PASS PROSPERITY AROUND?

It is impossible to resist the conclusion, in reading the daily reports of the senate insurgent investigation of campaign contributions, that Theodore Roosevelt's present bitter and incessant campaign against President Taft is inspired chiefly by anger because Mr. Taft has repudiated and refused with the broad means at his command, pushed the prosecution of the great monopolies of the country which have been encouraged and fostered by Theodore Roosevelt, which financed his last election and which are menacing his present fight to get back into the presidential chair.

The contrast between the $150,000 contributed by J. Pierpont Morgan from patriotic motives for the election of Roosevelt and the $20,000 contributed to the Taft campaign fund speaks most eloquently for itself. Evidently Mr. Morgan sustained a terrible falling off in patriotism between the year 1904 and the year 1908. That he might have been even more patriotic when he gave Roosevelt $150,000 was pointed out yesterday by Governor Marshall of Indiana who reminded us of the fact that President Roosevelt gave to Mr. Morgan the right in violation of the law to amalgamate the Tennessee Coal and Iron company with the Steel trust, a deal which netted Morgan $60,000,000.

Roosevelt during his recent grand standing tour with an exceeding great and loud noise has endeavored to bully and browbeat the laboring men into the belief that he, Roosevelt, is the champion of labor and the God-appointed advocate of the downtrodden workingman. It is claimed by the Roosevelt forces that they will get a big vote from the laboring men. We have a higher idea of the intelligence of the American laborer than to believe that he will vote to put in power a man who is created, supported and maintained by the Standard Oil company, the Steel trust, the Harvester trust and the great vested interests of the country, who cheerfully paid millions to get Roosevelt elected and who, as in the case of Morgan with his sixty-nine million-dollar profit, found it one of the best investments they ever made. As a stock concern T. Roosevelt, Inc., paid enormous dividends.

Is it any wonder that Medill McCormick, of the Harvester Trust, George W. Perkins, recently of J. Pierpont Morgan and Company, and men of their ilk are leaders in the Bull Moose propaganda and that a representative of one of the most famous fortunes of New York is spending money lavishly in a futile attempt to carry New Mexico for Theodore Roosevelt?

Where does the workingman sit on?

Is he going to vote for the creature and the tool and the exponent of the great industrial combines, for whose election J. P. Morgan paid a small fortune; or for the man whose quiet and determined prosecution of these illegal monopolies in restraint of industrial freedom has gained for him the bitter, abusive, calumnious and venomous enmity of the man who has raged up and down the map, denouncing the Liars, Thieves, Scoundrels, Rascals, Crooked Bosses, Crooked Interests and Receivers of Stolen Goods?

J. P. Morgan made Theodore Roosevelt a present of $150,000. Theodore Roosevelt made J. P. Morgan a present of sixty-nine million dollars.

To use the words of the Bull Moose, isn't it about time they were Passing Prosperity Around?

A MESSAGE TO TEACHERS.

Cardinal Newman became one of the greatest men in the Roman church because, when a wide-eyed child, he nightly watched his devout Irish nurse counting her beads as she put him to bed.

Could we go back to the small beginnings, we might find that Martin Luther or John Wesley lent plaintiff to some such childhood influence as this which gave their lives the trend that made them famous.

S. Parkes Cadman, in commenting on the case of Newman in the "Pastors' Magazine" says:

handle social forces at their fountain head and upon that handling depends the strength and direction of those forces. I know nothing in the service of man which is more charged with opportunity and responsibility than the instruction of the young. The habitation of God is among men, and child life is a favored spot for the higher and divinier things. But moreover those who deal with children are subject to a scrutiny whose keenness has not been allowed to any other contact with the world. Children look into our very souls with the eyes that see the most because they are pure. Any teacher reason having these properties and conscientiously lets her life be in them is sure to [illegible] which cannot be erased or [illegible] years to the coming.

WE ARE TOLD that [illegible] they cannot vote for Taft, the Taft men in California by voting for Wilson will carry the Golden state for the progressive. And in the other states the Taft men will have a chance to vote for Taft. Ergo, quod erat demonstrandum, Wasmuhn reductio ad absurdum.

What's the Use?

Ryan and Bob Davis were on the card as after-dinner speakers at the last annual dinner to newspaper men. Davis pulled a monologue about the time when he was a western editor, with his subscription list penciled on the wall, and how a cyclone came and wiped out his circulation. When he finished he looked gloatingly at Ryan.

"After listening to Davis' monologue," said Ryan as he gained his feet, "I am reminded of the two oysters that met in the stew.

"'Where are we?' asked No. 1 bivalve.

"'We're at a church social,' replied the only other oyster in the stew.

"Then the other pathetically inquired.

