Short Crop of Cow Peas

Prices are going up. The enormous demand for Cow Peas last year carried the price very high, and as the crop is very short and the acreage is rapidly extending, there are many indications which point to much higher prices as the sowing season approaches.

WHIP-POOR-WILL COW PEAS.
 The Whip-poor-will are generally preferred in the Central and Southern States. They are bush form, early maturing and especially desirable for Peas.

NEW ERA COW PEAS.
 New Era's are a little earlier, and make more vine than the Whip-poor-will.

WONDERFULS, CLAYS AND MIXED COW PEAS.
 For Hay, the Wonderfuls or Mixed Cow Peas are more productive, they should always be planted with an occasional grain of Corn, Sorghum Seed, Kaffir Corn, etc., which will prevent the vines from getting damaged by coming in contact with the ground.

BLACK COW PEAS.
 Black Cow Peas are a little later in maturing than Clays, they make a good growth of vine, are exceptionally good for medium or poor land, and will stand almost any amount of wet weather without injury. We can also supply Sainfoin Peas, Red Rippers, Blackeye Peas and Soja Beans. Remember Bolgiano's cow peas are unquestionably the best. If your local merchant will not supply you with cow peas, write us direct and we will tell you where you can get them.

FREE—Send us 5c in stamps to pay postage, and mention this paper, and we will send you free a 25c package of "My Maryland" Tomato Seed, also our 1911 Catalogue of Seeds and our 1911 Catalogue of Poultry Supplies.

Automobile Trip to Leonardtown.

A pleasant surprise awaits the contestants in the Four Leaf Clover run to be given by the Automobile Club of Washington May 15-18 on the fourth day, when the route leads to Leonardtown, Md., and return, a distance of 112 miles. There are no thank you, marmas, or water breaks, two relics of roadbuilding of former days, when highways were built for slower traffic than automobiles.

GOOD ROADS FOUND.
 Early yesterday morning Clarence Barnard, who laid out the route for the first three days' run, left with the path-finding committee aboard his Stoddard-Dayton for Leonardtown. The party had heard many tales about the road conditions through the lower section of Maryland, which is but little traveled by automobiles, and, according to these reports, there were many bad stretches where it would well nigh be impossible for a car to get through. As a matter of fact, the roads were found in better condition than on any of the other three trips. Except for a few miles near Mechanicsville, where there is a little sand, the route is over a macadam pike that is as smooth as a city street.

Though fast time can be made over it, there is but little chance for speeding, owing to the fact that about every quarter of a mile or so there is a sharp turn in the road.

QUAINT SECTION OF STATE.
 The State highway commission, who have been building a road from Mechanicsville to Leonardtown, have completed all but a quarter of a mile of it which they are working on now, and expect to have done within the next ten days. This road is an entirely new route, and cuts off considerable of the distance between the two towns, Mechanicsville and Leonardtown.

It was in the stretch that is now torn up that the only heavy going was encountered, but Barnard and his Stoddard-Dayton had little trouble in negotiating it. A number of scary holes were met, and at times some trouble was experienced in passing them.

The route leads through one of the prettiest as well as the quaintest sections of Maryland. Many of the property owners in this section are direct descendants of the people who landed in 1632 at St. Mary's, a short distance below the noon control. Some of them hold their land under original grants from Lord Baltimore. Some of the old mansions, built of brick brought over from England and containing mahogany from the East Indies, are still standing and occupied.

ROUTE AS LAID OUT.
 The route, as laid out yesterday, leads through Clifton, Brandywine, Mechanicsville, and into Leonardtown. Three hours' running time will be allowed to the noon control, at St. Mary's, and for an early dinner. It is figured to have all the cars back in Washington by 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Instead of checking in at the Gratton Hotel as they do on the other days of the run they will check in at Fifteenth and B. streets, where the brake, motor, clutch, and gear test will be held that afternoon, so that the machines can be turned over to their owners the same evening.—Washington Herald, April 19 is the germ of La Grippe, that breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. J. Norris, Leonardtown, Md.

The Demon of The Air

Might as Well
 "What kind of a career have you mapped out for your boy, Josh?"
 "I'm goin' to make a lawyer of him," answered Farmer Cornstossel.

Brain Leaks.
 The man who is always for getting can not be for giving.

Continual worry about little things make us unable to cope with the big thing.

The world owes you a living, but you must be your own collector.

Every joy divided is doubled; every trouble shared is lessened. Moral dyspepsia is often mistaken for religion.

"Sweet are the uses of adversity," but you have to cultivate your taste.

We've never yet heard a salaried choir make music half so sweet as the innocent laughter of a happy child.

The crosses we boast of we get no credit for bearing.

About one week caring for a 7x11 garden takes all the "back to the land" enthusiasm out of the average city man.

Men have been banged on their reputations when their character might have saved them.

For every man who "falls" into debt a dozen men climb in.

Real religion never needs a press agent.

Saved From The Grave.
 "I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, la grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to the wonderful medicine. Try it. 50c and $1. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed by J. J. Norris, Leonardtown, Md.

A Genuine Antique.
 A Scottish woman who was spending her holidays in London entered a bric-a-brac shop in search of something odd to take home to Scotland with her. After she had inspected several articles, but had found none to suit her, she noticed a quaint figure of the head and shoulders of which appeared above the counter.

"What is that Japanese idol over there worth?" she inquired of the salesman.

The salesman's reply was given in a subdued tone.

"About half a million, madam. That's the proprietor!"

The Call of The Blood
 for purification, finds voice in pimples, boils, sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin,—all signs of liver trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood, give clear skin, rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25c at J. J. Norris, Leonardtown, Md.

Raw onions eaten are excellent in cases of bronchitis, throat ailments, and colds. Eaten raw, they help food digestion. Its sharp taste is due to a small amount of sulphur, which has to do with the odor. A cooked onion has not the stimulating effects of the raw.

Despite the objectionable odor, onions are indispensable in cookery. When sliced, the onion absorbs bad odors and disease germs from the atmosphere, removing bad smells. For this reason, a cut onion, laid lying about, should not be eaten.

Worse Than Bullets.
 Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered with, forty years. "But Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. "Greatest healer for Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Bruises and Piles. 25c at J. J. Norris, Leonardtown, Md."

Contented speckled hens, industriously scratching for the rarely found corn, may sometimes do more for a sick heart than a grove of nightingales.—George Eliot.

Gooseberries contain citric acid, and taken in proper form, are a valuable blood purifier. Ripe gooseberries, cooked or raw, act well on both stomach and liver, being cooling and astringent; they increase appetite and allay thirst. If eaten raw, they should be very ripe.

An Irish literateur when eating an apple pie flavored with a few green gooseberries, exclaimed with gusto, "Ah, what a delicious apple pie it would be if it was all made of green gooseberries!"
