for his large plant. He paid for the property $35,000. With the exception of three small lots, this includes the entire block.

The buildings now being erected, and to be completed in sixty days, include a large two-story building in the center of the block to contain 150 single stalls and ten box stalls for Moran's horses, a machine blacksmith and carpenter shop, warehouse and a row of wagon sheds.

The big barn in the center of the block around which the buildings will cluster about will cost $35,000. It is of brick, two stories in height, with cement foundations. The entrance faces south, where there will be four doors ten feet wide. There will be four aisles down the buildings, with rows of stalls on either side, and it will be possible to drive directly through the entire building from the entrances. At the north end of this building is a buggy room, where fifteen rigs may be kept. This room is supported by a forty-foot steel truss to eliminate the posts, making turning easy.

An eight-inch sewer pipe runs down the barn in each aisle, and every two-horse stall has a four-inch lateral. This makes it possible to make the building thoroughly sanitary. The floor of the barn will be six inches of cement, and the keeping of it clean will be a comparatively easy matter.

Complete Water System.

A six-inch water main has been run into the barn, and there are pipes connecting with this all over the place. Standpipes with hose connected will furnish the necessary fire protection. There is, of course, a fire hydrant conveniently placed.

There is a wash room for wagons at the rear, and another portion set aside for washing horses. The blacksmith and machine shop is for the purpose of keeping Mr. Moran's men busy making necessary repairs in the winter months. This is located in the northeast portion of the property, and is of brick, with a solid cement foundation. A little further along Second West is the new warehouse.

The barn is 116x171 feet, inside measurement, and will cost $35,000. The blacksmith shop measures 130x30 feet, and will have a small office in one end of it. It will cost $15,000. The warehouse is 100x150 feet, and is costing $10,000. All of these are of brick, two stories, with cement foundations.

Around the Ninth South end of the property Mr. Moran is building sheds for the storage of his wagons at a cost of $2,500. These will enclose the south end of the property, the rear serving the purpose of a fence. There are 630 feet of the sheds, and each is sixteen feet wide.

These buildings, which with the purchase of the property represent an expenditure of $97,500, are all Mr. Moran will undertake to erect this year. The remaining buildings in the group as planned will be completed next year.

They will include two more warehouses at the north end of the property, to cost $40,000 for the two; an asphalt plant, costing $22,000, and a new rock crushing plant to cost $15,000.

Putting in Spur Tracks.

The Oregon Short Line is putting in a spur track to the property, which will run around three sides of it, and will connect directly with barns and warehouses. From the barn, F. B. Gawan, Mr. Moran's superintendent, is planning a conveyor, which will carry the grain directly to the upper story of the barn from the cars. Cement, asphaltum and other materials used by Mr. Moran in his contracting work, will be run in the cars directly to the warehouse doors.

The property is being gradually brought up to grade. All gravel and dirt excavated on Mr. Moran's contracts is being hauled to the property so that a yard will soon be filled in.

At present Mr. Moran is stabling his horses in Thomas Jennings' barns on West Temple, ninety-eight in number when all are in. His asphalt plant is in another quarter of the town, and his rock crusher in the old Pascoe quarry. This latter plant, which he paid the city $12,000 for, will be entirely renewed next year. He will then have everything connected with his business in one block, and the whole will make the best and most convenient contracting plant in the entire west.

The entrance to the property will be on Second West, and the yards will be enclosed by a six-foot fence.

All of the buildings, laying of the water and sewer mains, in fact, everything connected with the putting in of the plant, is being done by Mr. Moran's own men under the direction of his superintendent, F. B. Gawan. Mr. Gawan has seventy-five men at work and twenty teams, and is rushing the work so that he can move the horses and wagons to the barns in sixty days. Mr. Gawan is architect, as well as everything else connected with the place. Mr. Moran is now in Florida, and by the time he has returned the premises will be almost if not quite ready for use.

BACK TO THE WHITE HOUSE

President Roosevelt Returns From His Trip to Birthplace of Abraham Lincoln.

Washington, Feb. 13.—After a railroad journey of 850 miles in each direction, taken for the purpose of making a twenty-minute speech on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of a memorial building on the site in Larue county, Kentucky, of the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, President Roosevelt and his wife and daughter returned to Washington at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The trip consumed just fifty hours.

