When Buying Building Material

It is most important to consider the actual values gotten for the money spent.
 We have devoted a great many years of careful study to this very point, and this work makes it possible for us to give better values and better service at the beginning of our 1911 season than ever before.
 If you want Flooring, Siding, Ceiling, Mouldings, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Shingles, Laths, Lime, Portland Cement, Wall Plaster, Terra Cotta Pipe, Flue Lining, Nails, Glass, etc., it will pay you to inspect our stock and compare our prices, as you will find that our stock from the cheapest to the highest grade, is selected with the one idea of giving our customers good values for every cent spent with us.
 Mail orders and inquiries receive prompt and careful attention, and we furnish estimates promptly for Lumber, Mill Work and Builders' Supplies.

Short Crop of Cow Peas

Prices are going up. The enormous demand for Cow Peas last year carried the price very high and as the crop is very short and the acreage is rapidly extending, there are many indications which point to much higher prices as the sowing season approaches.

WHIP-POOR-WILL COW PEAS.
 The Whip-poor-will are generally preferred in the Central and Southern States. They are bush form, early maturing and especially desirable for Peas.

NEW ERA COW PEAS.
 New Era's are a little earlier, and make more vine than the Whip-poor-wills.

WONDERFULS, CLAYS AND MIXED COW PEAS.

For Hay, the Wonderfuls or Mixed Cow Peas are more productive, they should always be planted with an occasional grain of Corn, Sorghum Seed, Kaffir Corn, etc., which will prevent the vines from getting damaged by coming in contact with the ground.

BLACK COW PEAS.
 Black Cow Peas are a little later in maturing than Clays, they make a good growth of vine, are exceptionally good for medium or poor land, and will stand almost any amount of wet weather without injury. We can also supply Sain-toys Peas Red Rippers, Blackeye Peas and Soja Beans. Remember Bolgiano's cow peas are unquestionably the best.
 If your local merchant will not supply you with cow peas write us direct and we will tell you where you can get them.
FREE—Send us 5c in stamps to pay

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at her home, near Chaptico, March 1, 1911. Mrs. BETTY BUR-ROUGHS, age 76 years.
 She was a devoted mother and a true member of the Holy Catholic Church.
 Every attention was given her in her sickness. We extend to the sorrowing family our heartfelt sympathies in their sad bereavement, particularly to the daughters and sons who watched over her until the last with such faithful and tender devotion.
 Close folded in the arms divine, Her head on Jesus breast, She joined the heavenly hosts on high, Above all blessings blest.
 We yield her Saviour, to Thy love, Thy love so full and free, That drew her tenderly away,
 To find a home with Thee.
 —A Friend.

At her residence, near Chaptico, Mrs.
Elizabeth Burroughs, in the seventy-sixth year of her age.
 Let mother's memory shine like a star,
 In the sky of your spirits forever,
 And o'er your pathway, it will flash afar, A radiance that will perish, oh never.
 Keep dear mother's memory ever bright, And walk to the light of its gleaming.
 It will brighten our days, and when days are done
 It will shine in the nights of your dreaming.
 The memory of mother will be a golden ray, Illumine the gloom of all sorrows And I know that its lustre will gladden your ways.
 In the shadows of all your tomorrows The bright memory of mother will make sorrows pass.
 Back into their shadows forever,
 Her Heavenly face and true loving heart, Sheds a light that will pass away never.
 Let Mother's memory guide all your days, And when death's starless night gathers, o'er you,
 'Twill brighten your gaze and adorn your way.
 And light the dark valley before you.

Track and Field Meet.
 The Maryland Agricultural College and Alumni will hold an Interscholastic Track and Field Meet on the 20th of May, at College Park.
 On the same day will be held an Inter-collegiate Meet in which St.
 John's College, Western Maryland College and Washington College are invited to contest with the Maryland Agricultural College boys.
 The Interscholastic Meet is open to the High Schools and Preparatory Schools of Maryland and the District of Columbia.

In order to encourage athletics throughout the State, for special events, the 100 yards, 220 yards and 440 yards runs, and the running broad jump will be added to program, and will be open to the County Schools only. In this way the County Public School boys may have a good contest among themselves, in addition to entering the regular meet.
 The Agricultural College especially invites the county boys, and will be glad to take care of them free of charge as long as they stay at the college.
 Medals will be given to first, second and third winners, and a banner to the winning school.
 We advise the boys to get out and train, and get into the game.
 Running and jumping represent a healthful, manly sport.

Saved From The Grave.
 "I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs.
 M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn.
 "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, la grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to the wonderful medicine. Try it. 50c and $1.
 Trial bottles free. Guaranteed by J. J. Norris, Leonardtown, Md.

He Got The Pass.
 "I want a pass."
 "Pass? You're not entitled to a pass. You are not an employe.
 Sorry."
 "No, but here the anti pass law says free transportation can be granted to necessary caretakers of live stock, poultry, and fruit." Well, I'm going on this trip with an aunt that's a hen—there's your poultry; a girl that's a peach—there's your fruit; and a nephew that's a mule—there's your live stock. Gimme a pass.—S. W. Southern Book.

Worse Than Bullets.
 Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema.
 L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with forty years. "But Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. Greatest healer for Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises and Piles.

 Md.

Was Overjoyed.
 The man who had ventured on the ice and gone through was rescued and found to be a motorboat enthusiast.
 "Hurray!" he shouted, as soon as he could get his breath. "The ice is thin and we may be able to use our boats in a few weeks." Buffalo Express.

Where Was She?
 The "spiritualist bug" has struck the glass factory all of a heap, and in the evenings little groups of pressers and gatherers are congregat-ing at the home of the medium where nightly seances are being held.
 Among the bunch is a widower at whose request the medium had "produced" the spirit of the departed wife, when the following conversation took place: "Well, are you happy, Mary?"
 "Oh, very happy indeed, George."
 "Are you happier than you were when you were on earth with me, Mary?"
 "Oh, much happier, George. I couldn't have believed such happiness to be possible when I was on earth with you."
 "Well, tell me, what kind of a place is heaven, Mary?"
 "Heaven? Why, George—I'm not in heaven!"—The Coming Nation.

The Call of The Blood for purification, finds voice in pimples, boils, sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin,—all signs of liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood; give clear skin, rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25c at Twain's Most Quoted Witticism.

 Of all the witty things said or written by Mark Twain no phrase has been quoted oftener than his response to an alarmist report, "Rumor of my death greatly exaggerated." I think the history of this bonnet, says a correspondent, may interest.
 Mark Twain was on a visit to London some years ago and had been secured as the chief guest of a dinner to be given by a literary club.
 On the morning of the day when the dinner was to take place the secretary was shocked to hear a rumor that Mark Twain had died suddenly.
 At his wife's end, he sought to verify it by a diplomatic note to Mrs.
 Clemens, in which he mentioned the rumor. Mark Twain got hold of the note and telegraphed the now famous reply, "Rumor of my death greatly exaggerated."
