Editor Morning Star:

Please add my mite ($1) to the amount for the starving people of India. England's inhumanity to Ireland is only repeated in India now. 47 AND 48.

More and more popular is the Red Boot store, corner of Ursuline and Dauphine streets, becoming every day. This is due to the enterprise of the proprietor, George J. Wagner, Esq., who attends to all the details of business himself, seeing that every caller gets exactly what he or she wants from the splendid stock of boots and shoes on hand, and that at the lowest prices. Up-town folks will remember that the Jackson Railroad city cars pass within one square of the store.

The new rooms at 132 Canal street of that popular dressmaker, Mrs. Jane Bell (formerly Miss McAuley of 161 Canal street) have been visited since their opening on the 15th inst. by quite a large number of her old friends and patrons whose minds are once more set at ease by having so skillful and conscientious a person as she has ever proved herself to be trust their orders to. Those ladies who are not yet acquainted with Mrs Bell should call and examine her styles and goods and enquire into the important question of prices which are notably reasonable.

To such of our readers as may have real estate, furniture, stocks or bonds to sell, or who may desire to purchase anything in that line, we would advise an interview with Messrs. Hoey, Macon & O'Connor, auctioneers, No. 11 Carondelet street. These gentlemen have had years of experience in the business, know thoroughly the actual value of all such securities, and under all circumstances do the very best to advance the interests confided to them.

Ordinary Notices of Marriages and Deaths will, hereafter be inserted for fifty cents. Obituaries will be charged at the rate of ten cents a line.

DIED:

COFFEY—On Friday, the 19th inst., at half-past 12 o'clock P. M., Bernard Ryan Coffey, beloved husband of Euphemia Bertheand.

The relatives and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, which takes place on Saturday, October 20, at 1 o'clock P. M., from his late residence on Delachaise street, between Laurel and Annunciation streets, Sixth District.

MANSFIELD—In Philadelphia, October 13, 1877, Rosie Norris, wife of Richard Mansfield, aged thirty-nine years, and a resident of this city for the last twenty-one years

O'BRIEN—On Monday, October 15, 1877, at 6 o'clock A. M., Anne Magdalen O'Brien, aged twenty-three and three months, eldest daughter of Joseph and the late Anne O'Brien.

TAYLOR—On Tuesday, October 16, 1877, at 12 o'clock P. M., Capt. Joseph Taylor, aged forty-five years, a native of New York, and a resident of this city for many years, and late Captain in First Louisiana Regiment Infantry C. S. A.

DURABLE DENTISTRY.

Dr. J. H. MALONEY, corner of Josephine and Camp streets, near Magazine Market, respectfully informs his patients and the public in general that he is performing all operations appertaining to his profession in the most scientific manner. Artificial teeth inserted, with or without extracting the roots, on a new plan. Old sets of teeth remodeled, and a perfect adaptation secured. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of gas or chloroform. Charges within the reach of all
