Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition, and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Tactful Society Woman.

One of the best known women in society, who is remarkable for having no enemies, laughingly said not long ago that she attributed her popularity to never letting those she disliked know of it by any word of hers. "I avoid discussing any unpleasant person," she continued, "and I also never join any social club where a member is included that I do not care to invite to my house. By this means I am free to do as I please, and I also never offend my own friends by having persons that I know they dislike at my house when they are there, as that is questionable hospitality."

Whistling on Sunday.

Concerning whistling on Sunday in Scotland, two men, who had done a housebreaking job on Saturday night, went on Sunday morning into a wood to divide the plunder. One of them began to whistle over the sharing out when his companion said, with horror: "Hoot, mon, I would no have come out wi' ye if I had known you would whustle on the Sawbath."—London Daily Chronicle.

SALT LAKE AND STATE NEWS

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS HEAVY DAMAGE VERDICT

The supreme court yesterday, in an opinion written by Associate Justice W. H. McCarty, sustained the lower court in the case of Nellie Teakle against the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad. Mrs. Teakle sued for damages resulting from the death of her husband, Thomas W. Teakle, who was killed in October, 1905. A jury awarded the plaintiff $12,500. The company moved for a new trial. The court held that the verdict was excessive and announced that unless the plaintiff would accept a judgment for $8,000 the motion for a new trial would be granted. Mrs. Teakle accepted the reduced judgment, and a decree was entered accordingly. From this the railroad company appealed to the supreme court. The ground of appeal was contributory negligence and error. The supreme court holds that the lower court properly instructed the jury in this regard, and it sees no reason for not affirming the judgment.

LITTLE GIRL IS LOST IN THE SAGEBRUSH

Daughter of Former Resident of Murray Disappears From Her Home.

Salt Lake, June 24.—Mrs. Charles Bird of Murray received a telegram Wednesday from her son Fred, who lives forty miles west of Kelton, stating that his little two-year-old daughter had strayed away from home on Sunday and up to yesterday the child had not been found, although several searching parties had been scouring the country for more than seventy-two hours in an endeavor to find the child.

Mr. Bird was a former resident of Murray. He removed to Kelton some time since with his family. Sunday morning he left home to go to Kelton, where he would catch a train for Salt Lake. His visit to Salt Lake was for the purpose of entering some land. When he reached Kelton a telephone message from his wife announced the disappearance of the little girl.

Mr. Bird at once returned home and on Wednesday wired his mother that no trace of the little one had been found.

BREEDEN IS CLERK IN JUVENILE COURT

Appointment Made by Commission at Monday Afternoon's Session.

Salt Lake, June 24.—The juvenile court has a new clerk and will have new quarters July 1, but no thanks are due the county commissioners for these things. The new clerk is Major M. A. Breeden, now secretary of the state juvenile court commission. The new headquarters will be the two rooms on the fourth floor of the City and County building, now occupied by the state auditor.

The arrangements for a new clerk and new quarters for the juvenile court were made at a meeting of the state juvenile court commission, held Monday. Major Breeden now receives $1800 a year as secretary and legal adviser of the commission, and as the duties of the clerk of the juvenile court are not very onerous, he will act in this capacity without pay, other than he receives as secretary and adviser to the commission.

TRIED TO GET FRESH AND GIRL "HOLLERED."

"When he tried to get fresh I hollered to beat the band."

Miss Anna White, a 19-year-old domestic, said it naively in the city court on Wednesday morning, but it conveyed a world of meaning to Judge J. M. Bowman, who was hearing the case against Alfred Empey, a barber, accused of trying to mistreat the girl at the Salt Palace on the evening of June 3. It was Miss White's screams that sent Policeman Barker on the run to her rescue.

The girl said that she was introduced to Empey in the dance hall by two chums. Afterward they drank some beer and then, she said, Empey led her to a grassy spot beside the roadway.

The girl admitted that she had permitted Empey to kiss and hug her and that the place where the attempt was made upon her was in plain view of the roadway.

