TO MAKE WEBSTER OBSOLETE.

Is Object of Senate Committee Which Dislikes Certain Definitions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Steps have been taken by the senate committee on military affairs to have Noah Webster's famous dictionary adjudged obsolete. The definition given to "hazing" by that authority is not satisfactory to the congress.

After a long discussion Senator [illegible] was authorized to introduce a bill prescribing regulations governing the dismissal of cadets from the West Point Military Academy on charges of hazing, and to define what constitutes hazing. It is provided that a cadet dismissed shall not be reinstated and shall not be eligible for appointment as an officer of the army for two years after the class of which he was a member shall have been graduated.

Webster says this about hazing: "To subject to humiliating [illegible] [illegible] the victim of [illegible] [illegible]."

NEWSPAPER MAN HONORED.

Cross of the Legion of Honor Is Conferred on Howard Thompson.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The cross of the Legion of Honor has been conferred upon Howard Thompson, Paris correspondent of the Associated Press, according to information received in this city by his sister, Mrs. Harry [illegible]. The minister of foreign affairs is said to have presented the name of Mr. Thompson for the decoration. Mr. Thompson is widely known to the members of the newspaper profession. He represented the Associated Press in Cuba in the Spanish-American War and subsequently in St. Petersburg, whence he was transferred to Paris.

The Preference.

"My dear," said the far-seeing parent, "that young man may be a trifle odious, but he is a coming man."

"Perhaps he is," sighed the weary maiden, "but I'd rather he had more go in him."—Baltimore American.

WROTE FOR MONEY; GOT A POEM

Student Received a Gentle Hint from His Parents.

A sophomore student in the School of Journalism wrote home for money last week. This morning he received a letter from his father. It contained, besides a draft, the following poem from Puck:

College Idyl.

"Where is my Sophomore son tonight—
The child of our tears and fuss?
Does he mathematize on the flight of light,
Or work at Theocritus?"

"Nay, lady, he's talkin' of next year's team;
Or watching 'too basketball;
Or calling and chatting with Peaches and Cream;
Or smoking a pipe—that's all;

"Or hazing a freshman to make him grow;
Or fighting some likely pups;
Or raising a row with a rotten show;
Or running for loving cups;

"And [illegible] [illegible] more play;
Or stealing the chapel chimes;
But, lady, you back on it anyway
[illegible]"

On the afternoon of February 20 an address will also be given by Hanford Crawford, president of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. W. S. Hall, of the medical department of the Northwestern University, will deliver addresses February 26 and 27.

THEY IMITATE [illegible] [illegible]

Washington University Students Not to Shave Until Examinations.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25.—It is a [illegible] question that the [illegible] students of Washington University [illegible] to decide these days.

Shall they shave [illegible] [illegible] and have all the "girls" [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the fair [illegible] on the campus.

Thirty-five students have signed a [illegible] [illegible] not to shave, nor to wear a collar, but a [illegible] shirt of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. This [illegible] is in force from January 17 to January 27 and those who violate the agreement must buy the drinks for the others.

The co-eds are up in arms and think it is a shame that Willie or Johnnie cannot take her to this dance or that show, because he will not shave. When James, who, a week ago, was immaculate, now passes, his fair friend does not care to recognize him. It is a sad state of affairs that has to continue for one more long week.

Good Vaudeville at the Star.

The Star theater offers another good bill this week. La Rauent and Le Roy have an amusing sketch entitled "The Passing of Slim." Dorin and Zeno have a Roman ring and trapeze act that pleases. Mr. Dorin is one of the best trapeze actors on the stage it is said. They played to a large audience last night. (Adv.)

DRESS IS WOMAN'S COMPETITIVE GAME

The Purpose is Not to Please Husbands, Says Chicago Professor.

MEN BUY CLOTHES FOR USE

Wife Has Been Lay Figure On Which to Hang Signs of Prosperity.

CHICAGO—One lone man stood before 200 women here the other day and lectured on "Women's Dress." When he had concluded he was besieged with questions and had an answer for each. The lecturer was Prof. William I. Thomas, of the University of Chicago, and his audience was composed of the members of the University Guild, an exclusive Evanston organization, of which Mrs. James A. Patten is president.

Dress a Competitive Game.

"Do you believe it a just accusation to say that women dress only to please men?" was one of the first queries put by a member of Prof. Thomas's audience.

"No," was the reply. "I regard it as a sort of feminine competitive game. It is the natural desire to excel in a thing in which they are vastly interested, which causes a great deal of the extravagance."

"Really, don't you believe that women spend a great deal more on clothes than they would otherwise merely to please their husbands?" asked another.

"No; I believe very little dressing is done for the sake of husbands; it is chiefly for other women," was the discouraging reply.

"Why is it that while women's dress has certainly grown no less attractive within the last two centuries, the dress of men has become more and more ugly?"

Men's Clothing an Evolution.

Without a moment's hesitation the reply came:

"It is simply that in a life where activity counts the most utility in dress and little else is taken into consideration. One advantage which men's clothes have over that of women is that they last longer and do not cost so much."

Among the statements made by Prof. Thomas before the [illegible] were the following:

[illegible]

[illegible] Taft to Lose Social Secretary.

WASHINGTON—Once again Washington official society is on the qui vive, for the very latest rumor is that Miss Alice M. Blech, secretary to Mrs. Taft, will soon resign her position to assume that of the wife of Richard Wainwright, the son of Admiral Wainwright. Ever since last winter gossip has been busy in predicting Miss Blech's engagement. The couple have been almost constantly together.

Perhaps never before has the social secretary to the wife of the President been so prominent to public notice as has been Miss Blech.

Miss Blech is most attractive looking and is in the early twenties. She has smooth brown hair and always wears neutral shades of white, which [illegible] it into a beautiful contrast.

Miss Blech has mastered seven languages. Probably the one thing which attracted Mrs. Taft to her was the fact that she was told that the young woman was a thorough pianist, having won much applause in the local musical [illegible].—Baltimore News.

Are You Thinking of Building a Home?

If so, you should investigate the prices of lots in beautiful Westwood and Westmount. The only two additions to Columbia with building restrictions, and where water, light, sewer, gas, sidewalks and improved streets go with every lot. Twenty-eight families built homes in these two additions last year, two more have already bought lots and are making preparations to build this year.

Just think of it—over $150,000 invested in homes in these two additions last year. Would you not like to have your home among these good people? If so, you can buy a lot cheaper now than you will ever be able to again. I sell only to home builders.

Respectfully,
J. A. STEWART,