"'Well, what in the dickens do they want the two of us for?'"

EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

Don't Neglect a Cold. Ely's Cream Balm Will Stop It in the Sneezing Stage.

A cold generally attacks the weak part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and bronchial troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, fever and headache. One reason why this antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.—Adv.

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN ARE BLOWN TO PIECES

All the engine was blown away except the trucks. The boiler was blown over the telegraph wires and landed 20 feet away. The engineer was blown 100 feet and broken in pieces. The fireman was found 50 feet away and lived fifty minutes. Traffic was tied up for several hours.

Stop coughing! You rack the lungs and worry the body. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP checks irritation, heals the lungs and restores comfortable breathing. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

MEMORIAL MEDAL FOR COLUMBUS CELEBRATION

Handsome Souvenirs to Be Distributed and Worn by Those Participating in Procession on October 12th.

The Columbus day celebration committee has caused to be struck a memorial medal, which will probably be an eagerly sought for souvenir on October 12, the day on which a state-wide celebration of Columbus day will be held in Albuquerque by the Knights of Columbus and a number of other organizations. The medal is of bronze, with the date and occasion title on one side and the Landing of Columbus on the reverse, the medal being suspended by a red, white and blue ribbon.

Final plans for the celebration of Columbus day were outlined at an enthusiastic meeting of the Knights of Columbus held last night. Committees on decoration and arrangements were appointed to take care of matters not heretofore attended to. The decoration committee will have in hand the work of beautifying the interior of the Elks theater, where a public celebration will be held following brief services in the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

The Columbus day procession promises to be an imposing one. It is expected that at least five hundred men and several hundred cadets from the various schools will be in line, together with a half dozen bands and other features. The orator of the day, Hon. George P. Connolly of San Francisco, will arrive here next Friday. Mr. Connolly will speak on "Columbus."

On Sunday, October 13, Mr. Connolly will assist in the exemplification of the third degree of the Knights of Columbus. At the meeting of Albuquerque Council last night a degree committee was named, consisting of all the past grand knights of the Council, P. F. McCanna, O. N. Marron, M. S. Tierney, J. A. Johnson, J. A. Reidy, T. F. Keleher, Jr., and F. E. Wood, to have after affairs connected with the complications of the work of the order.

Many candidates will be initiated on October 13, a large number coming here from outside points for the degree.

ILLINOIS TOWN HAS CHAMPION LADY DRESSER

Medora, Ill., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Frederick A. Long, member of the Medora club, set a new mark today for rapid dressing in a contest with co-workers in the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Incidentally Mrs. Long exploded the masculine idea that a woman's "minute" while donning her garments is of greater duration than sixty seconds.

Here is what Mrs. Long accomplished in forty-five seconds: Unbuckled the straps of a leather suit case, which contained a raincoat, donned the garment, buttoned six buttons, fastened a belt around the raincoat, closed the suit case, refastened the straps and raised an umbrella.

A stop watch was used. Mrs. C. W. Tietsort was hostess to the society.

LIST ROOMS NOW URGES SECRETARY OF THE FAIR

Management Must Have Complete Register in Order to Be Able to Assign Arrivals to Quarters Promptly.

"All persons having room to rent to visitors in the city during the fair are urged to list them at once with Al Goodrich at the information bureau in the New Mexico Cigar company store," said Frank Stortz, secretary of the state fair today. "It is very important to have a full list on hand, for while we may not need them all, when people apply they must be accommodated promptly. This matter is of the most pressing importance and cannot be too strongly impressed upon the people. Delay in assigning visitors to rooms will cause great inconvenience and if all who have rooms available will let us know at once the favor will be much appreciated."

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO BE REPRESENTED IN THE PARADE

Old Albuquerque Boys and Girls to Have Big Float: New School at Bareles to Be Occupied Monday.

The big educational display in the industrial parade during the State fair, including representation from the city public schools, the University of New Mexico, the United States Indian school and various private schools, will be further augmented by a splendid display from the Old Albuquerque school and probably from others of the county schools. Forty pupils from the Old Albuquerque school, District 13, will sing patriotic songs as the big float, gaily decorated, bears them along. It is likely that, not to be outdone, the Barelas school pupils and others in nearby districts will get in the procession.

Barelas School Opens Monday.

The handsome new modern three-room school building in Barelas has received its first coat of exterior stucco and will be ready for occupancy next Monday morning. Barelas district takes great pride in this building, which cost some $2,500 and is one of the finest in the county.

"We are getting ready for the opening of all the mountain schools the latter part of this month and first of next," said County Superintendent Montoya this morning.

"Reports from all the districts where school is now in progress are most gratifying and the spirit of enthusiasm among teachers and pupils alike is excellent."
