NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Nine Pound Daughter.
Mr. and Mrs. Aime Tardiff are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a nine pound daughter yesterday.

Heavy Snow in Mountains.
Trainmen on westbound trains today report a heavy fall of snow in the Blue mountains. It is said that fully six inches of snow fell during the forenoon.

Medical Advisory Board Named.
Governor Withycombe yesterday announced the appointment of Drs. F. E. Boyden, E. O. Parker, H. J. Kavanaugh and W. D. McNary as a medical advisory board for Umatilla to facilitate the operation of the draft law.

A Drive for Doctors.
Pendleton is included in the itinerary of which Captain Ralph Fenton of the medical corps has mapped out in his drive for doctors for the U. S. service. Oregon's quota of the 22,000 doctors needed at once is 180 and Captain Fenton and others already in the service will tour the state to encourage enlistment and give examinations. Doctors with surgical skill are preferred though others are needed. Physicians under the age of 55 are eligible.

On Way to Spokane.
Johnny Poffenroth, formerly chief dispenser at the Hotel Pendleton bar and later clerk there, is in the city en route to Spokane from Winnemucca, Nev., where he has been for the past year and a half.

Had Already Sailed.
Mr. and Mrs. Newt Newtson and daughter returned this morning from Pasco after having received news that their son who is in the army had already sailed for France. They were expecting to make a trip east to visit him.

Pendleton Is Thanked.
Private Dallas J. Thompson, Battery D, 146 Field Artillery, writes to the East Oregonian, to thank Pendleton people for the courtesies shown the artillerymen when they passed through here en route to Camp Greene. He says the entire battery will always remember the courtsies extended by local business men and wishes a Merry Christmas for all the people at home.

To Build Garage.
Elizabeth Embysk has taken out a permit to build a garage at 421 Garfield street at a cost of $213.

Promoted to Sergeant.
Word has been received that Frank Hayes, formerly of this city and a brother of Mrs. Willard Bond, has been promoted to a sergeancy in the ordnance department of the army.

Sweaters and Pillows Sent.
A shipment of 26 feather pillows and 23 sweaters was sent yesterday to Camp Mills from this city to members of what was formerly Troop D. The pillows and swesters were made outside of the Red Cross by friends and reatives of the Pendleton soldiers.

Attending Woolmen's Meeting.
Quite a number of Umatilla county sheepmen, among them J. N. Burgess and R. N. Stanfield, are attending the annual convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers at The Dalles. E. F. Averill, district inspector of predatory animals, and W. W. Cryder supervisor of the Umatilla forest, went down yesterday to attend the convention.

Clubs to Be Taxed.
The Elks' Club, Wenaha Club and Moose Club of this city will probably be required to pay the sur-tax required under the new federal tax laws. This will be equivalent to one-tenth of their annual receipts from initiation fees and dues. The laws provide that aby club whose combined receipts from new and old members exceeds $12 a year per member are subject to the tax.

Lieutenant Inquires for Brother.
Chief of Police Roberts has received a letter from Lieutenant C Zeno Holt of Fort Oglethorp, Ga., asking for information about his brother, Ewell Homer (Jack) Walters, formerly a school teacher and who wrote from here that he intended entering a western school or hire out as a government trapper. He is described as being six feet tall, 24 years old, weighing 162 pounds and to have light, curly hair.

Mechanics for Naval Aviation.
Recruiting Officer Swartz has received notice that the navy has great need for mechanicians for naval aviation in the following ratings: Machinist's mates, carpenters' mates, quartermasters, coppersmiths and blacksmiths for aviation duties. The following trades are covered by these ratings: Carpenters, woodworkers, machinists, coppersmiths, blacksmiths, fabric workers, riggers, acetylene welders, gas engine overhaul men and instrument makers.

New Chevrolet Man Honored.
The following item from the Oregonian this morning is about the new Chevrolet agency manager in Pendleton.

"At a meeting of the Master Plumbers' Association, held Tuesday night in the Worchester building, H. Claussenius, president of the state association and prominent in the local organization for a number of years was presented with a handsome leather traveling bag. The presentation was made by J. B. Finegan, on behalf of the association.

"Mr. Claussenius has established a garage and automobile agency at Pendleton, and will leave Portland in a few days to take up his new business. The gift was in the nature of an appreciation of his service in the Master Plumbers' association.

Gets Big Golden Eagle.
Stanley Jewett of the biological survey, yesterday added to his valuable collection of birds and mammals the largest male golden eagle he has ever received. It came from a government trapper on Steen's mountain. Mr. Jewett is also very proud of another new acquisition to his collection, three specimens of tree mouse which he secured himself in Curry county. This type of mouse is only known along the coast from Eureka, Cal., to Eugene, Ore., and there are but 12 specimens in the collections of the country. Mr. Jewett was ableto secure for information about the habits of the little animal from two small boys who had made pets of some of the mice, that any biological authorities have ever found out. Among other things he learned that the little animals live entirely upon the pulp of the spine-like leaves of fire tree. The stripings, as fine as hairs almost, are used to make nests high in the trees.

P. H. S. INSTRUCTORS TO ENLIST IN NAVY

Manual Training Department May Close Because of Lack of Teachers.

Philip Parcher and Paul Amort, supervisor and assistant respectively of the manual training department of the Pendleton schools, will leave tonight to enlist in the U. S. navy. Parcher will go to Spokane to enlist as a second class mechanic and Amort will first go to Corvallis to visit his parents and will then return to Portland to enlist as a second class mechanic.

Neither has resigned his position in the school and will not until finally accepted into the service. In the event that either is rejected, the department will be kept open but should both be accepted there is a probability that the department will be closed owing to inability to secure instructors. Prof. E. D. Ressler of O. A. C., who has charge of the vocational work at that school, when here recently declared there are no men available for this branch of school work, the war having drawn so many. An attempt may be made to induce R. E. Chlupsek, supervisor until this year, to resign his position in the land to resume his former duties.

Should the department be closed, other courses will be substituted.

SEATTLE FAVORED BY RATE ON LIVESTOCK

The state public service commission is making an inquiry as to why the O. W. R. & N. will haul livestock from Umatilla county points through Portland to Seattle for the same rate charged to Portland. The case was brought by W. S. Baker who based his inquiry on the fact Henry Sommerer of Hermiston had shipped some carloads of beef to Seattle via Portland, receiving from $50 to $60 per car more than he could have secured in Portland. Shipments of beef cattle have also been made in the same way.
