Senator Lee spent nearly twenty five thousand dollars in his campaign for the gubernatorial nomination, $1900 of which was spent in St. Mary's county. Senator Lee will certainly never have a country editor run against him at this price.

Several bold robberies have lately been perpetrated in La Plata and in Hughesville, Charles county. The Times-Crescent says that "three negroes—Dick Forbes, James Campbell and Remus Garner—are in jail accused of the crime and that other negroes are under surveillance."

From the Evening Sun, of October 2, instant, we learn that Republican Boss, William F. Stone, of Baltimore, has acknowledged that "a guilty Republican is as bad as a guilty Democrat." This ought to clear the atmosphere considerably, but the Evening News will no doubt regard it as rank heresy and refuse to subscribe to any such doctrine.

The town of Austin, Pa., was destroyed by the breaking of a concrete dam and over 150 lives were lost and $3,000,000 of property destroyed. The dam collapsed on Saturday, September 30th. A section of the dam weighing 80 tons was "carried like a straw on the crest of the flood for more than half a mile and hurled high up on the slope of the mountain."
