The Political Outlook.

For the first time in the history of the State direct nominations will be made by both parties for State and county offices, and Tuesday, August 29, proximo, will be Primary Day.

On the Democratic side, Blair Lee is making an active canvass for the gubernatorial nomination and is sending circulars all over the State. Before another issue, there will likely be other Richmonds in the field and the fight will be on.

In local politics, but few candidates are yet announced. Kingsley Love and Spencer Crane are avowed candidates for the Republican nomination for State's Attorney, and Kingsley's picture is printed in last Tuesday's Baltimore Sun. Ex-Sheriff Harry Dent is a Democratic candidate for the sheriffalty, and Capt. Walter Wise is suggested for County Commissioner.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., July 13, 1911.
By CLYDE H. TAVERNER.

President Taft will be opposed by progressive republicans for a re-nomination on the ground that he is still the mouthpiece of Aldrich and the great law-defying industrial corporations of the country.

If proof was necessary to show that the old alliance between Taft and Aldrich still exists, the President himself furnished it on two notable occasions within the last couple of weeks when he went out of his way to endorse the Aldrich near-central-bank scheme which is designed to give Wall Street absolute control of the money and credit of the United States, and thus make it the absolute master of business and industry.

Progressive republicans contend that if the President should be re-nominated and re-elected "he would continue to be the complaisant helpmate of schemers like Aldrich, who are striving constantly to make the great masses of the public little more than the serfs of the few men who compose the great financial combination, of which J. Pierpont Morgan and the Standard Oil capitalists are the most conspicuous figures." And Mr. Taft now publicly confirms the fears of the progressives.

Therefore the only thing left for the public to conclude is that Mr. Taft's re-election would necessarily place back in control of Congress the same class of men who were swept out by the indignation of the public in the last election.

That Mr. Taft is but the mouthpiece of Aldrich in all his speeches in which he advocates the Aldrich monetary scheme as being "the most important" legislation before the public is evident on the face of things. For Mr. Taft has himself been frank enough to say that he knows nothing about the Aldrich plan; that he has not studied the financial question, and that he has taken his convictions from those who have told him the Aldrich plan should be adopted.

Taft's strong endorsement of the Aldrich scheme will make it more necessary than ever for the progressives within his party to prevent his nomination. It also means that the Aldrich scheme will be made one of the big campaign issues of 1912. The democrats desire no better issue. The scheme Aldrich has cooked up gives to Morgan the power of life and death over business and industry. For the life of both is credit, and the control of credit Taft would place absolutely in Morgan's hands.

DEMOCRATS MAKING HONEST EFFORTS.
The Democrats are sincere in their efforts to run the House of Representatives on an economical business basis. The report of Jerry South, chief clerk of the House, just made public, shows that during the month of June a saving of $8,561.90 was effected as a result of the abolishing of useless offices. This item, which does not include the big reduction on the police force which the senate has not yet concurred in but will approve shortly, means a saving of $102,642.80 in a year.

This is not a stupendous sum, it is true, but the spirit is in striking contrast to the $35 wastepaper baskets in the offices of Postmaster General Hitchcock and the expensive recreations taken by the Aldrich monetary commission at public expense at Narragansett pier.

TAFT BUREAU REPUDIATED.
Once more the White House press bureau has been forced to back-track. It was like this: Franklin A. Shotwell of Omaha, secretary of the Progressive Republican League of Nebraska, came to Washington, had a talk with the President, and was quoted by the White House press bureau as saying that Nebraska was strong "for Taft for re-nomination and reelection." Now it happens that the league which Mr. Shotwell was made to appear as speaking for, is "strong" against Taft instead of being for him. When the officials of the Nebraska organization heard of Shotwell's statements they promptly passed resolutions repudiating it, and wired them to Washington. The fact is the real progressive republicans stand as a unit against Taft's re-nomination, and every indication is that if he secures the nomination again they will permit him to go down in defeat. Then they will make an attempt to reorganize the republican party.

PROGRESSIVES LOSE GROUNDS.
When it is too late some of the Republican insurgents in the United States senate who are opposing reciprocity may learn that they are committing one of those huge political blunders that have been described as worse than crimes.

REAL REVISION DOWNWARD.
The wool bill, passed by the Democratic House but not acted upon as yet in the Republican senate, reduces the tax on cloth out of which the poor man's clothing is made, from 160 per cent to from 25 to 40 per cent; on women's dress goods from 150 per cent to from 30 to 45 per cent, on blankets from 160 per cent to 30 per cent.

FACTS ABOUT STEEL TRUST.

The restriction of competition, which is in violation of the law, was the prime object of the organizers of the United States Steel corporation, according to information which has recently come to light in Washington. When formed, the steel trust had property valued at $682,000,000. But it was capitalized at $1,402,000,000. Of the capital stock, $720,000,000, or more than half, was water. Three partners of J. P. Morgan advanced $28,000,000 to finance the trust and received stock worth $90,500,000. The average rate of profit from 1901 to 1910 on the corporation's actual investment was 12 per cent. Although this combine is in existence in plain violation of the law, the Taft administration refused to prosecute it. The Taft administration, however, co-operating with the steel trust by giving secrets of our battleships to foreign nations with the understanding that in exchange for these secrets the countries thus favored would give a substantial contract to the steel trust. The man who permitted the exchange of vital government secrets in order that the illegal trust could increase its dividends was Philander C. Knox, now secretary of State. Mr. Knox helped organize the steel trust and went from the position of steel trust attorney to that of United States attorney General.

There the only thing left for the public to conclude is that Mr. Taft's re-election would necessarily place back in control of Congress the same class of men who were swept out by the indignation of the public in the last election.

That Mr. Taft is but the mouthpiece of Aldrich in all his speeches in which he advocates the Aldrich monetary scheme as being "the most important" legislation before the public is evident on the face of things.
