CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

ARE FIRE PROOF
THEY will not burn. Will not split or curl like wood shingles. Will not crack and roll off like slate. Will not rip at the seams like plain tin. Neither will they rattle during high wind storms. They never need repairs and last as long as the building. And last of all, they make the handsomest roof and are not expensive.

MOHAMMED'S TAIL

By GEORGE PHILLIPS.

Miss Theodora Bingham, director of the Mission School for Girls at Damascus, tossed upon the back of her camel. The file of beasts stretched away before and behind her, each with its swarthy Arab attendant, while Sheikh Abdullah, riding on his white mule, passed slowly alongside of the caravan, his hands holding the reins loosely and an expression of benign self-satisfaction upon his face.

At Jerusalem she had joined the caravan, under the protection of the Sheikh Abdullah, to insure her safe arrival unmolested by desert nomads. And now Damascus was only two days' journey away, and the little caravan reposed in the saddle-bags among her other possessions.

LITTLE PIGS MAY MAKE BIG MONEY

By C. L. OPPERMAN.

Milk is more digestible for little pigs than any other food. They should not have any coarse feeds at first. When they are two weeks old they may have a little shelled corn and some clover in a trough by themselves. They should have plenty of trough room so as not to crowd each other and make runs. Little pigs, to be kept in good growing condition should have good pasture and some grain feed. They are especially fond of grass, clover, alfalfa and soy beans and when fed in addition a grain mixture of one part of corn and two parts of shorts at the rate of four and a half to five pounds a day per 100 pounds weight will make good, cheap pork at an astonishing rate.

When the pig is five to seven months old he is ready to fatten and finish. For this purpose, snipped ears and water are second to no other feeds, provided you are not going to feed longer than two months. A cement feeding floor is very desirable since it can be kept clean and does not have the danger of the pig taking up dirt and worms with his feed. Figs so treated should fetch the top market price at seven to ten months old.

ACT ON FIRST IMPRESSIONS

By P. S. OGDEN.

Old Adage That "He Who Hasteneth is Lost" is a Whole Bundle of Truth.

In a letter to a friend at a great moral crisis in his life Darwin expressed an observation which is confirmed by general experience. The action which had suggested itself to him when he first faced the crisis had been condemned as dishonorable. On further consideration, when he was sorely tempted to proceed, he told his friend of the struggle he was having. But added, "First impressions are generally right," and he proposed to stand by his first impression of the course in view would be dishonorable.

COCCOON SOUFFLE—To two cups of shredded cocoon add six tablespoons of flour, one pint of milk, four eggs and a half cup of sugar. A teaspoon of baking powder and half a teaspoon of lemon extract. Beat the eggs until light, add the sugar then the flour sifted with the baking powder, then the lemon, milk, and a cupful of the cocoon. Mix carefully and turn into a buttered baking dish. As soon as it begins to set sprinkle over the top the other cup of cocoon mixed with two tablespoons of sugar. Serve from the dish in which it is baked.
