COUNTY NEWS

Rally Democrats

All Democrats and citizens in general are requested to meet the Democratic candidates at the following times and places, and hear them for their cause.

- Thursday, November 2, Valley Lee, at 2 p. m. St. George's Island, 8 p. m.
Friday, November 3, St. Inigo's, at 2 p. m. Ridge, at 8 p. m.
SEVENTH DISTRICT, Friday, November 3, Maddox, at 4 p. m. Palmer's, at 7 p. m.
SIXTH DISTRICT, Saturday, November 4, Hollywood, at 2 p. m. Union Town, at 6 p. m. White Oak Swamp, at 8 p. m.
Monday, November 6, Abell's Wharf, at 8:30 p. m.

Localwise and Otherwise

A large crowd was in attendance at the last day of the Fall Races.

Max L. Millison's New advertisement will appear in our next issue.

Mrs. Jos. H. Kay, of Leonardtown, is visiting relatives in Washington.

Miss Ethel Cecil, of Valley Lee, is visiting the family of E. C. Raley, Leonardtown.

The Field Day at Leonard Hall, on Thursday last, was a great success in every form.

Mr. Earl Hayden, a graduate of Charlotte Hall, is an assistant teacher at Leonard Hall.

Dr. Roensberg, an optometrist is now at Hotel St. Mary's. See his advertisement elsewhere.

Mr. Claude Lynch, of Leonardtown, has gone to Baltimore, where he will secure a position.

On account of the press of election advertisements, we have been forced to leave out some news items.

Mrs. George P. Loker, of Leonardtown is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Trenchard, near Baltimore.

There was a dance at Hotel St. Mary's Monday night. A large crowd attended and seemed to enjoy it greatly.

The Wolfman Brothers, of Washington were in attendance at the Races and afforded most amusement at their stand.

C. B. Lloyd, of Baltimore, is in Leonardtown. Mr. Lloyd's residence is at the new McGoan's a flattering majority.

Mr. James P. Burns, of Ardmore, Okla., has paid Leonardtown a visit recently. Mr. Burns is tracing his genealogy at the Register of Wills Office.

Don't fail to attend the Democratic Meetings, some new and old places at which speakers will present the cause of the people as added to the list printed in this issue.

On Tuesday night, October 24, W. V. Waters, of Leonardtown, lost his valuable colt "Hill Ozie." The death of the animal was caused by being kicked some time ago by another horse.

Mrs. Indiana Langley, widow of Jas. R. Langley, died Thursday, October 19th, at the residence of Mr. H. J. Beal, St. Inigo's. She was buried at St. Mary's Church. She was a good, kind Christian woman and was much admired by all who knew her.

Capt. Emer Mossick and Mr. T. S. Saunders were in a runaway accident in St. Mary's county on Friday, the 20th. Mr. Saunders was thrown backwards out of the buggy, and still feels the effect of the bruises received. Capt. was not as badly hurt - Calvert Journal.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Cogwell and sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis Goe, of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. A. A. Lawrence, Leonardtown. Mrs. Cogwell and Mrs. Lawrence were school girls together. Mrs. B. F. Cogwell was clerk of the Superior Court of Cleveland for 17 years.

Elliot Dent, of Oakley, has returned home for the winter. "Eli" has made good in baseball and ranks among the top pitchers of the National League. His work for New Haven and for Brooklyn has brought him into prominence in the baseball world, and his friends anticipate great things from him the coming season.

F. O. MORGAN IS SELLING OUT HIS ENTIRE STOCK AT COST.

For the purpose of making a change in his business, Mr. F. O. Morgan will begin at once one of the greatest sales of Men's and Boys' Ready-Made Clothing that was ever had in Southern Maryland. As is a well known fact, Mr. Morgan carries the LARGEST STOCK OF CLOTHING SOUTH OF BALTIMORE, and every Suit, Overcoat or individual garment will be sold at absolutely the ACTUAL FIRST COST, a reference to bills to be had to convince you of this fact. Never in the history of St. Mary's County was there, or will there ever be another such opportunity to buy High Grade Clothing at the prices Mr. Morgan is now asking.

Mrs. Eliza Catherine Jarboe Dead

On Wednesday, October 25, at Ridge, Md., Mrs. Eliza Catherine Jarboe, wife of John S. Jarboe, passed peacefully away, a little after midnight. She had been ill and confined to her bed, a constant sufferer, since last June. Both her patient christian fortitude in life, and her beautiful calm passing into the great beyond, pastured her great faith and daughter's courage on the three hold of the life to come.

Her maiden name was Eliza Catherine McKee. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Cecil and two sons, Clarence M. and J. Irving Jarboe. Services were held on Friday at ten o'clock, at St. Michael's Church, where high Mass was said for the repose of her soul. The interment was at St. Michael's Cemetery, Washington, D. C., papers please copy.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or the youngest child. The old and feeble will also find them a most suitable remedy for aiding and strengthening the weakened digestion and for regulating the bowels. For sale by all dealers.

Field Day at Leonard Hall

The field day exercises which were held on Thursday, Oct. 26, under the auspices of the Leonard Hall A. A. was a great success. It was as successful, if not more so, than any held at Leonard Hall.

The topic of conversation among the college boys, is the great work of Messrs. Harris Camaller and Roland McKay. Their excellent work in the Senior A Class did much to make the events a success and did Mr. Paul Cecil of the Senior B Class. In the Juniors A Class, Messrs. Warren Irving deserves credit for his good work. Master William Brookes was the winner of the Junior B Class.