The return trip was practically without incident, the most interesting event being a brief speech to railroad employes at Harrisburg, Pa. In this address, which lasted little more than a minute, the president spoke of the railroad man as a model type of American citizenship, and said that because of his alertness, self-reliance and willingness to obey orders, he was just the sort of man that would be most useful in case of another war, which, however, he hoped would never come.

At many places along the road there were crowds of people, who waved their salutations as the train flew by. The president lost few opportunities to show his appreciation of the interest thus manifested. He would respond by waving his handkerchief or lifting his hand. In conversation he spoke feelingly of these indications of popular interest, and expressed especial pleasure over the fact that the people generally seemed to feel as much interest in him now that his term of office was about to close as they felt when it was beginning.

PARLIAMENT IS SHOWING TEETH

Grand Vizier of Sultan of Turkey Compelled to Step Down and Out.

Constantinople, Feb. 13.—After a lengthy sitting today the chamber of deputies passed a vote of want of confidence in the grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha, by 198 to 8.

The chamber also directed the president to communicate to the sultan a resolution requesting him to appoint a minister possessing the confidence of the house.

As a consequence the grand vizier has handed in his seals of office to the sultan. The want of confidence vote was the result of Kiamil Pasha's refusal to appear before the chamber today and explain the recent ministerial changes.

In a communication to the chamber announcing his resignation, the grand vizier stated that his action was because of the persistent hostility shown him by the chamber, despite his written explanations. His absence, he said, and the responsibility for the consequences must rest with those who created the present situation.

The scene in the chamber was unprecedented. The galleries were crowded, many of the foreign diplomats and several members of the imperial family also being present. The session was marked by intense excitement, and during the course of an animated debate Deputy Ismail Hakkki referred to the grand vizier as "a lair."

A storm of protests against this epithet arose, but the president remained passive. Communications from the former minister of war and marine, protesting against their removal by the grand vizier, were greeted with cheers, as was also a protest signed by the naval officer of the Husni Pasha, who was described as a spy of the old regime. Strong opposition to Kiamil Pasha was apparent from the outset.

GRAND VALLEY PROJECT.

Contract for Construction Will Be Signed in a Few Days.

Washington, Feb. 13.—All obstacles to the signing by Secretary of the Interior Garfield of the contract for the construction of the Grand valley irrigation project, in Colorado, which has been withheld because of what he believed to be an objectionable clause, it is believed, now have been removed. It is believed the contract will be signed in a few days. The main canal, as it was projected, would parallel and cross the Denver & Rio Grande railway at several points, and the attorneys for the company had inserted in the contract a provision obligating the government to assume responsibility for damage to the right of way of that line and for injuries to workmen employed during the progress of the work.

Secretary Garfield objected to this clause and declined to sign unless it was modified or eliminated. As the result of a conference with George Gould and President Jefferies of the Denver & Rio Grande, by D. W. Aupperle of Grand Junction, Colo., who represents the interests of the farmers along the railway, Mr. Gould has directed that the clause be changed to comply with the government contention.

CLEARS THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Salt Lake City at the F. J. Hill Drug Co., and other leading drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

GIVEN STIFF SENTENCE.

Pittsburg, Feb. 13.—John T. Morgan, former tax collector of McKees Rock, a suburb, who last week pleaded guilty to charges of forgery and embezzlement, was sentenced today to serve sixteen years in the penitentiary and pay a fine of $20,000. Morgan told the court that he had been robbed of $20,000 in a street in New York City.

Prof. F. J. Kellogg. My Dear Sir: Your Safe Fat Reducer is all and more than you ever claimed for it. My weight today, after ten weeks' treatment, is 285 pounds, a loss of 189 pounds, as I weighed 474 pounds when I began with the Safe Fat Reducer. I never felt so well before, not even in 1896, when I was in hard training as a professional bicyclist and riding partner of Baby Bliss. The reduction has been natural and gradual, and has at no time interfered with my regular daily duties or caused me the slightest inconveniences in any way. The action of my heart is strong and regular, and I have got rid of that 'smothered up' feeling which bothers all excessively fat people. My breathing is easy and I feel strong and active, and lighter on my feet than I have been for years.

"Please send me another supply of your Safe Fat Reducer, as I am about out.
