FIGHT FOR SENATE HEAD.

Biennial Session of Legislature to Open Tomorrow.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 4.—The biennial session of the New Hampshire legislature opens here tomorrow. In the house there will be 207 Republicans to 105 Democrats and two Independents and 21 of the 24 state senators are Republicans. Much interest is taken in the contest for president of the senate and the race between Senators-elect Leslie P. Snow of Rochester and Charles E. Emerson of Milford is reported to be close. The party nominee will be named at the caucus this evening.

Fred A. Jones of Lebanon, Republican, is assured of the speakership of the house.

DARTMOUTH GETS $250,000.

Sanford H. Steele, Lawyer, Leaves Sum to Erect Memorial Building.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Sanford H. Steele, lawyer, who died Dec. 19 at Pinehurst, N. C., bequeathed $250,000 to Dartmouth college for a memorial building to his brother, Benjamin Hinman Steele. The bequest was contained in the will, probated yesterday, by which Mr. Steele's widow is to receive $300,000.

A Good Start.

Have you learned how to make $1 go as far as two. Then your feet are well planted on the bottom round of the ladder of success.

Stay to Progress.

The world will never progress as fast as it might along Christian lines, as long as our own headache is more important to us than a neighbor's loss of his farm.

Quick Service.

Telephone Patrol—Central, get me double-six double five nine, Main—and get it quick, like they do it in the pictures.

FEMININE TOPICS

If you love good music, buy a ticket for the concert at Odd Fellows' temple Wednesday, Jan. 5, at 8 p. m., by the Players Trio of Boston under the auspices of the Brattleboro Woman's club.

Match marks on a polished or varnished surface may be removed by first rubbing them with a cut lemon and then with a cloth dipped in water.

If you are a housekeeper and believe in system, economy and thrift, start the New Year right with one of those household expense books from Clapp & Jones. It will simplify matters and help you to be accurate.

Hang meat in a cool, airy place, but not in a draft, for that makes it dry and hard.

Many will be as delighted as I was to find that a delicious combination of fruits ready for fruit salad can be bought in cans at the Miles Grocery. It makes the preparation of a tasty salad a very simple task indeed.

Hang woolens out on the line dripping wet, without wringing them at all. If dried in this way they will not shrink.

With the busy times of the holidays over, perhaps you will have time to begin that scalp treatment you need. Better make your appointments with Miss Griffin at once.

Sweeping linoleum with an ordinary broom is but scattering the dust. Slightly moisten a square of flannel, tie it over the broom, and then sweep.

A Tea Table Story: "Send me a bag of Tea Table flour," was the order I heard a grocer taking one day last week. "Do you sell a good deal of 'Tea Table'?" I asked. "Yes, indeed. Most of them think it is the best bread flour they ever used." A short story, but a forceful one.

Patent leather shoes should be first wiped with a damp sponge to remove the dirt and then thoroughly dried and polished with a soft cloth. A very little oil may occasionally be used as a dressing.

Valuable papers cannot be mislaid or lost if locked up in a safety deposit box at the Peoples National bank. They will be safe from fire, burglars and your own absent-mindedness, a quality which some of us have to guard against for the sake of safety.

The wreaths in your window will last much longer if hung on the outside.

A display of handsome silverware which came too late for the holiday trade is being featured at the Thompson Jewelry store this week. Those in search of something choice for their own table, for a wedding or anniversary gift, will find many beautiful things in this assortment at reasonable prices.

A wall pocket in or near the kitchen for cleaning cloths is as necessary as pockets for slippers and shoes in your bedroom closets.

Were you wise enough to take advantage of the sale at the Emerson Furniture store? While the lowest prices were for last week only, there are still many fine pieces which are to remain at reduced prices. Look ahead a little instead of waiting for next spring.

If you use oilcloth on a kitchen table, place under it some soft paper and the table covering will wear twice as well.

Every family must have a few magazines to keep abreast of the times, so take your magazine wants to the News Store and get the benefit of their club rates. They can offer you some fine combinations with the January numbers of most of them right there for you to examine.

An apple kept in the cakebox will keep a moderately rich cake moist for a great length of time if the apple be renewed when withered.