UNFORTUNATE GIRL IS SENT TO THE ASYLUM

Salt Lake, June 24.—Myrtle Arnold, 18 years old, was adjudged insane by an insanity commission in Judge Ritchie's division of the third district court Wednesday and ordered committed to the State Mental hospital at Provo until the addition for the feeble-minded females is built. Then she probably will be transferred from the hospital to this ward.

The witnesses were Chief Probation Officer Guardello Brown and Matron A. L. Young of the juvenile court, and Mrs. Emma Arnold. The commission was composed of Assistant District Attorney E. O. Leatherwood and Doctors H. P. Kirtley and T. G. Odell.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC IS ON THE INCREASE

Salt Lake, June 23.—Not less than 50,000 girls are prey of procurers in the United States annually is the startling startling statement contained in a communication from the committee on legislation for the suppression of the white slave traffic in the United States to Governor Spry Tuesday, urging him to urge the legislature of Utah to enact laws to meet and control the infamous traffic.

The communication is signed by Clyde A. Mann, secretary of the committee, and sets forth that the recent examination of 200 white slaves in the office of the United States district attorney at Chicago brought to light that literally thousands of country girls were annually entrapped into a life of hopeless slavery and degredation. "The number of girls imported is certainly but a mere fraction of the number recruited for the army of prostitution from home fields, from the cities, towns and villages of our own country," the communication sets forth, "but the number imported every year is not less than 15,000.

"Exposure of the fact is the quickest remedy for this situation, which has developed within the last ten years," continues the letter. Then it suggests that the governor warn the public of the danger of the traffic by proclamation, and follow this with a message to the legislature or open letter to the press and urge that laws be enacted here to meet the new and infamous traffic. "We realize," concludes the communication, "that the legislatunre is not in session, but to formulate bills and insure their passage when the next legislature convenes will require considerable time. Every day's delay means a loss of 180 girls to the United States. Does not the extraordinary need warrant you in taking the steps we suggest?"

JUVENILE COURT CLERK IS APPOINTED

Salt Lake, June 23.—After being tied up for two months on account of the wrangle between the county commissioners and the juvenile court commission over the appointment of a clerk, Judge E. G. Gowans of the Salt Lake juvenile court will begin holding sesson on Monday. M. A. Breeden, secretary of the commsson, was apponted clerk of the court today without extra pay

Arrangements were also made to give up the present quarters on the city's side of the join building and occupy the quarters now held by the state auditor. The auditor will move into the rooms occupied by the state superintendent of public instruction and the latter will take offices up town.

The commission appointed the following county probation officers: Alva Stout of Nephi, Juab county; J. S. Giles of Fillmore, Millard county; J. H. Burton of Beaver county; J. T. Wilkinson of Cedar, Iron county; W. M. Wilson of St George, Washington county; C. R. Jones of Coalville, Summit county; C. R. McBride of Tooele county; Joseph Meeks of Circleville, Piute county; William Rose of Farmington, Davis county, and Henry Thompson of Ferron Emery county.

Judge Gowans will probably hold court every day next week to dispose of the cases which have plied up since the county commissioners refused to appoint and fix the salary of the clerk. As soon as these cases are attended to tho court will move into its new quarters.

The county commissioners have so far made no move to provide a detention home for girls and have not selected another building for the boys' detention home. If possible the court commission intends to bring the matter before the commissioners in some other way to compel them to provide the detention homes as required by law.

SIX-YEAR-OLD GIRL IS DROWNED IN CREEK

Salt Lake, June 23.—Wilma Borge, the 6-year-old daughter of Louis Borge, a driver employed at the Western Packing company, living at 80 Whitman avenue, was drowned Tuesday night about 7 o'clock in Parley's creek, on Whitman avenue, between Eighth and Ninth East streets, when she fell off of a plank into the raging torrent below.

Alice Youngdale, 12 years of age, living at 76 Whitman avenue, who was crossing over the plank at the time it turned over, had a narrow escape. She was rescued from a watery grave by Marlowe Taylor, who leaped into the stream on seeing the girls disappear. Taylor struggled desperately in the surging waters and finally succeeded in grasping Alice Youngdale by the hair, but the swift-running tide had borne the unfortunate Wilma Borge to her death before he could reach her.