Down, down, down, go the prices of hats at Donnell & Davis's. All the trimmed millinery has been marked at figures that should sell it rapidly. Just the time to select something in mid-winter headgear.

Petroleum ointment stains can be removed from clothes by washing with turpentine. Don't boil clothes until stain has been removed.

They showed me yesterday a splendid assortment of separate skirts at Goodnow, Pearson & Hunt's and every one had been marked down. It would be economy to buy one of them now and keep for later wear. The materials are of the wanted plaids, stripes, checks, etc., and the styles up to the minute.

Have you ever seen a cat made from the top of a discarded brown silk stocking. Stuff it well and make the eyes, nose and mouth from wool or silk threads The baby will find it an amusement.

Keep your hands nice and smooth with Root's Victory Cream. It can be done if you use it faithfully. Roughness, chaps and cracks disappear and their return prevented by this remedy made at the Root Pharmacy and tried and tested by Brattleboro people for 30 years.

Hash with eggs: One cup of boiled ham, chopped fine, one cup of potato, mashed or chopped, one cup of cracker or bread crumbs; season well, mix all together with water, put in a deep plate, smooth it over and then make little dents in the top large enough to hold an egg. Put it in the oven and beat it through, then remove and drop an egg in each of the places and return it to the oven till the eggs are cooked.

Don't wait until it begins to sprinkle before starting to lay by something for a rainy day. It will surprise you to see how easy it is to pay for one of those $100 real estate savings bonds which the Vermont Loan & Trust Co. offers. All your payments draw seven per cent interest.

Many of the girls have discarded the fussy boudoir caps in favor of bows of wide satin ribbon which are worn, child fashion, on the side, and it is surprising how much more becoming the fad is in any number of cases.

Haven't you noticed how delighted the winner at a card party always is if the prize happens to be a pretty basket of flowers or a small plant? Next time you need prizes for such affairs let Hopkins, the Florist, help you out.

Creamed Eggs: Drop one egg in each cup and cover with cream sauce in which has been put a tablespoon of grated cheese and a few drops of onion juice. Sprinkle with a few crumbs. Bake 15 minutes.

I have seen nothing more tempting in canned vegetables of late than the "Lily of the Valley" brand of string beans and little beets put up in glass which the Cory Market has just put in stock. The person that buys always come back for more they tell me.

Dipping keys in oil occasionally will keep locks in order. All hinges must be touched with an oiled feather now and then to save the annoyance of creaking doors.

DETROIT PLANTS ARE REOPENING

Auto Factories Re-employ About 10,000 Men Who Have Been Laid Off Several Weeks.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 4.—Industrial skies began to brighten yesterday when several automobile plants reopened on a part-time working basis and reemployed a total of about 10,000 men.

Other motor car manufacturers contemplate reopening their plants immediately after the close of New York automobile show, when they can begin construction of models which win favor there with prospective buyers.

The Packard plant opened yesterday morning with a working force of 3,000. This factory had been closed since the middle of December. Additional workers will be employed from day to day, an official announced.

The Cadillac Motor Car company began the day with 1,500 men after a two weeks' shutdown. As in the case of the Packard plant, that number is only a small portion of the normal force, but the employers say it points to resumption of normal production in these plants.

More than 400 men returned to work at plant No. 5 of the Studebaker corporation. An official of the employment department stated that additional men will be hired from day to day. Next Monday, he said, a similar number of men will be reemployed at plant No. 3.

C. M. Dotterer, employment manager of the Page-Detroit company announced that 75 men have been rehired and will begin work Tuesday morning. The same number will be added to the working force each day this week, he said. Production will be steadily increased during the next two months.

More than 150 men were added to the shop force of the Lincoln Motor company last week, according to John M. Eaton of the welfare department. Several hundred more old employes will be rehired this week, he said. Orders are beginning to come in, Mr. Eaton asserted, and the company plans to increase production steadily.

Chalmers' plant officials announced that 200 men have been engaged to begin work next Monday. Work on all closed models begins at that time. No date has been fixed for resumption of work on touring cars and roadsters.

Twelve per cent of the working force of 600 men is working at the Columbia motor plant. Officials announced that an additional 200 men will be put to work within the next month.