OLD FOLKS FESTIVAL AT PLEASANT GROVE

Pleasant Grove, June 23.—One of the most successful od folks' outing in the history of Alpine stake was held here yesterday. The day was ideal. The fine grass in the park was the rendezvous of the veterans, and all enjoyed the day immensely. Bishop Iverson and George Margetts of Salt Lake, of the general committee of the old folks were present and helped entertain the aged people with many comic songs. A very entertaining program was carried out. Chairman William L. Hayes was master of ceremonies and he did his part well. Some 600 persons were seated at the tables and everything for the comfort of the aged was provided. Strawberries and ice cream were furnished the guests by Pleasant Grove people. The several committees having the work in charge did their duty well, and too much praise cannot be given the general management. Everybody appeared happy and not one thing happened to mar the day's enjoyment.

Cunningham, were officers and directors of the Continental Life Insurance and Investment company and of the Western Securities company, and as such have not acted in good faith in attempting to distribute the assets of the insurance company among the Western Securities company in the first place, and later on in attempting to take over the assets of the Western Securities company for certain indebtedness, a complaint was filed in the United States circuit court Tuesday morning by George S Kimball of Berkeley, Cal.

HIGH PRICES FOR FRUIT IN INTERMOUNTAIN REGION

Greatly increased prices for fruit in the intermountain country will doubtless prevail this season, owing to the shortage which was caused by the extremely late spring and cold weather. C. A. Hickenlooper of the Weber County Fruit Growers' association stated that he expected the increase to be in some instances 75 per cent over last year's prices..

According to government reports, there will be a shortage in the fruit crop in all the fruit-growing states of the Union. This shortage will put down the average yield about five per cent on apples and 25 per cent on peaches.

Colorado will determine to a great extent the price that will be paid for apples. According to reports from there the fruit growers expect to ship out about 6,500 cars of apples. With this great quantity on the market it is a question whether or not the price will be much in advance of last year's. Mr. Hickenlooper and J. Edward Taylor, secretary of the state horticultural commission, are of the opinion that the Colorado people are overestimating their crop in order that orchard land values may not depreciate.

All kinds of soft drinks can be had.

VALUABLE GRAPHITE VEIN UNEARTHED AT PROMONTORY

Mining interests in Box Elder county are said to be looking upward, several new discoveries being made during the past few days in the vicinity of Promontory, among them being a vein of graphite, which was unearthed on the property of the Homber Mining company, only three miles from Terry, a railroad station in Box Elder county. A. G. Burnitt, manager of the company which was recently formed to take over a silver-lead prospect discovered that an extensive deposit of supposedly worthless material in the property is high grade graphite, for which there is already a market. With the graphite is just enough iron to make the product ready to be ground for use in the manufacture of certain kinds of paint. Its value has not yet been definitely determined, but a local concern is anxious to take the entire output of the mine at a price yet to be agreed upon.

There is a ledge of the graphite four and one-half feet thick, which forms the footwall of a vein of silver-lead ore fourteen inches thick, which has been followed down by an inclined shaft. Near the surface to a depth of four and six feet the graphite has been leached, giving it the appearance of schist. For that reason no further attention was paid to it in sinking the shaft until Mr. Burnett's attention was attracted to the black, rich-looking stuff on the bottom of the drift. Investigation led to the discovery that it carries 53 per cent graphite.

The graphite, in leached form, outcrops on the surface and has been traced with the vein for 1,000 feet on its strike, so that there is evidently a large mine of it, saying nothing of the lead-silver ore, which to the depth attained carries values of $10 to $15 a ton.

SOCIAL GATHERING AT THE HOME OF OFFICER VANCE

A pleasant little social gathering was held last night at the home of Patrolman A. B. Vance, 331 Thirty-fifth street, the guests being old friends and acquaintances of the family. The dinner served was entirely from the garden and yard of Mr. Vance, among the good things being spring chicken, new potatoes, green peas and strawberries.

Among the guests were Lon Jackson and wife, who recently returned from a mission to England; Frank Steele and wife, recently on a mission to the Hawaiian islands, and Messrs. and Mesdames Dalton, Hand Fowler.

The evening was spent with music, all enjoying themselves greatly.
